Speed-up Program Advances Exams At College

By DORIS A. DUNLEA
In keeping with an accelerated program Nazareth College has advanced mid-term exams from Jan. 22 to 15, resulting in students putting aside extra-curriculum activities for the duration.

Music Clinic Reviewed
A Music Club meeting of students of the Public School Music Course was held Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 12, in the social room of the college. The general topic of discussion was Music Education and Music Moments of U. S. in the Schools at War Program.

During the meeting various papers outlining the highlights of the New York Music Clinic held recently in Syracuse were read by the following students who were in attendance: Patricia Barry, Florence McGinnis, Marcella Causfield, Gerakline Vandewater, Elizabeth Rigney, Ellen Flynn and Patricia Doyle.

In addition the seniors presented reports of their experiences in cadet teaching in out-of-town schools during the month of December. Patricia Doyle, president, and Avril Cochrane, secretary and treasurer, were in charge of the meeting.

Write Victory Songs
Doing their share to keep up the victory spirit the students in the Advanced Harmony Course have been writing victory songs as a part of their work in the Schools at War program in cooperation with the U. S. Office of Education in its war time commission. The group includes Beverly Jones, Betty Keegan, Mary Knapp, Corinne Freer and Betty Harris.

Round Table Talk
Three members of the Debate Club represented Nazareth College at a round table discussion of post war problems at Canisius College, Buffalo, Jan. 9. The representatives were June Dispenza, senior, and Caroline Rovas and Dorothy Wegman, sophomores.

Social Set Jan. 26
The first of a series of social events for the coming year will commence Jan. 26 when the Sisters of Saint Joseph will sponsor a party to be given at Nazareth Academy.

HOOK GAY FLOWERS FROM OLD CLOTHING

Your rag bag contains the best possible material for making attractive pads for chairs and foot stools. These may be hooked in the same manner as rugs are made. Cut or tear old materials into strips and draw loops through either burlap or canvas with a rug hook as shown at the left. Either cotton, wool, silk or rayon may be used. The strips may be cut from three-quarters to one and a half inches wide according to the weight of the material and how fine you wish the work to be. If some color is desired that you do not have on hand goods should be dyed to carry out your room color scheme.

You will find it easy to outline a simple flower design with wax crayon. Many people do successful hooking without a frame. Small pieces of work may be stretched over an old picture frame and thumb-tacked. Flowers and leaves may be hooked in outline as at the upper right, or two or more tones may be used for a shaded effect, as at the lower right.

NOTE—BOOK 5, of the series of home-making booklets prepared for readers, contains directions for making your own flower designs and for hooking rugs. BOOK 3 contains directions for a hooked, a braided and a crocheted rug all made from old clothing. Copies are 10c each. Send requests for booklets direct to Mrs. Spears, Drawer 133, Bedford Hills, New York. (Copyright)

Rochester Diocesan Council N. C. C. W.

536-Columbus Civic Centre

We quote the St. Louis Council Chronicle:

"Another Year, 1943. We, you and I are still here to greet it but we are one year nearer Eternity. Are we more prepared? How are we Spiritually? Let's strive to make this year's resolutions stick. May we suggest a few for your consideration? Let us all strive to be more Religious, more Catholic and more American.

"If we have truly felt the Peace of Christ at Christmas we have a good start toward being more religious. Take advantage of every opportunity to God's Grace by frequently receiving the Sacraments. "Be more Catholic! Tolerant with those not of our Faith and ever set them an example that they will not be scandalized by us but rather drawn to Christ's Church because of us. "Be more American! At this time as never before your nation calls on you for patriotism. We Catholics, who have more to save than all others, must surely heed the call. Of course you are doing some service now, but let your every word and thought be for our Nation's unity and Victory."

A 1943 RESOLUTION

Every Catholic Woman should belong to some Catholic organization. Every Catholic Woman's Organization should belong to the Council of Catholic Women. "United we stand, divided we fall." Resolve in 1943 to influence new groups to join the Rochester Diocesan Council, N. C. C. W.

The members of our affiliated organizations are urged to take advantage of the opportunities offered to aid them in solving consumer problems.

The Consumer Information Center at the Civic Exhibits Building sponsored by the Consumer Committee of the Rochester War Council, is under the direction of Miss May Benedict.

More than 180 pamphlets on every phase of war-time problems have been filed and indexed.

Miss Benedict is assisted in her collection of information by a Committee of experts in the field of home economics and nutrition and by a group of merchants who supply marketing data.

A committee of volunteers, trained in the consumer field, has arranged for a volunteer to serve each day with Miss Benedict at the information desk.

You are invited to come in with your questions. Service will be given from 9:00 A. M. to 5:00 P. M. daily either by personal consultation or by telephone. The telephone number is Main 6133.

Every Friday at 2:00 P. M. an urgent problem of the week will be solved by a Home Bureau expert. This week's talk will be "How To Conserve Our Pots and Pans."

Rochester Deanery Council will hold its first meeting of 1943 on Friday, Jan. 22, in Room 623 of the Columbus Civic Centre. All affiliated organizations are invited to send representatives.
