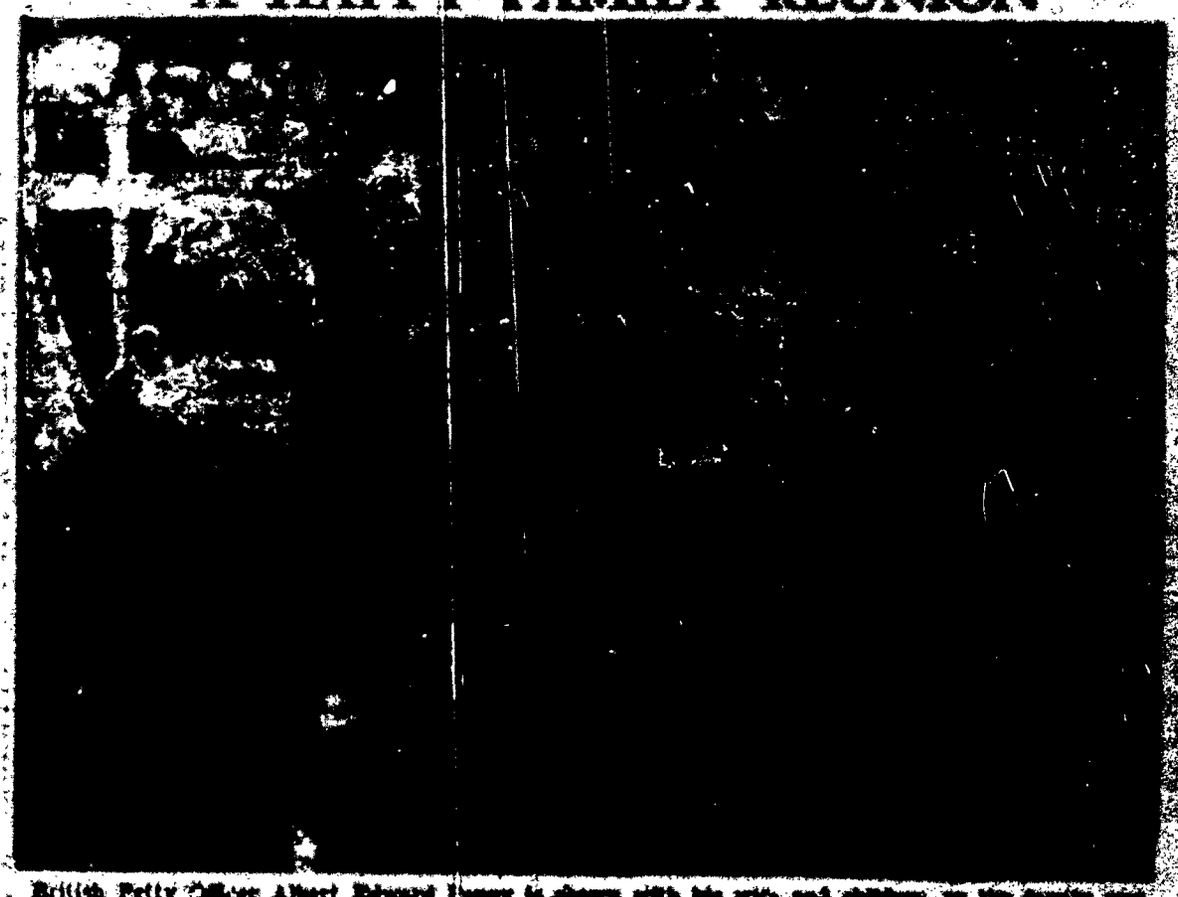
A HAPPY FAMILY REUNION



British Petty Officer Albert Edward Penny is shown with his wife and children, as the family was reunited recently in Hampshire, England. He escaped from an Italian Prisoner-of-War Camp near Rome and took refuge in the Vatican, and was recently exchanged for an Italian prisoner, upon the suggestion of Pope Pius XII. At an audience the Holy Father gave him a rosary and an autographed photo to take home with him. Mr. Penny and Mrs. Penny, who serve in the WRENS, are pictured showing the gifts to their children, Dennis and Edward. INP photo. (N.C.W.C.)

Cardinal's Aid To Rabbi Brought Attack, German Refugee States

LONDON (NC)—A refugee from Germany has disclosed to His Eminence Arthur Cardinal Hinsley, who has released the information, the fact that the Nazi attacks on Cardinal von Faulhaber's residence at Freising in 1938 were due to the Cardinal's charitable act in aiding a Jewish rabbi at a time when a wave of hostility had broken over the Jews and no one else dared help them.

The Chief Rabbi of Bavaria had been given six hours to clear out of his synagogue.

Cardinal von Faulhaber sent a truck to pick up the religious objects in the synagogue and had them taken to the Archbishop's residence.

The Nazis were furious, says the refugee in his statement to Cardinal Hinsley.

Within a few days Munich was plastered with posters demanding "Away with Faulhaber, the friend of the Jews."

A little while later Jewish shops and property in Munich were wrecked. Cardinal von Faulhaber then preached in his Cathedral a powerful attack on the instigators of the pogrom.

"You can see in this town of Munich with your own eyes," he said, "destruction which blind racial hate has caused. We Christians must love every race, as Christian love and charity are fundamental commandments of Our Lord Jesus Christ. What must the whole world think of us of Catholic Bavaria? Let us pray always to remain good Christians."

Next day the Nazi party demonstrated against the "Archbishop of the Jews," and in the evening the Munich residence was attacked and all the windows, some of great artistic value, were destroyed.

But the Nazi police made no arrests.

On behalf of the Hierarchy of England and Wales, Cardinal Hinsley has issued this statement:

"Whatever can be done to save or to help the victims of Nazi persecution we most urgently support. Multitudes of Christians are among the victims, but the Jews are singled out for extermination. Blind racial hate, as Cardinal Faulhaber has repeatedly declared, is the motive of these unparalleled barbarities. As he has said: 'Christian love of men of every race is the fundamental commandment of Our Lord. We must pray to remain always Christian.'

"That should be the stimulus to action as well as to prayer, and that at once."

Ordained Earlier

SAN FRANCISCO—The deacons at St. Patrick's Seminary, Menlo Park, will be ordained in St. Mary's Cathedral, San Francisco, Saturday, March 20. This date has been advanced from the traditional Saturday in June, in order to fill the great number of vacancies left by the priests of the Archdiocese who have joined the armed forces as chaplains.

Will Judge National Short Story Contest For Catholic Press Group

TO SELECT WINNERS: (from left) Sister Mary Joseph, Clarence Manion and the Rev. Vincent Joseph Flynn.

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—National judges in the magazine division of the short story contest, sponsored by the Catholic Press Association, have been announced by the Rev. Herbert O'H. Walker, S.J., managing editor of The Queen's Work here, national Sodality organ, and chairman of the Literary Awards Committee. They are:

The Rev. Vincent Joseph Flynn, B.A., M.A., Ph.D., S.T.B., author, head of the Department of English, College of St. Thomas, St. Paul, Minn. He is now on leave to accept a Guggenheim Fellowship. For several summers has been a visiting professor in the Graduate Department of the Catholic University of America. He is a native of Avoca, Minn.

Clarence Manion, B.A., M.A., Ph.M., Jur.D., J.U.D., dean of the College of Law, University of Notre Dame, Ind., is the author of a number of books and pamphlets, the most recent of which is "Lessons in Liberty," a study of God in government. He is a native of Henderson, Ky.

Sister Mary Joseph, S.A., M.A., Ph.D., founder and director of the Gallery of Living Catholic Authors, Webster College, Webster Groves, Mo. A native of Peoria, Ill., she is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew George Shorer. She is librarian and a member of the Department of English at Webster College, which is operated by the Sisters of Loretto at the Foot of the Cross.

FIVE and TEN Years Ago

From Feb. 16, 1933, Edition

"The real object of education is 'the glorification of God by leading the little ones to Christ that they may know Thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ Whom thou hast sent,'" declared the Rev. John M. Duffy in a lecture sponsored by the Catholic Men's Federation of Monroe County, one of a series at St. Joseph's Hall.

* * *

From Feb. 17, 1933, Edition

"The United States has become a prey to foreign propagandists who are slowly but surely dragging America into war," the Rev. Ignatius W. Cox, S.J., Fordham University, asserted at a Catholic Press Exhibit in New York City.

* * *

Word of the overwhelming defeat of a resolution providing for ratification of the so-called Federal Child Labor Amendment in the New York State Assembly was hailed here as another victory in the fight to prevent Congress from gaining control over youth of this country.

25 Days To Go...

AND THEN

Your Income Tax is Due

If you know how much you must pay and have the cash . . . that's great.

But . . . if you haven't determined the amount you owe . . . do it today. If you need financial assistance for us help.

Call Main 1625 and ask us to mail you a blank loan application at once.

CENTRAL TRUST CO.

25 East Main Street

1556 East Avenue

MEN'S SHIRTS OF SANFORIZED BROADCLOTH

Regularly $2.25 Crisp! New! $1.98

- Heavy quality . . . for extra wear (136x68 count instead of the 80x60 you'd expect at this price!)
- Sanforized . . . they'll keep their size after countless launderings.
- Stripes . . . in new Spring colors to tone up your suits.
- Tailored by one of America's top shirtmakers; cut full and long, shaped for comfort. Non-wilt attached collars.
- Sizes 14 to 17; sleeves 32 to 35.

MEN'S SHOP, STREET FLOOR