

Armed Services Call Many Youths From Auburn

A cablegram expressing season's greetings to his relatives in Auburn has been received from First Sgt. James S. McGarr, U.S.A., who is stationed at an advanced base in New Guinea. Messages from far across the sea were sent to Sergeant McGarr's sister, Mrs. Robert McCarthy of 122 South Seward Avenue, and to his aunt, Miss Agnes C. McGarr of Oakridge Road. Sgt. McGarr has been in the service for more than two years. His brother, Lieut. Paul D. McGarr, is now stationed at an air base near Salina, Kansas.

William Rice of 66 First Avenue has been ordered to Lincoln, Nebraska, for a course in airplane mechanics. After a 19 week course of instruction at the training school the men will return to Selfridge Field, Michigan.

Leonard M. Wood, son of Mrs. Agnes Wood of East Geneva Street, has enlisted in the New Motor Transport Unit and is now stationed at Fort Niagara, where he assumed his duties on Dec. 26. Private Wood is a graduate of Holy Family Parochial School and of Auburn High School. For the past seven years he was affiliated with the Syracuse Branch of the Red Star Express Lines of Auburn. Fellow associates tendered him a farewell party and he was presented with military gifts. Private Wood has two twin brothers in the armed forces. They are Richard and Bernard Wood who have been in the U. S. Marines since last July and now are serving overseas. Both are graduates of Holy Family and East High Schools.

Pvt. Joseph Cunningham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cunningham of 11 Park Place, who is stationed at MacDill Field, Tampa, Florida, has been promoted to private first class.

Sergt. Luther W. Abrams, U.S.A., spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Abrams of Melrose Road. Sergt. Abrams is stationed at Camp Chaffee, Ark.

Private Gerald Fitzgerald is at Neff Hall, Weatherford, Oklahoma, where he will attend school for the next fifteen weeks.

Bernard Linnenback, son of Police Sgt. Michael Linnenback and Mrs. Linnenback of 18 Frances Street, who has been in the Army for several months is now stationed at Grand Island with the military police, and has just been promoted to corporal.

Private Stanley Rydenewski, U.S.A., formerly of Auburn, is now located at Camp Chaffee, Arkansas.

Pfc. John D'Angelo of Auburn has been temporarily granted a leave from the 18th Armored Division in California to attend the wheeled vehicle course at the Armored Force School, Fort Knox, Kentucky.

Pfc. Ignatius J. Dec, U.S.A., is home on a furlough and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dec of 42 Chase Street. Private Dec is stationed at Chamate Field, Illinois.

Miss Lillian Fine has been sworn into the WAAC's and is now awaiting the call to duty. Miss Fine, who resides with her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus T. Fine of 21 Lewis Street, is a graduate of Auburn East High School. She is now affiliated with the Auburn office of the Federal Employment Service.

Mr. and Mrs. David L. Shaw of 5 1/2 Park Place received a telegram of Christmas greetings from their son, Sergt. David N. Shaw, who is now stationed somewhere in Australia. Mrs. Thomas Monahan of 58 Garrow Street also received Christmas greetings from Sergt. David N. Shaw who is her grandson.

Seaman First Class Robert Farley has returned to his duties at the U. S. Maritime Training Station at Manhattan Beach, Brooklyn, after spending a short leave at his home in Scipio Center and with his brother, Jay Farley of Auburn.

Private John K. McCarthy, stationed at Camp Edwards, Mass., spent the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. McCarthy of 52 No. Falton Street.

Private John E. Corcoran, who left Auburn on Dec. 1 for Fort Niagara, is now stationed with the Headquarters Company, 48 A. R. at Camp Chaffee, Arkansas, where he has been located since Dec. 26. At the time of his induction, Private Corcoran was senior stenographer in the Industrial Dept. at Auburn State Prison.

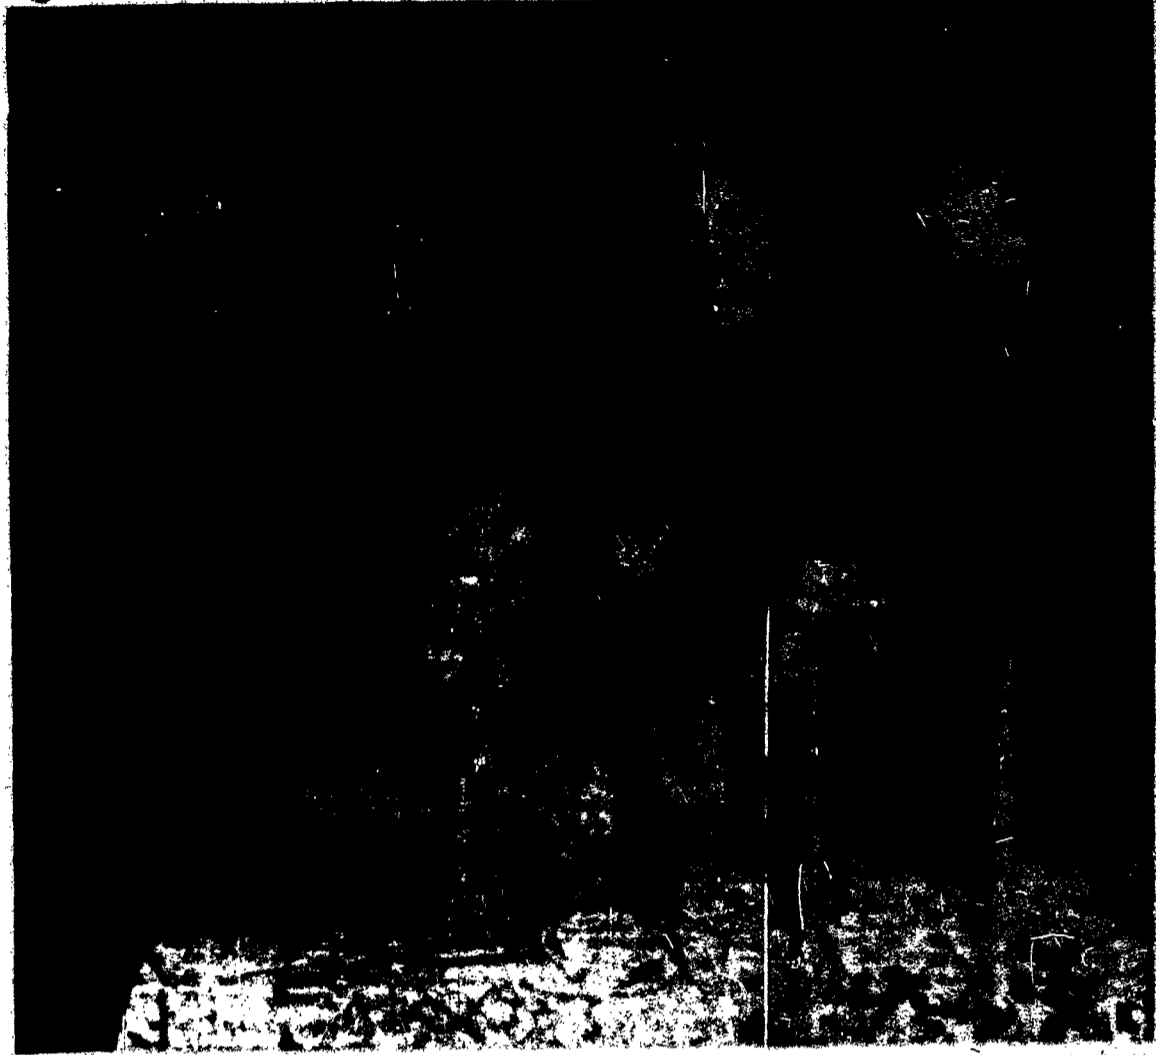

John J. Hickey of the U. S. Navy has returned to Chicago after a short leave to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hickey, 20 Osborne Street. He is stationed in the office of the Naval Office of Procurement and is serving as a dental technician.

Private Joseph F. Nolan of the U. S. Army is now stationed at Keesler Field, Miss. Private Nolan prior to entering the service early in December was employed at the Sampson Naval Base. He is with the Air Corps Technical School.

Private Charles F. Cadwallader, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Cadwallader of 7 Anna Street, has been in the service since September, 1942, with the Medical Corps. He has been transferred to Michy, Missouri. He received his basic training in Savannah, Georgia.

Private First Class William J. Cadwallader, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Cadwallader, who enlisted in the U. S. Marine Corps in February, 1942, is now stationed at an advanced school at the U. S. Naval training station in Chicago. He received his basic training at Parris Island, South Carolina.

SERVICE WOMEN—AT HOME AWAY FROM HOME

Judge Lucy Howarth pours tea for Apprentices Seaman Robin Hunt, Chief Yeoman Kathleen Middleton of East Orange, New Jersey; Helen Murphy, Yeoman Third Class of Houston, Texas, all members of the WAVES and Auxiliary Irene Rastafelich of New York City, a member of the WAAC. They are pictured at the USO Club in Washington, D. C., operated by the Women's Division of the National Catholic Community Service, for women in the service and in defense work. (N.C.W.C.)

The bridal couple was attended by Miss Vera Muldoon and Thomas Duckett, a brother of the bridegroom. A wedding breakfast for the bridal party was served at the Pioneer. The bride and bridegroom are members of the office force of the Red Star Express Company. Following a trip, Mr. and Mrs. Duckett will be at home at 24 No. Falton St., Auburn.

India Notes Growing Religious Vocations

KARACHI, India.—Despite war's uncertainties, a marked increase in religious vocations has been noted here. Two young women, Miss Mary Peter and Miss Josephine D'Eusea, received the habit of Franciscan Missionaries of Christ, the King, and received the names of Sister Mary Imelda and Sister Mary Josephine, respectively. At the same time, two nuns, Sister Mary Philomena and Sister Mary Isabella, pronounced their first temporary vows. Earlier, four postulantes entered the community.

By the way—BUY WAR BONDS

WEDDINGS IN AUBURN

St. Mary's
Bawden - Morgan
Miss Agnes Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan of 23 1/2 Maple Street, and Private Clarence E. Bawden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bawden of 23 1/2 Frances Street were united in marriage at 9:30 on Monday morning at St. Mary's Rectory by the Rev. Dr. William E. Cowen. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kolp of Auburn. The bridegroom is in the Army and was home on furlough. After the wedding a breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Bawden accompanied her husband as far as New York on his way back to Camp Gordon, Georgia.

St. Aloysius
Coyne - O'Brien
Miss Agnes Geraldine O'Brien, daughter of Michael O'Brien of 66 North Division Street and the late Sarah E. O'Brien, was married to John Francis Coyne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Coyne of 126 West Bayard Street, Seneca Falls, on New Year's at St. Aloysius Church. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. John

B. Crowley. Mrs. Alfred Squires, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Harold Coyne, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were Joseph Myers of this city, brother-in-law of the bride, and James Moreland of Seneca Falls. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Myers, 129 North Fulton Street. The bride is a graduate of Auburn Senior High School and is employed at the Sampson Naval Base and Mr. Coyne is a graduate of Mynderse Academy and is employed in Seneca Falls. After a trip to Lake Placid, the couple will make their home at 23 Van Cleef Street, Seneca Falls.

St. Alphonsus
Duckett - Walsh
Miss Gertrude L. Walsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Walsh of Scipio Center, became the bride of John F. Duckett, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Duckett of Skaneateles at 10:30 on Saturday morning in the rectory of St. Alphonsus Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Gerard Amann.

January Clearance

SALE

Starts Friday, Jan. 8

Clearance of All Odd Lots and Discontinued Numbers

10% Discount on

All Corsets and Foundations

HISLOP'S

AUBURN, N.Y.