Mission Unit Plans

The Fremont Mission Unit is planning special programs for the Student Hours which it will sponsor during the coming term, as well as several social events to increase the mission fund. Among these is the St. Patrick's Day Tea.

Virginia Bauman, President of the Fremont Mission Unit, has announced that the Unit has been the recipient of many "thank you" letters as a result of the Christmas Boxes which it despatched to different parts of the country. At present the members are collecting rosaries and other religious articles to be sent to the various camps.

Band Practices Begin

The first band and orchestra practice of the year was held Monday, Jan. 23, at the College. A new oboe player was added to the personnel of the orchestra and the new material, the most popular of which was the 6th Symphony of Tchaikowsky gave added impetus to the rehearsal.

The college band has already begun preparations for the band demonstration, one of the most popular events presented at the annual Field Day in the Spring.

The string trios and quartets are also being stressed in this term's ensemble work.

The resident students held a surprise birthday party, Jan. 28, for Florence McGinnis, the President of the Resident Students. The Junior Class co-operated on the serving committee under the chairmanship of Dorothy Ann Kelly.

Timely, alert to the war conditions of the day and at the same time maintaining the jubilant spirit characteristic of Mercy High School publications, the Winter Edition of Mercedes, semi-annual magazines published by the students makes its appearance this week.

The dedication shows the alertness to the times. It reads: "To Captain John Shea and all other gallant soldiers—sailors—marines who have died that we may live, we humbly dedicate our efforts. Their noble deeds shall be a monument to their memory—a classic for posterity—an inspiration to tomorrow's citizens."

Editorials occupy the first part of this issue a change from their center-of-the-magazine position. Well written editorial comment

ROCHESTER DIOCESAN COUNCIL

National Council of Catholic Women
Office—Catholic Evidence Library
Main Floor, Columbus Civic Center

SOME REASONS FOR BELONGING TO THE COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN:

1. The Bishops of our country thought it necessary to establish a National Council of Catholic Women in 1928.
2. The Council exists and functions in Rochester by reason of the authoritative approval of Bishop James E. Kearney.
3. The Council unites the endeavor and moral power of all women's organizations belonging to it.
4. It is the women's division of the Lay Department of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.
5. Member organizations, therefore, have the privilege of access to the resources of National Catholic Departments and Committees.
6. The Council enlists all women organizations in a campaign of prayer—study—apostolic work—a program too great for any one group hence all Catholic Women should unite in one Council.
7. Existing organized forces of evil must be combated by an organized force for good, hence the Council, to which belong practically all our women's national societies.
8. The Council acts as a clearing house in listing the vast amount of work accomplished by its affiliated groups.
9. Now more than ever Catholic groups should stand together to show what they are doing for God and Country in this present emergency.
10. Through its organization, the Council is recognized for the facility and speed with which it can reach its thousands of members.
11. Small groups gain strength and confidence through membership.
12. Leadership is developed and encouraged.
13. Great profit and inspiration result from learning of the activities.

Red Cross Honor

St. Louis.—The Red Cross has awarded Fontbonne College here a certificate for "notable services in Red Cross production." The presentation was made at the American Theater. Sister Marguerite Seeley, an instructor in biology, accepting the honor on behalf of Fontbonne.

ered that low tables are not only convenient but give a greater feeling of space in a room than high ones.

Here is a little coffee table that is as modern as tomorrow. You can make it yourself from a three-by-four-foot piece of half-inch plywood with straight cuts at the saw. It requires not one scrap of hardware. Just cut the sections according to the dimensions given here; place the slot of the narrow piece of the base through the slot in the wide piece; put the top on, and there you are! When not in use the pieces take up no more space than a large serving tray.

NOTE: Now is the time to use the things we have on hand to make our homes attractive and gay. Why not make an old-fashioned whatnot from spools? An ottoman from a box? New dining room chairs from old ones? An upholstered chair from an old wicker one? Or bed side tables from orange crates? Complete directions for all of these things and many more are available to readers for free. Ask for BOOK 7 of our series of homemaking booklets and write direct to Mrs. Spears, Drawer 123, Bedford Hills, New York. (Copyright) appears from pens of the students with serious thought upon the trends of the times. The wearing of a uniform, the Prayer Front, "Our Kid Brothers" in service, the new duties for women, and the jubilant note in a plea for not rationing smiles.

Miss Shirley Bothwick editor-in-chief tells in one article of the required reading necessary for selection of the many well written editorials, fiction stories, critical reviews, and articles making up the balanced magazine. Poetry occupies a well considered portion of the magazine. "Pretty Pennies" presents a page of individual thoughts in verse and prose on "raindrops."

The winter issue has a red and white cover with blue stars dotted across it.

ties and good works of member organizations and contact with exemplary women throughout the diocese.

14. Through the National Council's Bureaus and Departments, affiliated groups learn of national legislation, concerning existing federal laws threatened by such forces as Birth Control—Sterilization—Equal Rights—amendments, etc., and thus learn to "think with the Church" on these subjects.

15. Through the monthly magazine "Catholic Action" and the "President's Message" all members can keep informed on right Catholic thinking.

"Give to Religion the best service of your citizenship; give to your Country the best service of your Religion; by a united Faith expressed in United Service."
