SODALITY VALENTINE PARTY

By Dolores E. Hennessey
HORNELL — The Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Ann's Church will hold a Valentine party in the Green Room of the Federation Building on Monday evening, February 15, according to tentative plans just announced. Valentine gifts will be exchanged and games and dancing will be followed by refreshments.

At a recent meeting of the Sodality, Miss Kathleen McCarthy was named chairman of the social committee. Members of the committee are as follows:

Miss Frances Feeney, Madeline Green, Shirley Howard, Rosemary Meenan, Ann Pettibone, Lucy Rizzo, Ruth Steady, Katherine Smith and Mary Jane Weyand.

Nurses Recruiting

A student nurse recruiting campaign is being conducted by the staff of St. James Mercy Hospital, due to the general need for nurses both at home and abroad. In connection with the campaign, more than 60 young women were entertained at a tea and tour of the hospital on the afternoon of January 21.

Arrangements were in charge of Sister Mary Aquinas and Miss Ann McKeivitt, superintendent of nurses and principal of the school of nursing. They were assisted by Miss Wilda Gagn, biological and physical science teacher, and Miss Elizabeth Almon, nursing and allied science teacher.

Mrs. J. Raymond Kelly presided at the tea table. Sister M. Aquinas, Mrs. Leon Bennett, Mrs. Floyd Turman and Orance Kelly served.

K. of C. Membership

The Hornell Council of the Knights of Columbus is conducting a drive for new members, since the membership of the group has been greatly decreased because of present-day conditions. An appeal has been made for reinstatement of many of the older members who have, for some reason or other, dropped their memberships.

These men and all prospective members will be entertained at a dinner in the council rooms in the very near future. The speaker for this occasion will be Cornelius J. Milliken, Elmsira newspaperman and a Knight of Columbus for many years.

Grand Knight Richard E. Matthews and Harold Hogue, financial secretary, assisted by a large committee, are working on the membership campaign. Rev. Ignatius Cameron, Rev. Andrew T. Dissett and assistants of both St. Ann's and St. Ignatius Churches are aiding with arrangements.

Funeral Rites In Corning

Rev. Joseph E. Ward, formerly of 92 W. Third St., died Thursday, Jan. 21, at Camp Davis, N. C. Rev. Ward had been in Corning the week before to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Mary Ward. The body arrived in Corning Sunday night and was removed to his home on Monday.

Survivors are: his wife, the former Miss Frances McCarthy, a son, Robert of Sampson Naval Base at Geneva; a sister, Mrs. A. R. Moran of Corning; two brothers, John at home and Francis of Corning; several nieces and nephews, among them Jack Ward, who is serving in the North Pacific with the U. S. Army.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 9:30 a. m. and at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's Church. A string squad from Company C of the 21st Regiment was present at the grave at St. Mary's Cemetery.

Daniel Joseph Sullivan, 271 W. First St., died at his home Monday, Jan. 18, at 5 a. m. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Sullivan and his death occurred in the same home in which he was born. He married Miss Agnes Okroft in St. Mary's Church about 55 years ago. She died thirteen years ago. For 52 years Mr. Sullivan was an employe of the Erie Railroad, retiring several years ago.

Survivors are: three sons, Harry and Daniel at home and Lewis of Waverly; two daughters, Helen Alnoworth at home and Mrs. Joseph Alnoworth, 257 W. First St.; a sister, Mrs. John Madigan of W. Erie Ave.; four grandchildren; one great granddaughter.

Funeral services were held from the late home, Thursday at 9:30 a. m. and at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's Church. The Rev. John A. Smith, pastor, celebrated the Solemn Requiem High Mass with the Rev. John C. Newcomb as deacon and the Rev. John F. Albert, subdeacon. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kipple Spier of W. Erie Ave., Extension died at 1 p. m. Tuesday at the home of her son, Theodore Spier, 28 Elm St. Mrs. Spier died on her 82d birthday. She was married to Peter Spier 52 years ago and had been a resident of Corning since that time.

Mrs. Spier leaves six sons, John, George and Herman, all of Alaska, Joseph and William of Addison and Theodore, at whose home she died; a daughter, Mrs. John J. Masters of Rochester; a step daughter, Mrs. Louis Bisings, of Hornell; 18 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held from the home of Theodore Spier Friday at 8:30 a. m. and at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's Church. The Rev. John A. Smith, pastor, celebrated the Requiem Mass and the Rev. John F. Albert, assistant pastor, officiated at the grave at St. Mary's Cemetery.

Miss Mary T. McCarty, 76, died Wednesday, Jan. 12, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Frank Killigrew, Catoe Road, following an extended illness. Miss McCarty was born in Catoe, the daughter of Dennis and Esther Gerry McCarty. After graduation at Elmsira Free Academy Miss McCarty taught for several years in Catoe and vicinity schools. Later she studied nursing at Bellevue Hospital, New York City. Upon completion of her course she served for several years as superintendent at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Utica. She also served as a nurse in the first World War and after the armistice continued in her profession until she returned to Catoe four years ago.

Besides her sister, Mrs. Killigrew, with whom she made her home, Miss McCarty is survived by two other sisters, Mrs. William Killigrew of Corning and Miss Esther McCarty of Syracuse; two brothers, John and William McCarty, both of Catoe.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 8:15 A. M. from the Killigrew home and at 9 o'clock at St. Patrick's Church. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Frederick Q. Terrill, 52, of 109 E. Erie Ave., died Tuesday, Jan. 12, at the Veteran's Facility Hospital, Bath. Mr. Terrill was born in Corning on Feb. 11, 1889, the son of Frank and Elizabeth Quinn Terrill. He spent most of his life in this city and was employed as a polisher at the Corning Glass Works. He was a veteran of the first World War and was a member of St. Patrick's Church.

Mr. Terrill is survived by his brother, George; an aunt, Mrs. Harriett Terrill of Walnut St.; several cousins.

Funeral services were held Friday at 8:30 A. M. from the home of his brother and at 9 o'clock at St. Patrick's Church. Members of the local American Legion Post acted as pall bearers. The Rev. E. A. Rawlinson, pastor of St. Patrick's, celebrated the Mass of Requiem and officiated at the grave in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Miss Catherine Clark of St. E. Fourth St., died Saturday, Jan. 16, at 3 P. M. at Corning Hospital after a brief illness which became serious only a few days ago.

Miss Clark was a leader in the County Democratic organization, having served as City and County Committeewoman and for a time as head of war election inspectors. She was also vice chairman of the City Committee at one period.

The deceased is survived by one brother, Francis Clark of Washington, D. C., and a sister, Mrs. Thomas Hasset of New York City.

The body was removed to the Saratford-Bellby Funeral Home from where the funeral was held Tuesday, Jan. 19 at 8:30 A. M. and at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's Church. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery.
