

10 Child Books Named For March Book Fete

NEW YORK — Ten books for children are included in a list of 50 selected for Catholic participation in an inter-religious book week in March sponsored by the National Conference of Christians and Jews. A total of 150 books have been selected for the observance, with 50 titles assigned to each of the three main religious denominations.

The committee which selected the Catholic books includes the Rev. J. Gerard Morris, S.J., Managing Editor of America and editorial chairman of the Pro Parvulis Book Club; Mrs. Grace E. Cart, melt, superintendent of work for

Confers Law Degree On F. P. Matthews

JERSEY CITY, N. J. — An honorary doctor of laws degree has been conferred upon Francis P. Matthews, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the National Catholic Community Service and Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus, at the thirteenth annual convocation of John Marshall Law College here.

Mr. Matthews, who is also Vice-President of the United Service Organizations, was unable to attend the commencement exercises, as he is at present in the British Isles studying the work of Catholic organizations on behalf of American servicemen.

ST. ANDREW'S PARISH

MARK SCOUT SUNDAY

Boy Scout Troop 70 and Cub Pack 19 of St. Andrew's Parish will observe Scout Sunday, Feb. 7, by attending Mass and receiving Holy Communion in a body at the 8 o'clock Mass. This will be immediately followed by a Cameronian breakfast in the school hall.

The Scouts and Cubs, together with their leaders and committeemen will march from the hall to the Church, led by the Cross bearer and the color bearers and escorted by a band.

After Mass the "Ad Altare Dei" Cross will be awarded to William Cilluffo, Donald Cochard and John Heimerich. The Cross is given only to First Class Scouts who have been exemplary in their service at the altar.

Guests at the breakfast will include George McAvoy, Rose (Tex) Erwin and Dewey Sawyer, assistant Scout Executive.

Next Wednesday, Feb. 10, Troop 70 will get on a practical demonstration of Scouting skills for parents and friends of the troop. These demonstrations will include First Aid, firefighting by friction, knot tying, signaling and safety.

A Court of Honor will be held following these displays, at which many awards will be given to those Scouts who have merited them.

All St. Andrew's parishioners are invited to attend this meeting.

ALTA SOCIETY PARTY

The Altar Society of St. Andrew's Church sponsored a party in the new recreation room in the Church basement on Tuesday evening. The party was a high success and proceeds will be used to purchase new altar linens and vestments.

MINSTREL SHOW SET

The Young People of St. Andrew's are making plans for their annual Minstrel Show, which will be held on the Sunday and Monday before Ash Wednesday Mar 7 and 8. The chorus will be directed by Miss Mary Louise Geyer. Specialty acts will be under the direction of Miss Evelyn Costabile.

Johnny Doughboy

By Hazel Erbland

Johnny Doughboy is a fellow
Who I proudly admit,
Has a lot of that stuff
That the authors call grit.

The songs of a lance-band,
The beat of a drum,
He exchanged for a helmet
And the sound of a gun.

He fights with the pride
Of knowing what's right,
He fights at the dawn
As well as at night.

His courage is great,
A thing to behold,
Though most of his deeds
Are left untold.

Johnny Doughboy is that fellow
Who lived next door to you,
Who joined the fighting ranks
Because he had a job to do.

He places all his trust in God,
The Guardian of his life,
He breathes a silent prayer,
That He may keep his wife.

For you his darling mother,
Whom his heart loves so true,
And for you Dad and Sis,
He's bound to come through.

So be a little patient
And before long you will see,
In his own little home
Our Johnny Doughboy will be.

If we are well with God, all is well with us.

Make up your mind to conquer your dominant fault.

Anyone wishing to take part in this show should report at the next rehearsal on Sunday afternoon.
