

HOLY FAMILY PARISH

FINANCIAL STATEMENT OUT

The financial statement of Holy Family Church was given out to the parishioners on last Sunday...

Father Heisel congratulated the people and thanked them. The pastor said the biggest asset of the church is the loyalty and fine spirit of cooperation constantly manifested by its parishioners.

HOLY CHILDHOOD RITE

The traditional service for the Holy Childhood Association was conducted last Sunday afternoon in Holy Family Church.

spurred the children to again strive for this leadership.

Children of the school in a program portrayed the various orders of priests and nuns on the missions. One hundred raffle tickets were given for night children.

MERCHANTS CLUB

Another Merchants Club has been formed by the same efficient committee of women under the leadership of Mrs. Ross Beck.

THURSDAY NITE PARTIES

The Parish parties held each Thursday evening in the Auditorium are being resumed.

William G. Wynn Dies; Active in Retreats, Nocturnal Adoration

Spiritually, one of the most outstanding Catholic laymen in the Diocese of Rochester, William G. Wynn died Jan. 11, 1943 at his home, 22 Columbia Ave., Rochester.

(See Editorial, page 18)

Modest and retiring yet firm in his convictions, Mr. Wynn's life was devoted to the Catholic lay organizations which promoted the spiritual life.

He was a charter member of the Rochester Laymen's Retreat League and made all the retreats at St. Bernard's Seminary as well as being among the pioneer retreatants to open the new Our Lady of the Lake Retreat House at Geneva last year.

Among the first to go to the late Bishop O'Hern for permission to start the Rochester Nocturnal Adoration Society, Mr. Wynn travelled with the Rev. Leo C. Mooney, Charles A. Tucker and Frederick J. Mix to all important diocesan centers founding Nocturnal Adoration Societies. He was largely responsible for the Diocese of Rochester becoming nationally known for its sponsorship of the Nocturnal Adoration movement.

Funeral services are scheduled for today (Thursday, Jan. 14) at Immaculate Conception Church where Mr. Wynn was an active parishioner and member of the Holy Name Society. He was a loyal member of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Helen Wynn; two daughters, Mrs. Norbert Hall, Rochester and Mrs. Henry Canine of Phelps, and his mother, Mrs. Catherine Wynn.

Third Order Of St. Francis

The January meeting of the Third Order of St. Francis will take place at St. Patrick's Church on Plymouth Ave. N. at 8:30 on Sunday, Jan. 24.

Now that gasoline rationing has driven people back into their homes and the government is putting into operation a program of compulsory saving, it is a good idea to do a little spiritual book-keeping.

Now is the time for prayer and spiritual reading; now is the time for practicing the corporal and spiritual works of mercy; now is the time to be a Franciscan.

The Most Rev. Fr. Bede Hess, O.M.C., Minister General of the Franciscan order, Friars Minor Conventual, puts it thus:

"St. Francis through his first Order was to be the living inspiration to unworidliness by the practice of poverty, which is heavenly wisdom. St. Clare with the second Order was to be the power of prayer and sacrifice that St. Francis' ideal might be realized. Since Clare's day, there are over twenty-six Orders of Sisters of St. Francis, engaged in prayer, study, teaching, hospital, mission and leper colony work. Blessed Lucretia, the first Tertiary, with the Third Order was to be the exemplification of this Franciscan ideal in every walk of life in the world. Unworldliness by the practice of poverty as a Christian virtue—the detachment from the world and its vanities, from riches and possessions, from honors and pleasures—in Franciscanism in action."

St. Jullip of Jesus, Franciscan, who was martyred in Japan, some 400 years ago, was a native of Mexico.

He Is An Amateur
The Catholics who look the Church hard in the amateur Catholic, the Catholic who tries to see how little he can do for God, how close he can shave the line between vice and virtue, how far he can coast with the assistance of Christ and yet not quite lose the Bishop's friendship. — Father Lord.
