HONOR PASTOR JOUBLANIAN

By MARGARET D. MILLS
 "Well Done Thou Good and Faithful Servant." With these words, Our Most Reverend Bishop brought to a close a glowing tribute to Monsignor John F. Boppel on the occasion of his Golden Jubilee Mass celebrated last Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

"Father" Boppel, as he has always preferred to be called, has for thirty-four years served his people faithfully and how well many of us remember his visits to the school rooms, his kindly teachings, his genial smile and his wise counsel.

Well, also, do we remember "Mother" Boppel, his sweet and Mother who, from her place in Heaven, must surely be proud of her noble son.

Our hearty congratulations and well wishes are extended to our Pastor. May God keep him with us for many years to come.

PARISH TRIBUTE SET
 Members of the parish will be given an opportunity to extend their personal greetings to Monsignor Boppel at a reception given in his honor on Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The school children will present a pageant depicting the life of the Jubiliant. Edward Murphy will be the Narrator and Choral Renditions will be given by the St. Boniface Church Choir under the direction of Philip C. Kreckel. The Soloist will be Edward Rizzo and the Violinist, Norman Kock.

Monsignor William M. Hart will represent the Priests of the Diocese and William Hall will speak for the members of the Parish.

This will serve as an invitation to all parishioners to attend the reception, inasmuch as no individual invitations have been issued. Because of the large number expected it would seem advisable to ask only the grown-ups to come.

BOY SCOUT SUNDAY
 The Boy Scouts of the Parish will receive Holy Communion at the 7:30 o'clock Mass on Sunday, Feb. 7, in commemoration of Boy Scout Week.

Tuesday Nite Parties Grow

Larger than any crowd yet, the attendance at last week's Tuesday Nite Parish Party filled the parish hall. Parishioners and friends enjoyed the evening of entertainment and fun. It is expected that next week's attendance will be even larger. Arrangements are being made to provide ample space for many more, without removing the tables which are a comfort for many.

We extend an invitation to our many friends and parishioners to attend these weekly parties. Many valuable awards are made and we are certain all will enjoy an evening with us. Admission is 50c at the door. With five bus lines passing our hall easy and convenient transportation is available to all.

DEBT COLLECTION THIS SUNDAY
 This Sunday is the first Sunday in February and therefore we will take up our regular monthly debt collection at all the Masses. Envelopes are available for the contributors to this collection.

CHILDREN'S WINTER CARNIVAL SCHEDULED
 The school children are beginning active work on their annual banner, which will take the form of a Winter Carnival. It is scheduled for Monday afternoon, March 2, in our parish hall. A preliminary sale of tickets at a $50.00 War Bond has been inaugurated and the children are working zealously on this to guarantee that the Carnival will be a greater success than last year's. Our people are invited to cooperate with the school children in this venture, which is for the benefit of our parish school.

FOR THE FRANCISCAN MISSIONS
 A Franciscan Father will present an appeal for the support of the Franciscan Missions at the Masses Sunday, Feb. 14. War conditions have made most difficult and trying the lot of the Missionary today and have impoverished most of the Mission enterprises. Countries now at war were formerly the best contributors to the support of our Missions. The Franciscan Fathers are carrying on their work with great fortitude even in the face of current conditions. Our opportunity to help them will come on February 14 when one of these Fathers will give us his personal report on Missionary needs.

RITEs FOR MERCY SISTER

By MARY C. BROSNAN
 OWEGO. — The funeral of Sister Mary Catherine Bradley, who died in St. Joseph's Hospital in Elmira on Saturday, Jan. 23, was held in St. Patrick's Church in this village on Tuesday morning, Jan. 26, at 10 o'clock.

A solemn requiem High Mass was offered with the Rev. Michael L. Hynes, pastor of the church as celebrant, the Rev. James B. Keenan, assistant pastor of the St. James Church in Waverly as deacon and the Rev. Alexander J. Stec, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Church in this village as sub-deacon, Leonard J. Burns and Edwin Dunn acted as Masters of Ceremony and the servers were Daniel Thompson, Anthony Stalla and Joseph Trout all former pupils of the deceased nun. The bearers were Sister M. Ancilla and Sister M. Agatha of the local convent, Sister M. Theodosia, of St. Vincent Convent in Corning and for many years stationed in this parish, Sister M. Dolores of Elmira, and Sister M. Aloysius and Sister M. Assisium of Hornell. Music for the Mass was furnished by a choir composed entirely of nuns.

The children of St. Patrick's School, attended the funeral and acted as an escort of honor as the funeral procession entered the church. They occupied seats in the front of the church which had been reserved for them. The school was closed on Monday and Tuesday of last week to honor the memory of Sister Catherine who had taught in the local parochial school for more than eight years.
