QUEBEC CATHOLIC CHURCHES JOIN IN OBSERVANCE OF 'AID TO RUSSIA SUNDAY'

QUEBEC. — Catholic churches joined with those of other faiths on Jan. 24 in observing an "Aid to Russia Sunday."

His Eminence Rodrigue Cardinal Villeneuve, Archbishop of Quebec, prior to this Sunday recalled to his pastors a letter which he had addressed to J. L. St. Laurent, Canadian Minister of Justice. In this His Eminence pointed out that "Christian charity naturally inclines our souls to aid them (the Russian people) in their troubles, to alleviate the misery of all those who suffer as victims of an unjust war."

While expressing his admiration and gratitude for the valor of the Russian people in their resistance to the common enemy, His Eminence has warned that Canadians must continue to protect their land against atheistic Communism.
