

St. John the Evangelist's

SODALITY MEETING SET

Twenty-three new Sodalists will be received into St. John the Evangelist's Sodality on Sunday, Jan. 23, by the Rev. John J. Leary, director. These girls have been put through an examination and have passed it satisfactorily.

The day will begin at 8:30 A. M. when the new girls will hear Mass and receive Holy Communion in a body with the regular Sodalists. At 5:00 in the evening, the reception ceremony will be held in the church with the Rev. Ray E. Morphy, Moderator of the Rochester Sodality Union, delivering the address. Here Father Leary will present each new Sodalist with the Sodality Medal and diploma.

After the ceremony in the church, all the Sodalists will adjourn to the hall where an entertainment will be provided.

BOHARY CLUB

The Bohary Society Men's Club of St. John the Evangelist Church, Humboldt St., in its fourteenth week, honored Mrs. Leo Cronell of 128 Waverly Road.

HOLY FAMILY PARISH

OFFICERS INSTALLED

Rev. R. B. Morphy, conducted services in Holy Family Church on Tuesday evening for the installation of the new Sodality officers and the reception of new members. The former moderator of the group spoke on the necessity of the Sodalists receiving Holy Communion in a body on Sodality Sunday.

The new officers of the organization include Prefect Joseph O'Connor, Vice Prefect, Harold Buckner; Recording Secretary, Phyllis Mandara; Corresponding Secretary, Sylvia Sauer, and Treasurer, Dorothy St. John.

NEW MASS SCHEDULE

The new Mass schedule will go into effect in two weeks at Holy Family. Changes will include the last Mass on Sunday which will be at 12:30, and the second weekday Mass which will be at 7:30. The weekday Mass schedule will then be 7:30 and 8:15 o'clock.

THURSDAY NIGHT PARTIES

A new variety of games is being included at the Thursday Night parties for the interest and entertainment of all who attend. Everyone is cordially invited to be present at these parties.

MERCHANDISE CLUB

The new Merchandise Club will begin on February 1. Circulars have been distributed describing the articles, and all names should be in by February 1.

CARD PARTY

The Rosary Society of Holy Family Church will sponsor a card party on Friday evening, January 23, and tickets may be obtained from the members. Attractive prizes will be given and proceeds of the affair will be turned over to the church.
