

Map 'Schools-At-War' Rally For Saturday, March 6

Rally's Purpose Outlined By Fr. Duffy In General Charge

To plan a "Schools-at-War" Rally to be held at Eastman Theater in Mar. 6, preliminary meetings are being held by faculty and student representatives of our Catholic high schools under the General Chairmanship of the Rev. John M. Duffy.

Purpose of the Rally, Father Duffy points out, is "to promote a greater interest among the people in the war activities of the Catholic schools and to encourage students to do more in the future."

The exhibit of the Schools-at-War brochures prepared by 26 high and grammar schools in the diocese will highlight the program.

Assisting Father Duffy in the Rev. Charles J. Mahoney.

Student representatives include Joseph Appleby, Aquinas Institute, Head of Transportation Committee and Abby Lane of Nazareth Academy, Chairman of Invitational Committee.

The Brochure Display will be handled by Colette Stanley of St. Agnes High School with Ellen Howe, Sacred Heart Academy, in charge of finance. Jean Frank, Mercy High School, heads publicity.

The faculty committee includes the Rev. Cyril Carter, S.H.B., and Raymond J. Hausenauer of Aquinas Institute, Sister Grace Regina and Sister Edwardine from Nazareth Academy, Sister Leo Xavier of St. Agnes High School, Reverend Mother E. Antidale and Mother Henales from Sacred Heart Academy and Sister Mary Margaret and Sister M. Antonia from Mercy High School.

Dedicate Service Flag At Civilian Defense Zone Wardens Meeting

AUBURN.—Rev. Dennis Hickey, assistant zone warden, was one of the speakers at the meeting of Zone 7 of Civilian Defense at zone headquarters in the Gohorne Hotel on Monday evening. Police Sgt. Edward L. Arnold, zone warden, presided at the meeting and a feature of the session was the dedication of a service flag bearing five stars in honor of five former members of the zone who are now serving Uncle Sam. Those honored were Frank Carbonaro, George Bond, Thomas O'Neill and Paul Mulcahy.

Members of Zone 7 Civilian Protection force consisting of air raid wardens, auxiliary police and auxiliary firemen, with Sgt. John P. Tenity of the Auburn Police Department, boss of Zone 7, assembled for a banquet following weeks of training and blackout drills. Sgt. Tenity was in charge of the program.

Guests were Rev. John B. Crowley, pastor of St. Aloysius Church, and James Sullivan, instructor of first aid. Sector Warden James Russell introduced the speakers and gave a brief talk on progress in the zone talks.

Father Crowley was the principal speaker and congratulated the men for their untiring interest in the affairs of Zone 7. Adjutant Clarence Reppert was down from Central Church and answered questions proposed by the men, and Rev. Joseph Haffes, assistant zone warden, also spoke briefly. Zone boss Tenity was given a vote of thanks for his direction during the past year and he in turn complimented the men for their cooperation.

Priest Heads City's Defense Speakers

ATCHEISON, Kans.—The Rev. Bonaventura Schvinn, O.S.B., of the St. Benedict's Abbey has been chosen as chairman of the local Committee to provide speakers qualified to address persons interested in Civilian Defense. The committee includes leading citizens of Atchison, members of St. Benedict's college faculty and student body, students of Mt. St. Scholastica college, and students of Atchison high school. All members have qualified for defense work.

ST. MARY'S HOSPITAL MOVING day and opening of the new hospital for actual operation on Jan. 29 was commemorated by Holy Mass celebrated by His Excellency, Bishop Kearney, assisted by the Rev. Stanislaus Szupa, hospital chaplain in Oratory (top photo). Moving one of the 178 patients which required all city ambulances is shown center (left) and St. Mary's Nurse Margaret Ducker holds one of the younger moved (right). Other photo shows the Rev. John S. Randall, hospital fund campaign director congratulating Mrs. Coe W. Moore, mother of baby Margaret Mary Moore. Present also to greet the patients moved into the new quarters was Louis A. Longie, chairman of the 1942 Fund Campaign for St. Mary's.

Geneva Personals of the Week

GENEVA.—Frank A. Rogers of 423 Castle Street observed his 80th birthday on Saturday.

Mr. Rogers was born in Geneva and has always resided here. Formerly a newspaper representative, he is widely known and is keenly interested in current affairs.

Enjoying good health, Mr. Rogers frequently walks to the business section. His many friends wished him good health and "many happy returns of the day."

Miss Marian McGuigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis L. McGuigan of 182 Lewis Street, is recovering satisfactorily following an operation which she recently underwent at the Geneva General Hospital.

Word has been received here of the birth of a son, Thomas George, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Green, of 194 Whitehall Road, Albany, formerly of Geneva, on Jan. 10.

Educator Honored

QUEBEC.—A Fellowship of the Paleontological Society of America has been granted to the Rev. Dr. J. W. Laverdiere, head of the department of mineralogy and geology, Faculty of Sciences, Laval University.

Basketball

St. Hyacinth's Girls Win
AUBURN.—The Polish Girls Basketball team sponsored by the Society of St. Theresa of St. Hyacinth's Church defeated the St. Alphonse Parish team by a score of 20 to 12 on Tuesday night at the Falcon gym. The Polish team took the lead at the beginning of the game and held it throughout the contest. Mary Grzeska with 14 points and Helen Dosty with 10 points led the winners, while Murray led the losers with eight points. The St. Theresa Team defeated the St. Peter and Paul's team by a score of 29 to 17 one week ago.

Catholic League
The Catholic Basketball League played Sunday evening at Falcon Hall and the program was one of the most surprising of the year. The first game was the one between St. Aloysius and St. Peter and Paul's team with a final score of 25-20 in favor of St. Aloysius. Paul Grzesky scored 16 points for the winners and Curtin was high for the losers with ten points. The second game was the Squires vs. St. Hyacinth's and this was the big game of the evening for the Squires defeated last year's champions by a score of 24-20 and Coach Red Coughlin of the Squires led his team to victory on eight points. The final game of the evening was St. Mary's against Holy Family and St. Mary's won their fifth victory where when Holy Family was defeated 30-14.

LEAGUE STANDINGS

St. Mary's	5	0	1,000
St. Hyacinth's	4	1	800
St. Francis	3	2	600
Squires	2	3	400
St. Peter and Paul	2	4	333
Holy Family	1	4	200
St. Aloysius	1	4	200

Next Sunday's schedule follows:
7:15 o'clock, St. Francis vs. St. Aloysius; 8:15 o'clock, St. Mary's vs. St. Hyacinth's; 9:15 o'clock, Holy Family vs. Columbian Squires.

Junior Recreation League
The Holy Family Junior Recreation Basketball League team defeated St. Peter-Paul's, last year's champs, by a score of 22-15 on the Fulton Street School court on Saturday morning. Johnnie Mohan was the sensation of the game and secured 11 field goals and added three foul points for a total of 25 counts and the Holy Family team stayed in the race of the Catholic Junior League only a half game behind the undefeated St. Francis Ave. St. Francis won their sixth game in a row when they defeated the St. Hyacinth's team by a score of 25-16. St. Aloysius remained in third place when they won over St. Mary's by a score of 24-10 and the fourth game went to the Columbian Squires 21-7 when they defeated the Neighborhood House.

LEAGUE STANDINGS

St. Francis	6	0	1,000
Holy Family	5	1	825
St. Aloysius	4	2	668
St. Mary's	3	3	500
Col. Squires	2	4	334
St. Peter-Paul	2	4	334
St. Hyacinth's	2	4	600
Neighborhood House	0	4	000

Games next Saturday are as follows: 9:00 o'clock, St. Peter-Paul vs. Columbian Squires; 9:40, Holy Family vs. St. Francis; 10:20, St. Aloysius vs. Neighborhoods; 11:00 o'clock, St. Hyacinth's vs. St. Mary's.

Bowling

Catholic Church League
AUBURN.—St. Alphonse Team was high in the Catholic Church Bowling League on Monday evening with a score of 2,574. Peter Tarby rolled 604 with 221 single; E. Dempsey scored 602 points with games of 204, 201 and 187. Kahl had a score of 583; Bannon, 513, and Chellis, 600 points.

Girls' City League
The St. Aloysius team in the Girls' City League defeated the Kowalczyk team two games out of three. Julia Walser was the high bowler with games of 164, 185 and 128, making a total of 487 points. Pearl Tarby was second with 457 points and her best game was 173. Helen Lepak was the high bowler of the games with 408 and one single game was 190. Mary Oprisko rolled 428; Mary Murinka, 407, and Anna Kechurak, 282.

No man is considered smart after people discover how he did it.