write to the level of the shiflithin mind in language they sun ma-decitand which is making him the rare combination of able shoprace combination "of able shop-bord of his limit and a highly sec-conful author of juvenila Harn-ture." The Good Rad Boy," the heat published price to "For Henrica's Bake," was preferanced on-thininationly by both the press and plable. A review constitut for achied children in welling a re-view of this title, spensored for the Bruce Publishing company, Fi-ther Brensta's publishers, attract-ed a participation of almost 2000 children.

His first book, "Angel Pook," which was a collection of stories for children to be told to them by for children to be told to them by livic perwits or tenchers attend-ad the attention of editors. They advised Father Brennes to try writing them directly for children. Acting upon this advice he found they were right.

As his background for writing for children was excellent since for severitoen years he has been telling and collecting stories for the children, the author-priest learned the secret of firing their young minds and boarts by speak-ing to them on their own level is language they understood.

The earlier book is a diary of Ponspoy Briggs, combination Hanry Aldridge, Muskleherry Flan and Tom Sawyer. This latest bank sidtains thirty effective "little talks for little folks" in the good-natured velo which made such a hit with the children, not to mention the teachers and parents, who tional material when the feet book of this kind from the pin of Fa-ther Brennan, "Angel Food" was sublished back four years age.

Naturally the Civic Centre can serve its clientele best because it was designed for living. An institution cannot hope to be a proverbial "Jack-of-all-trades" and still expect to render 100% efficient service to its residents. Located round the corner from everywhere, with a price range within reason, the Columbus Civic Centre lives up to its design . . . for living.
