ST. ANDREW'S PARISH

FATHER ECKL ENTERTAINS

Rev. George Eckl, pastor of St. Andrew's Church, entertained the ushers of the parish and their wives, together with the trustees, auditors and members of the choir at their annual dinner held in the school hall on Sunday evening, Jan. 10.

During the dinner there was group singing and entertainment, followed by a few short speeches. Father Eckl took advantage of this opportunity to thank his assembled guests for their generous assistance during the past year. Several games were included in the remainder of the evening's program.

FUNERAL SERVICES

The people of St. Andrew's wish to extend their sympathies to the family of Mrs. Louise Kleehammer of Portland Avenue, who died last week. The Solemn High Requiem Mass was celebrated on Monday, Jan. 11, at 9 o'clock by Rev. George Eckl, pastor of St. Andrew's. He was assisted by the Rev. Arthur Florack and Rev. Francis Kleehammer.

Mrs. Kleehammer, who was ninety years old, was the oldest member of St. Andrew's parish, and a pioneer settler in the locality. She was the wife of the late Michael Kleehammer, Sr., a G. A. R. veteran.

SS. Peter and Paul's INSTALLATION SET

The officers of SS. Peter and Paul's Commandery No. 28, Knights of St. John, will be installed in the parish hall on Monday evening, Jan. 18.

The installing officers will be A.D.C. Fred A. Imo and A.D.C. William C. Schwab.

Crusade By Holy Name Youth To Curb Delinquency, Urged

LACROSSE, Wis.—Calling for a crusade by Holy Name Society boys to beat back a general resurgence of juvenile delinquency, the Most Rev. Alexander J. McGavick, Bishop of La Crosse, reminds in a Pastoral Letter that "there are two fronts in this war for liberty and against enslavement, the battle front and the home front, and both must be maintained."

Bishop McGavick says reports from many sources indicate the rise in juvenile delinquency and a sharp increase in crime committed by youths under 20. He blames this, in a large measure, on the "present disturbed condition of our country."

"Indeed youth, whether boys or girls, can quickly and easily rise to splendid heights of interest and enthusiasm, even sacrifice, in an appealing cause when given encouragement and proper direction," the Pastoral says. "The cause in this instance is sure to be an appealing one.

"What nobler cause could there be than to practice and propagate the Christ-life, diffusing and spreading it among others, by prayer, example, suggestion and kindly advice, especially encouraging respect for parents and the observance of law.

"A crusade like that at this time would assist in keeping the home front intact and unbroken just as our boys in faraway places are holding and extending the battle front.

"This does not require any new organization; it can be done wholly within the Holy Name Society to which all boys of high school age belong or should belong, and to these boys the crusade should be limited. It would, however, be helpful to have such boys seated together at Holy Name Communions and monthly meetings so that they could be directly appealed to, stimulated and encouraged."

Prayer to Holy Family

God of goodness and mercy, we commend to Thy all-powerful care our home, our family, and all that we possess. Bless us as Thou didst bless the Holy Family at Nazareth.
