

ST. ALPHONSUS, Auburn

SODALISTS ON SLEIGHRIDE

AUBURN—Sodalists of St. Alphonsus held a sleighride and concert this Friday evening. Following a ride around the outskirts of the city the members of the Sodality stopped at the home of Mrs. Mary Barry, 21 Lewis St., where they had hot chocolate and sandwiches and the evening's program closed with the playing of games. Miss Jane Doyle was chairman of the sleighride and she was assisted by Miss Burkhardt, Madeline Burke, Helen Costello, Jane McCarthy, Lois McCarthy and Rita Ferris. Rev. Gerard Amant is moderator of the Sodality.

GIRLS TEAM WINS

St. Alphonsus girls Basketball Team defeated the Emmanuel Baptist girls by a score of 20 to 8 in the first of a series of basketball games staged Friday evening on the Fulton Street Court. Ted Haveling was the high scorer for the winners with Alice Coak high scorer for the losers.

MARK BOY SCOUT WEEK

Boy Scout Week was observed at St. Alphonsus Church on Sunday morning when the entire membership of the two St. Alphonsus troops, Nos. 12 and 21, assembled at the Church house at 7:30 o'clock and marched to the church to attend the 8:00 o'clock Mass in a body and receive Holy Communion. Scoutmasters Frank Hoffman and Francis Marshall headed the group of 14 Scout campsitees, also in the march with the Scouts. Rev. John Merklinger, chaplain of the Troop, was celebrant of the High Mass and four Scouts in full uniform served him at the altar. The two troops occupied the front pews of the church directly in front of the few hundred Holy Name men at the service as Sunday was Holy Name Day. Also assembled at the Mass were mothers, sisters, sweethearts and friends of the men in the service of their country. St.

Greet Father Turner As New Zone Warden

AUBURN—A regular meeting of Zone 5, six wardens, auxiliary police, auxiliary firemen, members of Task Force met at St. Francis Hall during the week. Zone 5 welcomed the new zone warden, Rev. Francis Turner, who has taken over the work of Father Bernard Newcomb who has entered the service of Uncle Sam as a chaplain. Kendall Frerick was elected assistant zone warden and William Colpietro was elected secretary. The meeting was in charge of Randolph Hicofa.

SODALITY SILVER TEA

Senior Sodality will be hostesses to the parishioners and friends on Monday afternoon, March 7, at a Silver Tea which will be held in Lyceum Hall. Miss Margaret Ryan is general chairman.

DISCUSSION CLUBS

Discussion Clubs will begin this year during the week of Feb. 29, and will close on Palm Sunday, April 13. "Our Parish" is the title of the pamphlet. It is a study of all the sacraments in the parish setting and was written to lead people to a keener realization of the place the parish has in their lives. It being "The House of God and Gate of Heaven." The pamphlet is divided into seven chapters: (1) Our Parish and its Church, (2) Our Parish Center: The Altar (The Holy Eucharist), (3) Our Parish Shepherd (Holy Orders), (4) Our Parish Flock (Baptism, Penance, Confirmation), (5) Our Parish Families (Christian Marriage), (6) Our Parish: The Gate of Heaven (Last Rites), (7) Our Parish in Action (Retiue).

The work of organizing these Discussion Clubs will commence in St. Mary's this week. Mrs. John C. O'Boyle, who has been parish chairman for several years, will act in that capacity again this year. Rev. Joseph McNamara will be moderator of the Clubs. Anyone desiring to act as leader is asked to leave the name at the rectory and details will be explained at a later date.
