

Cancel National Education Meeting

WASHINGTON (NC)—The Executive Board of the National Catholic Educational Association has voted to cancel the 1943 meeting of the N. C. E. A. which was to have been held in Buffalo in Easter Week.

The announcement of this decision was made here by the Rev. Messrs. George Johnson, Director of the Department of Education of the National Catholic Welfare Conference and Secretary of the N. C. E. A.

The action of the N. C. E. A. Executive Board was taken, Monsignor Johnson said, in order to cooperate with the Office of Defense Transportation in its efforts to make the transportation facilities of the nation contribute to the utmost to the winning of the war. Negotiations with the O. D. T. the Monsignor added, reveal very clearly that, while that organization has no authority to forbid the holding of conventions and meetings, it is convinced that no assemblies involving travel should be held unless they contribute directly to the shortening of the war.

75 Catholic Churches Razed; 158 Damaged, Raid Toll in Britain

LONDON—Seventy-five Catholic churches in Great Britain have been destroyed by enemy raids on this country.

In addition 158 Catholic churches have been damaged.

These figures, computed to last fall, have just been made available here.

It is extraordinary what triumphant force a man develops who is determined to do his duty in the world and to act always with courage.

Office of Censorship Stresses Danger in Making Known Location of U. S. Forces

WASHINGTON (NC)—The danger of making known the location of units of the armed forces of the United States is emphasized by the Office of Censorship in a request to newspapers and to relatives of servicemen asking that such information be withheld.

office which they hold. Nor is it confined to the "Latin" countries. In the German countries, for example, you address a parish priest as "Herr Pfarrer," a chaplain as "Herr Kaplan," and so of the rest. In Gaelic Ireland (and today by those who speak Gaelic) Bishops also were addressed as "Father"—something that delighted Cardinal Manning when he was told of it.

CATHOLIC FRIENDS

Cyril Clemens notes that one of Burnand's most enthusiastic admirers was King Edward VII, who is the first Honors List after his coronation, made the humorist a Knight with the title of "Sir." Burnand wrote many books (and plays). Some of his books are made up from his articles in "Punch," and it is said one or other of these was always found on the table at the King's bedside.

Especially in his later years, King Edward counted many Catholics among his most intimate friends. Burnand was one. Father Bernard Vaughan, S.J., was another. His mother, as revealed by her biographers, had been an anti-Catholic, a bigot, and a great admirer of Prussian Protestantism.

The son broke away from this narrow bigotry of the parents—the parents because the father, the Prince Consort, whom the Queen adored as a model in all things, was more narrow-minded than the mother. Edward made certainly one, probably two, visits to Lourdes. These things were—at least partly—the cause of a rumor, widely spread after his death, that he had died a Catholic.

On a visit to Dublin about that time I asked the Jesuit Fathers whether there was any foundation for the truth of the rumor, that Father Vaughan had received him into the Church. They would know, I thought, having constant communication with their brethren in London.

"The only person," they told me, "who could answer that question is Father Vaughan, and he will not answer it. But he has not denied it."

One thing is certain and was well known. Whether by invitation or on his own initiative, Father Vaughan visited the King in his last illness and was closeted with him in his bedroom for nearly an hour.

WINE MEDAL

New York—For her biography of Cardinal Newman, the Downey Award of the Pro Parvulis Book Club, a silver medal, was presented to Miss Coville Newcomb at a reception held at the Hotel Martique.

ST. ANDREW'S PARISH

CLUB NIGHTS ON FRIDAY

Friday night, as usual, will be Club night for the Young People of the Parish. This is a grand opportunity for the boys and girls to get together and enjoy an evening's fun and entertainment. Ping pong, pool, music, dancing and several other forms of amusement are at their disposal.

SOCIETY SOCIAL

The Rosary Society of St. Andrew's Church will hold its annual Social on Tuesday, Jan. 26 immediately following the Novena services. Rev. Elmer McNamara of St. Bernard's Seminary will show his movies of the Holy Land, after which refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Hazel Schneider, president of the organization, has invited all members of the group to be present on this occasion, and extends a very special welcome to all the women who are interested in joining the Society.

Included on the Entertainment Committee are: Mrs. Jessie Bauer, Mrs. Julia Geier, and Mrs. Margaret Matters. Those serving on the Luncheon Committee are Mrs. Martha Regher, Mrs. Gertrude Geiger, Mrs. Hazel Gagner, Mrs. McLaughlin, Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Florence Heinrich.

If you know what ship a sailor is on, or what company or regiment a soldier is with overseas, then you know a military "secret," the Office of Censorship warns. The statement adds:

"This secret ought not to be published. This is why: A general needs to know the strength of his opponent; how many men, guns, ships, planes there are in each theater of war."

"The Nazis and the Japanese want to know these things about our forces. Their agents assemble the information like this: from one paper, an item reveals the 600th Infantry is in Australia; another, that the U. S. 8th Wisconsin is in the Mediterranean; another, that the 264th Tank Battalion is in North Africa."

"Add hundreds of these bits of information together, and our enemies have a too-accurate estimate of American military strength. These are our soldiers—Americans all—whom we endanger by these 'little slips.'"

"This is not a 'blackout' on the news about our soldiers. Considerable latitude in reporting personal experiences gives the enemy little military information, if the troop units, the ship names are kept secret. But in articles about soldiers and sailors and in the addresses for them, don't give away their fighting units."

CATHEDRAL SCHOOL FIRST IN STATE TO WIN 'WHITE' WAR SAVINGS DRIVE FLAG

CHICAGO—Holy Name Cathedral School here became the first school in the State of Illinois to receive the "White War Savings Flag," which now flies from the pole in the yard of the school.

The flag was presented to the school by Donald D. McKiernan, Deputy Administrator of the War Savings staff of the Treasury Department. Mr. McKiernan praised the 100 per cent cooperation of the Cathedral School's pupils, stressing that every student has pledged himself to buy a dollar's worth of war stamps every month.

Vatican City Stamps Commemorate Jubilee

VATICAN CITY—A series of four stamps is being issued by the Vatican City authorities to commemorate the silver jubilee of His Holiness Pope Pius XII's consecration as a Bishop. The stamps will bear reproductions of the scene in the Sistine Chapel when the present Holy Father was consecrated Bishop by Pope Benedict XV.

IMPORTANT NEWS

The Young People wish to thank the people of the parish for the interest shown in their very popular paper, "The Informant," which is a monthly publication. The committee reported a complete sell-out of last Sunday's edition.

People who have news items for this paper are asked to contact Father Kleintjes or any member of the committee.

BOWLING PARTY

A group of boys and girls from St. Andrew's enjoyed an evening's fun last Sunday night at St. Michael's by way of a Bowling Party. The bowling, which was the first attempt for many, was followed by dancing and refreshments.

CUB MEETING

The Cub Pack of St. Andrew's Parish held its regular meeting last Monday evening in the school hall. At this meeting Mrs. Liccardi was introduced to the scouts as one of their Den Mothers. The business meeting was followed by games and entertainment.

Charles Hack received the only award of the evening, and he merited the Gold Arrow award.

The handicraft work done by the boys during the last month was on display during the evening, and it will be placed on public display sometime in the very near future.
