Mission Nuns Write From 'Most Peaceful Section of China'

MARYKNOLL, N. Y. — Out of a carload of roaring guns and booming shells, the mission work of two Maryknoll Sisters in Szechwan, South China, continues at peace-time pace, according to a recent mission report from this territory received at the Motherhouse here.

They are Sister Mary Louise of Quincy, Ill., and Sister Mary Albert of Springfield, Ill.

"I think that we are in the most peaceful territory in all China," writes one of the Sisters. "We see nothing of the war, and hear little about it. We are busy as the day is long, with 60 pupils in daily attendance at our little school, and 100 boys and girls for Sunday school."

"We have a fine garden to help out on the cost of living, and have already harvested a few handfuls of peanuts (our substitute for meat), and now have cabbage, cabbages, Chinese peas and a few other vegetables growing."

"Letters from home are painfully scarce, owing to prohibitive postage rates."

"There is no way of telling at this time exactly how many Poles have been murdered by the Nazis in Warsaw."

It is revealed that the scene of execution now in Palmiry, near Warsaw, where shootings take place either at dawn or during the night by the light of automobile headlights. Twenty persons at a time are lined up beside deep trenches and shot, the pamphlet stated.
