appliances for these functions and a three-compartment cork-insulated refrigerator. The kitchens have other refrigerators of varying sizes.

On the ground floor level is also a garbage room taking up an extreme corner of the floor with a large door for ready removal of refuse. At the opposite end are staff dining rooms and a cafeteria of the latest equipment.

Name Direct Opening

Last minute preparations for the opening of the hospital were being directed by the tireless Sister Martina and her aides on the hospital board: Sister Emily, secretary and treasurer Sister Hilda, Sister Isabelle and Sister Mary Agnes, trustees.

Medical Staff Aids

Directional aid came from these members of the medical board: Dr. Leo F. Simpson, president and chief of staff, who had a large part in the hospital's completion; Dr. B. J. Duffy, vicepresident; Dr. Joseph P. Henry, secretary and treasurer; Dr. J. M. Flynn, Dr. W. S. Hartigan, Dr. Elmer W. O'Brien and Dr. L. A. Whitney.

The men's advisory board giving their assistance included Thomas E. Carroll, James E. Cuff, Augustine J. Cunningham, Leo A. MacSweeney, Martin B. O'Neill, William T. Nolan, Michael H. Shea and Frederick J. Weider.

Heading the women's advisory board lending a helping hand in "settling" the new hospital is Mrs. Charles J. Paisley, chairman, with these other members:

- Mrs. B. C. Little, Mrs. Frank Beattie, Mrs. David Lawless, Mrs. John C. Menihan, Mrs. Donald A. Dalley, Mrs. William S. Hartigan, Mrs. Leo F. Simpson, Mrs. John W. Jardine, Mrs. William W. Winans, Mrs. Louis A. Langie, Mrs. Harold M. Jenkins, Mrs. Edward J. Meyer, Miss Grace Murphy, Mrs. Alexander B. Hone, Mrs. Francis J. Yawman, Mrs. Frank J. G. Connor, Miss Madeline Fahy, Mrs. Frank X. Kelly, Mrs. B. J. Duffy, Mrs. James J. Stafford, Mrs. Kendall B. Castle, Mrs. Fred Odenbach, Mrs. Joseph M. Murray, Mrs. Rudolph Siebert, Miss Eleanor Glesson, Mrs. Vincent Moore, Mrs. Louis Wehle and Mrs. Charles W. Denniston.

Sharing in the joy over the completion of the latest hospital unit in the city of Rochester were those who subscribed in the campaign a year ago for more than $113,000. All creeds participated in the campaign. Persons of all faiths are joining in extending congratulations, this week, to the Bishop of Rochester and Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul on the hospital's opening despite all difficulties.

22nd From Albany

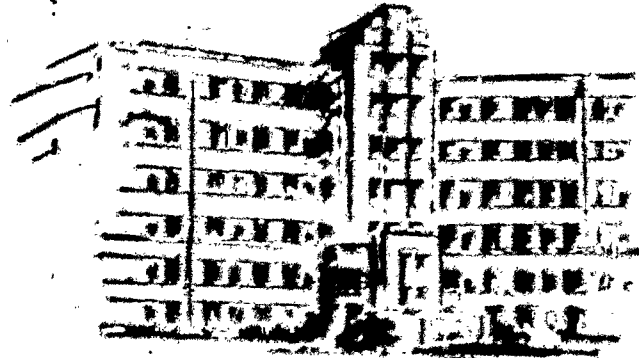

Albany, N. Y.—The Rev. James W. Carroll, assistant pastor at St. Luke's Church, here, is attending basic training school for Chaplains at Harvard University before assignment to Army duty. He has been commissioned a first lieutenant. Father Carroll is the twenty-second of the clergy of the Diocese of Albany to enter military service.

Promoted To Major

LINCOLN, Neb.—The Rev. Clement A. Mivland, who served in the Diocese of Lincoln, and now is on duty as a chaplain at Langley Field, Va., recently was promoted to the rank of major.

Fire Razes Seminary

Onondagora, Wis.—Damage estimated at $200,000 was caused by fire which destroyed the St. Michael's Seminary, opened only four months ago by the Augustinian Fathers.
