40,000 KOREANS EMBRACED FAITH BY BOOKS BEFORE FIRST MISSIONER ARRIVED

(By N C W C News Service)

Long before His Holiness Pope Pius X counseled "in vain will you . . . found missions . . . and build schools, if you are not able to wield the offensive and defensive weapon of a loyal Catholic Press," the Maryknoll Sisters say, late, the wisdom of his words had been attested by the advent of Christianity to Korea through the medium of Catholic books.

Toward the end of the eighteenth century the Sister recalled, when all foreigners were barred from Korea, Catholic books were brought into the country from China by Korean scholars. The Christian truths penetrated the minds of Korean men of letters and the books were translated into their own language. The Faith was spread and ten years later when the first Catholic priest arrived, he was amazed to find 4,000 Christians awaiting his ministry.

Fr. Brennan's Sixth Book Is Published

Publication of the sixth book, "For Heaven's Sake" by the Rev. Gerald H. Brennan, pastor of St. Bridget's Church, Rochester, is announced this week.

With the records indicating that almost 35,000 copies of the St. Bridget's parish pastor have been placed in the hands of children throughout the United States in the past four years, Father Brennan is rapidly rising to the position of one of America's most successful juvenile authors.

It is Father Brennan's ability to write in the level of the childish mind in language they can understand which is making him the rare combination "of able shepherd of his flock and a mighty successful author of juvenile literature." "The Good Bad Boy," the book published prior to "For Heaven's Sake," was welcomed enthusiastically by both the press and public. A review contest for school children in writing a review of this title, sponsored by the Bruce Publishing company, Father Brennan's publishers, attracted a participation of almost 2,000 children.

The earlier book is a diary of Pompey Briggs, combination Henry Aldridge, Huckleberry Finn and Tom Sawyer. This latest book contains thirty effective "little talks for little folks" in the good-natured vein which made such a hit with the children, not to mention the teachers and parents, who clamored for more of such instructional material when the first book of this kind from the pen of Father Brennan, "Angel Food" was published back four years ago.

His first book, "Angel Food," which was a collection of stories for children to be told to them by their parents or teachers attracted the attention of editors. They advised Father Brennan to try writing them directly for children. Acting upon this advice he found they were right.

As his background for writing for children was excellent since for seventeen years he has been telling and collecting stories for the children, the author-priest learned the secret of firing their young minds and hearts by speaking to them on their own level in language they understood.

Rev. Gerald T. Brennan

As a result of his writing, Father Brennan has become known as the "master of the subtle moral in stories for children." The books from his pen include "Angel City," "Angel Food," "The Ghost of Kingdom Come," "The Man Who Dared a King," and "The Good Bad Boy."

255,810 CARDS FOR DYING NON-CATHOLICS ISSUED

CINCINNATI.—A total of 255,810 prayer cards, more than three times the number of cards sent out during any preceding years, were issued by the Apostolate to Assist the Dying Non-Catholics, it was announced here by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Raphael J. Markham, director of the movement. The total of cards sent out in 1941 was 73,000.

The Apostolate, a movement to assist dying non-Catholics by supplying them with essential prayers, was stimulated during 1942 by a distribution of a special edition of the card among service men, to whom more than 82,000 cards were sent.

CLASS "C" FILM BARRED FROM PROPERTY PURCHASED BY RELIGIOUS COMMUNITY

CHICAGO—As a result of legal action this week, the film "Ecstasy" a "C" picture, was barred from the Woods Theater here. The Woods Theater building was purchased last fall by Franciscan Fathers as a loop church but conversion of the quarters into a church edifice, offices, monastery and other uses will be delayed for the duration.

Lessees of the theater said the film "Ecstasy" was booked before the building was purchased by the Franciscans and that it did not violate the ruling of the Chicago Board of Censorship. Legal counsel for the Franciscans declared that the showing violated an agreement made when the building was purchased that only films of high character be shown.
