

WEDDINGS IN AUBURN

St. Alphonsus

RYAN - WRIGHT

Miss Jean M. Wright of Auburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wright of Cata, and Pvt. Thomas M. Ryan of Atlantic City, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Ryan of Lewis Street, were married Wednesday morning in the rectory of St. Alphonsus Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Gerard Amann, assistant pastor.

The bride was attended by Miss Christine Hopkins of Auburn and Joseph E. Ryan, was best man for his brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Ryan are on a wedding trip to New York and Atlantic City. The bride, who is affiliated with the office staff of the New York Electric and Gas Corp., won the women's golf title at the Auburn Country Club last summer and is the possessor of five silver cups, denoting her prowess on the links.

Private Ryan who, before entering the U. S. armed forces last September was a cash register serviceman for Auburn and vicinity and will resume his military duties at the conclusion of his furlough. Following induction at Fort Niagara, Private Ryan was sent to Atlantic City and later transferred to Chanute Field, Illinois, where he was graduated from the Sheet Metal School after a 70-day course. After receiving his diploma he was again transferred to Atlantic City.

St. Mary's

HOERGER - SILKE

Miss Marguerite F. Silke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Silke, was married to First Sergt. Robert J. Hoerger of Fort Eustis, Virginia, formerly of 8 Paul Street,

Auburn, on Saturday morning in a ceremony performed in St. Mary's Church, Rev. Dr. W. E. Cowan, pastor, officiated. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Marie Silke, and Walter C. Hoerger of Cortland, was best man for his brother. The wedding breakfast and a largely attended reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Following a trip to New York, Sergeant and Mrs. Hoerger will make their home at Williamsburg, Va., which is near Fort Eustis, from where the bridegroom is now on furlough. The bride was a member of the office staff of Dean and McCarthy.

St. Francis

SEAKALSKI - CERNA

Announcement was made today of the marriage of Inez Cerna, daughter of Daniel Cerna of 21 Cottage Street, to Rudolph Seakalski of 171 Seymour Street. The wedding took place at St. Francis Church with Rev. Adolph Gabbanelli officiating. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Muldoon. The bridegroom is now in the service of Uncle Sam.

POOSER - SEAJDICK

Miss Adel Seajdick of Auburn was married to First Lieut. Manhard L. Pooser, U.S.A., on Dec. 19 in the Camp Stewart Chapel. The ceremony was performed by Lieut. Mulhearn, Catholic Chaplain at Camp Stewart. The attendants were Lieut. and Mrs. Walsh. The bride is a daughter of John Seajdick of 218 Main Street, Auburn. The bridegroom before entering the service resided in Jacksonville, Fla., and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Manhard L. Pooser of Jacksonville, Fla. Mrs. Pooser is a graduate of Auburn East High School in the Class of 1931.

Funeral Rites of the Week in Auburn

St. Alphonsus

Johanna Simon Pohle, 82, widow of Emil Pohle, died at her home, 138 Owasco Street, Tuesday afternoon after an illness of three weeks. She has been in failing health for the past two years. Mrs. Pohle was born in Austria but has resided in Auburn for the past 63 years. She was a communicant of St. Alphonsus Church.

Mrs. Pohle is survived by two brothers, Adolph Simon and Frank Simon of Auburn and by several nieces and nephews. The funeral was held from the home on Friday morning, with the Rev. F. G. Straub conducting the services at the home. Rev. Gerard Amann sang a requiem high Mass at St. Alphonsus Church. Rev. Gerard Gelfell, Rev. John Merklinger and the pastor, Rev. F. G. Straub, were in the sanctuary. Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery where the services were conducted by Father Straub, assisted by Fathers Gelfell, Amann, and Merklinger.

Bearers were VanAradale, Frederick Simon Jr., William Schoffel, Gustave Wiethuechter, Frank Hal and Raymond Miner.

John J. Gleason, husband of Caroline J. Hahn Gleason, died at his home, 1 Francis Street, on Thursday. Mr. Gleason was born in Auburn and has always resided here. He was a shoemaker by trade. Mr. Gleason is survived by his wife; one sister, Mrs. Mary Woods of Seneca Falls; several nieces and nephews. He was a communicant of St. Alphonsus Church. The funeral was held from the E. A. Heleck and Son Funeral Home on Monday morning.

William F. Holzhauser, 79, died at his home, 33 Cayuga Street. He was born in Auburn but has lived in Auburn practically all his life. For some time he was employed as a carriage painter by the late George F. Willis and for the past 20 years has been retired.

Mr. Holzhauser is survived by his wife, Mrs. Emilia Holzhauser, three sons, Frederick Holzhauser of Oswego, Albert Holzhauser of Auburn, and Henry Holzhauser of Portsmouth Navy Yards, and two sisters, Mrs. Minnie Beck and Mrs. Teresa Night of Auburn and one brother, Peter, of Auburn; and by four grandchildren. Funeral services were held from the Clarence E. Heleck Funeral Home on Saturday morning. Rev. Gerard Amann sang a requiem high Mass at St. Alphonsus Church. Rev. F. C. Straub and Rev. John Merklinger were in the sanctuary.

The commercial service was conducted in Fort Hall by Father Straub. The body was placed in the vault there until spring when burial will be in St. Joseph's. Bearers were Harold Holzhauser, Charles Holzhauser, Joseph Miller, Frank Hal, Harry Rice and George Wackenhut.

St. Francis

Benedict Locastro of 19 Columbus Street died early Wednesday morning at Mercy Hospital. He is survived by his wife Dora Savarese Locastro and two sons, Richard and James Locastro; by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Onofrio Locastro; four sisters, Mrs. Mary Locastro, Mrs. Mary Incolombo, Mrs. Consuetta Noble, Mrs. Mary Antoinette Carbonaro and Mrs. Jenny Scot; three brothers, Carmen, Anthony and Joseph Locastro. Mr. Locastro was employed by the Columbian Rope Company for more than 30 years and of late he has been a foreman. He was a communicant of St. Francis Church and a member of the Holy Name Society of that parish.

The funeral was held from his home, 66 Columbus Street, on Saturday morning. At the church a Solemn High Mass of Requiem was sung by Rev. E. C. Newcomb with Rev. Thomas Kane as deacon and Rev. Joseph Halley as sub-deacon. Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery where the committal service was read by Father Newcomb. Bearers were A. J. Contigula, John Blasi, Anthony Siracusa, Carmen Berrera, Joseph Casaro and Angela Gagliano.

Holy Family

After a brief illness, John Reedy, of 111 Osborne Street, died on Tuesday night at the home of his niece, Mrs. Bert Pausley, 31 Sheridan Street. Mr. Reedy was born in Ireland and came to Auburn when he was very young. He was a member of Holy Family Church. His only survivors are several nieces and nephews. The funeral was held from the home of Mrs. Pausley, 31 Sheridan Street, on Saturday morning with services at Holy Family Church. Rev. John Healy sang a requiem high Mass. Burial was in the family plot in St. Joseph's, where the committal service was read by Father Healy.

Bearers were Charles O'Donnell, Joseph McCabe, John Scollin, Eugene Callaghan, William Bowness and Reginald Cox.

SKANEATELES. — Mrs. Rose McLaughlin Major, widow of John Major, formerly of Auburn, died suddenly of a cerebral hemorrhage at Onondaga General Hospital in Syracuse. Born 66 years ago at Skaneateles, she was a resident of Solvay more than a half century and communicant of St. Cecilia's Church of that village. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Margaret Nicholson and Mrs. William Cullen; two sons, William and Stanley Major,

DESIGNS NEW VATICAN COINAGE

In his Vatican workshop, Prof. P. Mistranti, designer of Papal postal issues, coins and medals, completes a model depicting Pope Pius XII and the Papal Coat of Arms, used in preparing the coinage of the money issued in Vatican City this year. (N.C.W.C.)

and a sister, Mrs. Nell Corbett. The funeral was held from the home of William Major, Solvay, and at St. Cecilia's Church. Burial was in Skaneateles, N. Y.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Ann Barry Sullivan who died Thursday in Moravia was held from the home of E. A. Heleck and son on Saturday morning with services at Holy Family Church, Auburn. Rev. Emmett Dougherty of St. Patrick's Church, Moravia, at which the deceased was a member, sang a requiem high Mass.

Mrs. Sullivan has been in failing health for the past year. She was born in Auburn but has lived in Moravia for the past eleven years. She was a communicant of St. Patrick's Church, Moravia. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Nellie Drinkwine of Cortland, and by several nieces and nephews.

Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery where the committal service was read by Father Dougherty. Bearers were Earl Ercanbreck of Moravia, John Herrling, Edward Haverin of Auburn and Jeremiah Sullivan of Bennett.

Fireman Fred Colella, 22, of 161 Osborne St., a member of Engine Company 4, died late Monday afternoon. He had been ill with pneumonia for about two weeks. Mr. Colella had been a member of the Auburn Fire Department since May, 1940. He was one of the youngest members of the fire fighters. He was an ardent outdoors man and was keen about fishing. He first became a member of the Department on May 21, 1940, when he was named a substitute. He was made a temporary fireman in October, 1940, and a regular fireman on June 23, 1941. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Grace Cas Colella; a six months old son, Gary Eugene Colella; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patsy Colella; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patsy Colella; three brothers, Eugene, Victor and Albert Colella; three sisters, Mrs. Sam Colella; Mrs. Iren Cirillo, and Mrs. James Diego, all of Auburn.

The funeral was held from the family home on Friday morning with services at Holy Family Church. The high Mass of Requiem was sung by Rev. John Brill, assistant pastor. Fire Chief Fred J. Washburn headed the delegation of firemen at the services, which were also attended by city and county officials and police officers. An escort of firemen on foot accompanied the hearse through the center of the city before and after the church services. As the cortege passed Memorial City Hall, "Old Wheeler" was tolled. Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery where the committal service was read by Rev. John J. Healy. Bearers, all department members, were Lieut. Joseph R. Mullaly, Lieut. Luke J. Bergan, Lieut. Ralph Hoyt, Lieut. Peter Mentillo and Fireman Harry W. Orman and Joseph J. Moricella.

WEEDSPORT. — Miss Johanna Connors, one of the oldest resi-

Bowling

Catholic Church Leagues

AUBURN.—The high scores in the Catholic League Monday evening at the Auburn Bowling Center were as follows: Dempsey, 130; Hickey, 536; P. Tarby, 536; Mickowski, 536; Kahl, 519; Brennan, 518, and Goyner, 517. St. Mary's No. 2 Squad came out on top Monday evening with a score of 2,462.

dents of the Town of Montic, died during the past week at a nursing home in Port Byron at the age of 86. She is survived by three nephews, James and Frederick of Rochester and Michael in the U. S. Service; two sisters, Mrs. Edward Brennan of Syracuse and Mrs. William Shanahan of Homer and by 13 granddaughters and nephews. Miss Connors was one of the old-

Basketball In Auburn

CATHOLIC LEAGUE

AUBURN.—The Catholic League completed their fourth week of play on Sunday evening with only two of the seven teams remaining undefeated. The St. Hyacinth's team won its fourth straight victory and St. Mary's team still remains undefeated.

The program opened with the Columbian Squires in the lead but near the end of the game Sutters slipped in his only tally of the battle and St. Francis squad came out on top with a score of 25-23. D'Angelo was high man for the winning side with eight points and McDonald for the losers with 10 points.

In the second game, Holy Family defeated St. Aloysius by a score of 24-22. Coach Tom Hickey led Holy Family with nine points and Joe Sullivan led the losers with 11 points. This was Holy Family's first win of the season.

The final game of the evening came near ending in an upset for the championship team but St. Hyacinth's gained enough power in the closing moments of the game to defeat St. Peter and Paul's by a score of 27-25. It was the scoring of Kulakowski that turned the tide for he scored 13 points for his team and Covich accounted for eleven points for St. Peter and Paul team.

Scores of the night's games were as follows:

St. Francis 35; Columbian Squires 23; Holy Family 24; St. Aloysius 23; St. Hyacinth's 27; St. Peter and Paul 25. Stosh Suboricki was the referee for the games.

League Standing

St. Hyacinth's	4	0	1000
St. Mary's	3	0	1000
St. Peter and Paul	2	2	500
St. Francis	2	2	500
Holy Family	1	2	334
St. Aloysius	0	3	000
Col. Squires	4	2	000

The schedule for next Sunday is as follows:

- 7:15—St. Peter and Paul vs. St. Mary's.
- 8:15—Columbian Squires vs. St. Aloysius.
- 9:15—St. Francis vs. Holy Family.

JUNIOR LEAGUE

St. Francis team is the Junior Basketball League won its fourth victory on Saturday at the Fulton Street School Court. The boys from St. Francis defeated the Columbian Squires by a score of 20-19.

In the second game St. Mary's held to second place when they won over St. Peter and Paul's team by a score of 17 to 15 and Holy Family remained tied with St. Mary's when they defeated the Neighborhood House by a score of 22-16. St. Aloysius defeated St. Hyacinth's by a score of 24-22 and this puts the two teams in third

Consecrate Scranton Auxiliary, Jan. 27

SCRANTON.—(U.P.C.)—Consecration of the Most Rev. Martin J. O'Malley as Titular Bishop of Thopia and Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of Scranton, will take place in St. Peter's Cathedral, here, Wednesday, Jan. 27.

The Most Rev. William J. Hoag, Bishop of Scranton, will be the Consecrator. The Most Rev. Gerald P. O'Hara, Bishop of Savannah-Atlantic, and the Most Rev. George L. Leach, Bishop of Harrisburg, will be the Co-Consecrators. Bishop O'Hara and Bishop Leach are both natives of the Diocese of Scranton. The Most Rev. Edgar Fulton J. Shea, of the Catholic University of America will preach the sermon.

January 27 is the Feast of St. John Chrysostom. Inasmuch as this is not a Feast of an Apostle, the usual day appointed for the consecration of Bishops, it was necessary to obtain special permission from His Holiness Pope Pius XII for the ceremony to take not residents of the Town of Montic, having resided there for over 40 years. She has been in ill health for the past three years.

She was a member of the Reading and Scapular Society of St. John's Church, Port Byron. Funeral services were held on Saturday morning at St. John's Church and burial was in Weedsport.

STRACONNE.—John J. Colwell died suddenly at his home in Straconne. He is survived by two held goals and a brace of goal shots. The record for the Junior League is held by Bill Cherry, who was playing with the St. Francis team, for he collected 23 counts during the course of the game. The league standings are as follows:

(Continued on Page 11)

CATHOLIC LEAGUE

St. Francis	4	0	1000
St. Mary's	3	1	750
Holy Family	2	1	500
St. Aloysius	2	1	500
St. Hyacinth's	2	2	500
St. Peter and Paul	1	2	334
Col. Squires	1	2	334
Neighborhoods	0	4	000

The games are scheduled for next Saturday morning as follows:

- 9:00—St. Hyacinth's vs. Holy Family.
- 10:30—Columbian Squires vs. St. Aloysius.
- 10:30—St. Mary's vs. St. Francis.
- 11:05—Neighborhoods vs. St. Peter and Paul.

HOLY FAMILY HIGH

The Holy Family High School Alumni defeated the Purple and Gold by a score of 59 to 55 on the Fulton Street School court on Thursday evening. There was a preliminary between the Holy Family senior and junior girls and the seniors won by a score of 25 to 12. The Holy Family seniors and the Alumni ended the first half with a score of 19 to 12. However, the High Schoolers lost some of their speed in the closing moments of the game and the Alumni came out on top.

Tom Hickey, Flynn, Raushan and Jim Cullen were high scorers for the Alumni; McKee, Doyle, Mohan and Jim Hickey were outstanding for Jack Dempsey's Purple and Gold men. The Misses Dalola, Mickell, Magill and Walsh starred for the senior girls and the Misses Flynn, Mickell, Moran and Costello starred for the juniors. The summary of the games follows:

Team	FG	FP	FT
Cullen	4	0	8
O'Brien	0	1	1
O'Neill	0	0	0
Flynn	0	2	15
White	1	1	2
Oliver	2	0	4
Hickey	5	2	15
	24	11	38

High School	FG	FP	FT
McKee	5	0	12
McGowan	1	1	5
Cowan	0	0	0
Kammet	0	0	0
Sargent	2	1	5
Cullen	1	0	2
Doyle	0	0	12
Hearn	0	0	0
Mohan	2	0	4
Hickey	1	1	5
	21	2	45

Referee—Francis Quinn.