

Hear Inter-Faith Speakers At High School Forums

Continuing the series of Inter-Faith forums presented before schools and civic organizations, the Rev. Leo G. Schwab addressed the students of Elmita Free Academy on Friday, Feb. 19, at 11 A. M. Also on the program were the Rev. Samuel Markowitz, Rabbi, and Rev. Martin D. Hargan, Jr., Presbyterian minister.

Annual Banquet Listed For Junior C. D. of A.

The sixth annual banquet of the Junior Catholic Daughters of America will be held on Tuesday, March 2, at 8 P. M. at the Mark Twain Hotel. Banquet will follow from 5 to 11.

Northside High School students will hear Father Schwab, Rabbi Markowitz, and the Rev. Alfred Coleman, Methodist minister, on Friday, Feb. 26.

The talks are given as part of a program to promote understanding, fellowship, and cooperation among the various religions in America, a part of antidote for the type of religious oppression which now exists in other lands.

Special attention is directed toward the movement during Neighborhood Week, from Feb. 19 to Feb. 25.

Attend Art Exhibit

Santiago, Chile — Ecclesiastical authorities, members of the diplomatic corps and a number of artists attended the opening of the Major Art Exhibit which has assembled at Archbishop's headquarters the Capital's most interesting works of art honoring the Blessed Virgin.

COLONEL AMONG CAMP CONFIRMEES

Bishop Thomas J. Toolen, of Mobile, officiates (upper photo) at the Confirmation of Regimental Commander, Colonel Robert F. Dark, in the 321st Infantry Chapel, Camp Rucker, Ala. Bishop Toolen is pictured (lower photo) as he preached the sermon which preceded the Confirmation of a class of 75 soldiers. (N.C.W.C.)

6 Priests, 10 Laymen Given K. of C. Degree

A class of six priests and 10 laymen received the first and second degrees of the Knights of Columbus, with a Corning ritualistic team conferring, Sunday, Feb. 21, at Columbus Center. The third degree will be given in Corning on March 7.

The Rev. Joseph L. Hoque, the Rev. Clarence W. Gardner, the Rev. Edward J. Toliver, the Rev. Joseph F. Hoque, the Rev. John A. Murphy, and the Rev. Lawrence W. Hancock were the priests receiving the degrees. Other candidates were Joseph S. Yeager, James W. O'Hara, Jr., Charles E. Hahn, Joseph Korak, John J. Fabinski, Bertram J. Seifried, Christopher Norton, and Paul Curtis. The degree team was composed of Paul Tammaro, Albert Lynch, Paul Lovett, Arthur Kramer, Charles Marx.

LADIES OF CHARITY— Jottings Here and There

Members of the Red Cross Committee met at Columbus Center on Wednesday, Feb. 24. Mesdames J. Reidy and John S. Maoney are co-chairmen of this group which is working in co-operation with the local Red Cross office.

The Infant of Prague Committee are continuing to assist in the Children's Ward at St. Jerome's Hospital. Members report daily and assist on any work that is planned for them by the Sister in charge.

Mrs. Edward P. Dawes, co-chairman of this committee with Miss Florence P. Kane, will plan the decorations and refreshments for the tea which is scheduled for March 14th as an observance of the Feast of St. Louise de Marillac.

The regular monthly meeting of the Central Executive Council was held on Wednesday, Feb. 24, with Mrs. Joseph E. Spiegel, president, presiding. Several matters of business relating to various committees as well as to the general practices of the organization were discussed. This council is made up of chairmen and assistant chairmen of each committee.

The Thursday Sewing group plan to meet at 10:30 o'clock instead of at two o'clock because of the late afternoon transportation complications. The Thursday group which meets this week will begin work on the uniforms for Camp Villa Maria and the bathrobes for use in the children's ward of St. Joseph's Hospital. Material for the robes is supplied by the members of the committee of the Infant of Prague.

Members of the committee of St. Ann de Beaupre, and representatives of several other groups are assisting at St. Jerome's Hospital. They are under the supervision of Mesdames Roderick V. Prechtel, James L. O'Dea and Joseph R. Spiegel, all of whom are graduates of St. Joseph's School of Nursing.

Biography of Chopin Pro Parvulis Club Choice

NEW YORK — "Frederic Chopin," by Andre Maurois, has been chosen by Pro Parvulis Book Club as its current selection for the younger children. The book is illustrated in color.

The Pro Parvulis review states that the art work in M. Maurois' book is the most distinguished book-illustration of the year. The biography is written simply and brings out the loneliness of Chopin's life. The music of the Catholic composer is especially popular with young people. The book was published by Harper Brothers.

Dies in Detention

London — An outstanding Dutch Catholic leader, the Rev. Arnold von Lierop, has died in a German concentration camp, according to KAP, Polish Catholic news agency here. The priest was a chaplain in the Dutch army before the German occupation.

Sheehan Dons and Co. Inc. 212-6247

Join the NAVY... and let the world see you— America's favorite color... Navy Blue and White... SPRING TRADITIONALS

State Deputy Doyle Will Attend Corning K.C. Rite

CORNING—Hugh A. Doyle of New Rochelle, state deputy of the Knights of Columbus, will be the speaker for the breakfast which will precede the third degree scheduled by the local Council for Mar. 7 at the Knights of Columbus Home.

It is expected that about 100 candidates from Elmita, Itasca, Sayre and Corning will receive the degree, which is being given in Corning for the first time since 1835.

Grand Knight Clement L. Murphy has announced committees as follows:

Visiting clergy—The Rev. Joan F. Albert, chairman, chaplain of the local council, the Rev. John A. Smith, the Rev. William D. Tobin; reception, John R. Osborne, chairman, James P. Hallahan, Dr. Hugh T. Keenan, Albert F. Lynch, Frank H. Sultz, John Gustina, Joseph O'Hara, Joseph Reagan, John W. McCarthy.

Finance—Paul Lovette, chairman; John Kennedy, C. L. Murphy, John Smith, arrangements; Hugh O'Brian, Frank Schroeder, Donald Rhinehart, Arthur Seibly; medical, Dr. R. L. O'Brien, chairman; Dr. Fred Goodman, Dr. Thomas McNamara; music, L. F. Keagan, Richard McElligott, Michael Mahoney, Raymond Older, John Lart.

Honorary Guard—H. J. Alsworth, chairman; Eugene Almon, Anthony Fratarcangelo, John Lawlor, Arthur Kramer, Frank Alsworth, Michael Tammaro; breakfast, John L. Clark, chairman; W. D. O'Hara, William D. Ancey, house, Robert Hallahan, chairman, Joseph Smith, Ernest Haynes, Michael Costa, Thomas Moore, John Marx; luncheon, James J. McMahon, George Recktenwald, Michael Tammaro, Thomas Moore; transportation, John Smith, chairman; tickets, Raymond Older.

Compulsory Education

Quebec. — The Catholic Committee of the Council of Public Instruction for Quebec has gone on record as urging compulsory school training in this province for children from six years to 14 years of age. Up to the present time, Quebec has not had a system of compulsory education.

Hugh A. Doyle

Junior C.D.A. Court Entertains Mothers

CORNING — Mrs. Robert Berns, chairman of the Court St. Joseph 138 Junior Catholic Daughters of America, and Miss Marion Winder, president of the group, presided at the tea table Sunday, Feb. 21, when mothers of the members were entertained with a program, followed by tea. About 75 were present.

The program included four selections by the "Seven Sharps," vocal ensemble of Northside High School girls, the Misses Marianna Keenan, Caroline Ciley, Betty Davis, Winifred Crump, Dorothy Wilson, Theresa Wood, with Miss Betty Lovette at the piano; vocal solo by Miss Mary Miller, accompanied by Mrs. Donald Fish; a reading by Miss Marion Winder; vocal solo by Miss Ann Lentricchia, accompanied by Miss Mary Lencial.