

Mons. Burke's Book Answers Charge 'Catholics Aren't Loyal'

"Let's take a look at the record," says Monsignor J. J. Burke in The Catholics at War. The author is obviously talking to two groups of people who delight in berating Catholics in war-time: those who tell us we don't want to fight for our country and those who insist we are not followers of Christ because we march off to kill.

"Monsignor Burke's reply takes the form of a quick historical review of wars in which Catholics have fought and distinguished themselves," to Commander Shea's letter to his son Jackie, "Be a good Catholic and you can't help being a good American." The author did not want to publish a learned volume. He wanted to give the answer to the accusation, "Catholics aren't loyal." This he has succeeded in doing.

The Catholics at War is published by Longfellow Press, Marbury Hall, 164 West 74th St., New York, N. Y.

ST. ANDREW'S PARISH

INSTALLATION MEETING

The January meeting of the St. Louis Commandery No. 17, Knights of St. John, was held in St. Andrew's Parish Hall, at which meeting the following officers were installed for 1943 by Lieut. Colonel William J. Rosenbach and Regimental Adjutant Emil Eckert: Spiritual Advisor, Rev. George Eckel; Medical Examiner, Dr. Alex. J. Bellanca; President, Herbert Sundholm; 1st Vice President, Jacob Stoecklein; 2nd Vice President, Vincent Guarnere; Recording Secretary, August Schuch; Financial Secretary, Raymond Oldfield; Treasurer, George Eckert; Board of Trustees, Frank Cerace, Rudolph Leshart, August Zeitvogel, Leonard Nickel, Jacob Stoecklein; Guard, Joseph Gagner.

Father Eckel spoke on the importance of the Knights of St. John, especially at these trying times, and expressed his hope that the newly elected officers, most of whom are well known to St. Andrew's parishioners, may bring new life to the organization which recently became affiliated with St. Andrew's Church.

Col. Joseph Wendelgass also spoke most effectively on the benefits of Knighthood.

The retiring officers extended their best wishes to the new officers for a prosperous term of office.

RED CROSS MEETINGS

The women of St. Andrew's parish who are willing to contribute their time and services to the Red Cross are cordially invited to attend the Red Cross meetings in St. Andrew's Church Hall each Thursday afternoon from 1 to 4 o'clock.

NOVENA SERVICES

Novena Services in honor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help are held every Tuesday evening at 7:45 in St. Andrew's Church. Included in these services are special prayers for the men and women of the parish who are now serving their country, and since this total is now nearing the 350 mark, it seems only fitting that at least one representative from each family should be in attendance at these services.

COUNCIL MASSES ON FEB. 22 PART OF NEW YORK K. OF C. WAR ACTIVITIES PROGRAM

ALBANY—The 247 Knights of Columbus Councils in New York State will join in a religious demonstration on Washington's Birthday, February 22, when Masses will be offered in all parts of the Empire State jurisdiction of the order in memory of the honored dead of the present war and for safety of the men now serving in the armed forces of the United States.

This statewide activity marks the first project of the newly-formed War Activities Committee headed by Judge Martin J. Fay of Yonkers, who was appointed by State Deputy Hugh A. Doyle early this month to consolidate the war efforts of the subordinate councils throughout the area of the New York State Council.

Judge Fay met here with the vice-chairmen of the State War Activities Committee, to outline plans for a comprehensive program which will embrace what has been called an unprecedented list of war services in which Knights of Columbus in New York State will take part.

The vice-chairmen represent diocesan divisions, and will coordinate the war activities of the councils and districts within these limits. District Deputies and the War Activities Chairmen will carry the state program down to the individual councils. Each council will sponsor a Mass in its own locality on February 22.

Honor Founder TINDIVANAM

The first anniversary of the death of Father Gavin Duffy, founder of the Catholic Scout Federation of South India, was commemorated with a grand rally here of Catholic Scouts and Guides from several dioceses.

Precautions Prevent Injuries

Many serious and often fatal accidents of the winter months can be attributed to slippery steps and icy sidewalks. Observance of a few simple rules will eliminate a good many of these accidents, F.R.A. officials point out.

1. Do not allow snow and ice to accumulate and harden. It is much easier to remove immediately after the snow has stopped falling.
 2. Use sawdust on slippery surfaces. Sawdust clings to ice better than ashes, is a better non-skid material, is less messy, and is far more effective. Sawdust can be used also in vestibules and hallways.
 3. Never pour hot water on icy steps. The ice that has accumulated should be dissolved by sprinkling salt liberally on walking surfaces where it has formed.
 4. Remove icicles from cornices before they fall. Do not permit drain leader discharges to freeze upon the walls.
