Appropriate Scrolls Placed Prominently In Geneva Churches Honor Servicemen

GENEVA—Honor rolls bearing the names of young men from St. Francis de Sales and St. Stephen's parishes here, have been placed in prominent places in each of the two Geneva churches.

The artistically prepared Service Roll at St. Stephen's Church was inspected recently by His Excellency, Bishop Kearney. The Rev. William McPadden is pastor of St. Stephen's Church.

More than 200 young men, members of St. Francis de Sales Church, of which the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Walter J. Lee, V.F., is pastor, have gone into the armed forces.

Their names are inscribed on the large honor roll which has been placed before the Sacred Heart altar in the church.

Six feet high, the honor roll is surmounted by a golden eagle and an American flag. Divided into seven columns, 228 names are inscribed and this week 20 more were added, bringing the total to date of 258.

Ceremonies dedicating the roll were held last week during the closing program of a Mass held in the church and were conducted by Monsignor Lee assisted by the Rev. William O'Brien and the Rev. Valentine Jaskiewicz.

Holy Family Sodality News

AUBURN—On Thursday evening a meeting of the Young Ladies' Auxiliary of Holy Family High School was held in Room 208. During this meeting, Mary E. Fitzgerald, chairwoman of Our Lady's Committee, gave a very excellent review of that current book, "The Song of Bernadette." Many of the girls did not know how the author conceived the idea of this book, consequently Mary Ellen's talk proved educational as well as entertaining.

It was decided, at the suggestion of Marjorie Delaney, to offer the Masses and Communions of our next Sodality Sunday for the Bishop.

Ann Hennessy has started a drive in the Sodality to collect Catholic magazines to give to Father Dugay for distribution at Auburn priests.

Before the close of the meeting, a short play entitled "Timothy Casey's Secret," was presented by a group of Sodalists, and enjoyed immensely by all the sodalists.

NEW ORLEANS—Prof. Joe O. Koenigstein, Director of New American Studies at Loyola University of the South, has been awarded membership in the Legion of Merit. This Award, however, does not detract from his present position as professor of political economy and in awaiting his call to the 28th Select to go from the Diocese.
