Nazis Use Warsaw As Pattern of Death, Slavery

WASHINGTON — Warsaw, Capital of Poland, is being used by the German Nazis as a pattern of death, disease, starvation, economic and political slavery, and wholesale elimination of populations in their plans for world conquest, it is stated in a 24-page pamphlet titled "Tale of a City" issued today by the Office of War Information.

Material for the pamphlet, it was stated, was gathered from many sources, some of them hitherto confidential, including governmental and private reports and eyewitness accounts.

Facts of the religious persecution in Warsaw disclosed in the OWI pamphlet include:

"Large numbers of priests have been sent to concentration camps, or have been tortured or put to death."

"Catholic organizations have been compelled to close their doors and end their activities."

"Both Lutheran colleges in Warsaw have been converted into military hospitals."

"In a typical church raid, the Nazis swooped down upon the Capuchin cloister in Miodowa St., confiscated the property and arrested the monks. In the villages on the outskirts of Warsaw, priests are held as hostages when peasants fail to meet the grain quota demanded by the Nazis."

"Bread is about the only thing the population can count upon eating. This winter there may be no bread in Warsaw. Forty per cent sawdust, the bread is dark and indigestible. Adults may not receive milk, an adult being anyone older than six months."

"The pamphlet reported that all colleges and high schools have been closed and that scientific laboratories have been dismantled and shipped to Germany. The Polish press, it stated, has been suppressed."

With regard to executions, the pamphlet said:

"There is no way of telling at this time exactly how many Poles have been murdered by the Nazis in Warsaw."

It is revealed that the scene of execution now in Palmiry, near Warsaw, where shootings take place either at dawn or during the night by the light of automobile headlights. Twenty persons at a time are lined up beside deep trenches and shot, the pamphlet stated.

Mission Nuns Write From 'Most Peaceful Section of China'

MARYKNOLL, N. Y. — Out of earshot of roaring guns and bursting shells, the mission work of two Maryknoll Sisters in Siaoi, South China, continues at peacetime pace, according to a recent mission report from this territory received at the Motherhouse here. They are Sister Mary Luella, of Quincy, Ill., and Sister Mary Albert, of Springfield, Ill.

"I think that we are in the most peaceful territory in all China," writes one of the Sisters. "We see nothing of the war, and hear little about it. We are busy all the day is long, with 60 pupils in daily attendance at our little school, and 170 boys and girls for Sunday School.

"We have a fine garden to help out on the 'cost of living,' and have already harvested a few bushels of peanuts (our substitute for meat), and now have cabbage, turnips, Chinese peas and a few other vegetables growing.

"Letters from home are painfully scarce, owing to prohibitive postage rates."
