SCOUTS ATTEND MASS

In accordance with the wishes of National Scout Leaders, that each Scout Troop participate in some religious ceremony during National Scout Week (February 7-13), the Boy Scouts of St. Monica's Parish, Troop No. 246, led by Scoutmaster James Donnelly and their committeemen, attended Mass and received Holy Communion in a body at the 8 o'clock Mass on last Sunday, Feb. 7.

Following the Mass, a Communion breakfast was served in the parish hall. Rev. John J. Tresey, troop chaplain, addressed the boys very briefly, as did Mr. Edward Lorscheider, Co-chairman of the breakfast were Mr. Raymond Gugel and Mr. Bernard Delephanty.

During the past few days, eight boys have made application for admittance to the troop. This is an excellent tribute both to the Scouts and to their leaders, who, in spite of their small numbers, have made Troop No. 246 one of the outstanding groups in the city.

Pleasant Little Chap

"I suppose your baby is very fond of you?"
"Fond of me! Why, the rascal sleeps all day when I'm at work so that he can stay up at night and enjoy my company."

JUNIOR'S "MOM"

Harriet Hilliard, whose lovely voice is heard over a nationwide hookup each Tuesday night as Red Skelton's "mom", was wowing audiences before she learned to walk. Harriet's parents were showfolks and Harriet played her first role as an infant, and at the age of 15 was a vaudeville star, appearing with headliners on the Orpheum circuit to do ballet specialties. Harriet was christened Peggy Lou Snyder in Des Moines, Iowa. Although her parents were on the road with their shows, Harriet managed to obtain an education between theatrical engagements. She was graduated from St. Agnes Academy in Kansas City, where she starred as Captain of the baseball team, and on the country swimming team. She is 5 feet, 9 inches tall, has a light complexion and blond hair. Her hobby is buying shoes. She likes chili con carne as much as she dislikes the color green.
