

ONE LAD, FIVE MAIDS—DADS IN THE SERVICE

These servicemen's children show paper horns to express their approval of a party given for them at the New Orleans USO Club operated by the Women's Division of the National Catholic Community service, member agency. The young lads in the center does not object to being photographed. The club's staff has been swamped with requests for room accommodations for parents, wives, children and sweethearts of men in the armed forces. (N.C.C.W.O.)

CYO Notes

Members of the Catholic Youth Organization interested in an appetizer met with Mrs. John D. Lucas on Tuesday evening, Feb. 23, at the Knights of Columbus.

The weekly meeting of the Crafts Class was held on Wednesday, Feb. 24 at 4:00 o'clock in the Federation Building. Mrs. Joseph Dwyde is in charge of this group.

The newspaper group met on Wednesday evening, Feb. 24, from seven to eight o'clock in the Federation Building under the direction of Miss Rita Hickey.

Thursday, Feb. 25, the basketball class will meet at St. Peter and Paul's Hall at 4:00 o'clock, under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Dowdle.

The C.Y.O. dancing class will meet on Friday evening, Feb. 26. The Seventh and Eighth grades dance from seven until nine for round and square dancing. The high school students will meet from nine until eleven.

On Saturday, Feb. 27, the swimming class will meet at the Y.M.C.A. from seven until eight o'clock.

Mass For N. Y. Police First Friday Group

NEW YORK.—Bishop William T. McCarty, Military Delegate, will celebrate Mass in St. Francis' Church on Friday, Mar. 6, for the New York City Police Department First Friday Group. He will be the principal speaker at the Communion breakfast which will follow at the Hotel Governor Clinton. Organized eight months ago with a membership of ten, the First Friday Group now numbers 200 policemen. They make a corporate Communion every First Friday in memory of members of our Armed Forces who perished at Pearl Harbor. Uniformed policemen serve the Mass and congregational singing is led by members of the Police Glee Club.

800 Airmen Attend First Afternoon Mass

MONTREAL.—The Most Rev. Lawrence Whelan, Auxiliary Bishop of Montreal, officiated at the first afternoon Mass celebrated at the Manning Depot, Lachine, when some 800 airmen were present and several hundred officers and men received Holy Communion. Bishop Whelan, addressing the airmen in English and French, said that it was the first time in the confines of the Archdiocese of Montreal that Mass had been said in the afternoon. "From time immemorial we have said Mass in the morning, but we cannot forget that the Mass said by Our Lord was said just before the sun was going down."

Weddings In Corning

Yoris - Darcangelo
The marriage of Miss Teresa Marie Darcangelo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Darcangelo, of Warren St., to Capt. Anthony Paul Yoris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pius Yoris, 213 W. Erie St., took place Tuesday, Feb. 23, at 2 p. m. at St. Vincent de Paul's Church. The Rev. Joseph F. McCarthy, assistant pastor, performed the ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass.

Miss Julia Darcangelo, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Francis Yoris, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

A breakfast for the immediate families was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony. Later a dinner for 20 guests was served at the Huron Beach Hotel, after which the couple left for a trip to New York City.

Mrs. Yoris is a graduate of St. Vincent de Paul's School and attended Northside High School. She is employed at the Yicks Food Market. Capt. Yoris was graduated from St. Mary's School and attended Corning Free Academy. He is a corporal technician with the Army Engineers in the Yukon Territory on the Alcan Highway.

Fotis - Graftoulere
Miss Catherine E. Graftoulere, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Graftoulere, 180 Wall St., and Sgt. Clement C. Fotis, formerly of Corning, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Fotis of Sanford, N. C., were united in marriage Saturday, Feb. 21, at Hartsville, N. C. The Rev. Louis Williamson, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Hartsville, performed the ceremony.

A graduate of St. Mary's School and Corning Free Academy, the bride is a bookkeeper in the accounting department of Corning Glass Works. Sgt. Fotis was graduated from Rock Hill (S.C.) High School and King's Business School, Charlotte, N. C. Before entering the service in June, 1941, he was employed at Corning Glass Works. He has now left for Yukon Territory where he is stationed with the 25th Engineers on the Alcan Highway.

Wayton - Sevelin
Miss Susan Sevelin, 211 Oak St., and Walter Wayton of Olean were united in marriage Saturday, Feb. 20 at 10 a. m. at St. Mary's Church. The Rev. John C. Newcomb, assistant pastor, performed the ceremony.

Attending the couple were Miss Anna Sevelin, sister of the bride, and Dominick Missonetti of Elkland. Following a reception at the bride's home Mr. and Mrs. Wayton left on a two week trip. They will make their home in Elkland where Mr. Wayton is employed.

Cavalier - Leckach
The marriage of Miss Eleanor Marie Leckach, daughter of Mrs. Thelma Leckach of Galena, Pa., and the late John Leckach, to John Richard Cavalier, was at Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cavalier, 224 W. Erie Ave., took place Saturday, Feb. 20, at 4 p. m. at St. Mary's Church. The Rev. John F. Albert, assistant pastor was celebrant of the solemn High Mass. He was assisted by the Rev. John C. Newcomb, also assistant pastor at St. Mary's, and the Rev. William D. Tobin, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Church.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Margaret Cavalier, sister of the bridegroom. Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Cavalier, another sister, and Miss Doris French. Anthony Cavalier, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather, Jay French of Galena, Pa.

Following the ceremony a breakfast for 20 guests was served at the home of the bridegroom's parents. Later the couple left for a trip to New York City. Upon their return they will live at 120 W. Third St.

Mrs. Cavalier is a graduate of Galena High School and is now employed in the engraving room at Corning Glass Works.

Mr. Cavalier, who attended St. Mary's School, is an employee of the shipping department at Corning Glass Works.

Mark Haltian Independence Day

PORT-AU-PRINCE.—Haltian Independence Day was observed with religious and patriotic ceremonies.

President Elio Leont, his Cabinet and 2000 members of the diplomatic and consular corps, the presidents of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies, the Judiciary and other military and civil authorities assembled in the Cathedral for the chanting of a solemn Te Deum and to hear a sermon on the religious and patriotic significance of the occasion.

Parents of 5 Nuns

Rochester, N. H.—Mr. and Mrs. Fortunat Giguere, parents of 12 children, 10 of whom are living, including five nuns, were honored at a reception by La Harmonie Club Inc. on their 15th anniversary. Mr. Giguere, who is 71 years old, is a former member of the City Council.

Publish Proceedings

Santa Fe, N. Mex.—Proceedings of the fourth annual educational conference of the Brothers of the Christian Schools, which was held at St. Michael's College here, have been published.

Rector of Shrine

Montreal.—The Rev. Arrien Leduc, C.S.C., has been named Rector of St. Joseph's Shrine, internationally-known shrine founded by the late Brother Andre.

WEDDINGS IN ELMIRA

MacFolgan - Galsmer
Miss Theresa Darcangelo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Darcangelo, 22 W. Church St., was united in marriage to Mr. MacFolgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. David W. MacFolgan, on Saturday, Feb. 20, at 10:30 a. m. at St. Patrick's Church by the Rev. William J. Tobin. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Betty Davis was bridesmaid. Lee MacFolgan was his brother's best man. Ushers were Jack E. MacFolgan, cousin of the bridegroom, and Edward Darcangelo, brother of the bride.

A breakfast was given at the Mark Twain Hotel for the immediate families. Later the couple left for a short wedding trip. On returning they will reside at 25 Gordon St., Corning.

The bride is a graduate of MacFolgan Academy, Rochester, and Elmira College. She is teaching in Corning. Mr. MacFolgan is a local Elmer school and is employed at the Niagara Plant.

Richard - Galsmer

Miss Helen Galsmer, 224 W. Erie St., daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Galsmer of this city, became the bride of George J. Richard, 21 East St., Thursday, Feb. 19, at St. Mary's Church, Corning. The Rev. Joseph L. Hogan officiated.

Mr. Richard's parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. William Richard of Elmira.

Miss Ralph J. Laver, 222 Hoffman St., attended the bride, and William J. Galsmer, 700 Cypress St., was best man.

Following a wedding breakfast in the Mark Twain Hotel, the couple left for New York City. They will reside at 25 Gordon St., Corning.

Waters - Sevelin

Miss Mary Agnes Sevelin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sevelin of Warren, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles A. Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Waters, on Saturday, Feb. 20, at 10:30 a. m. at St. Patrick's Church, Corning.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Sevelin, 224 W. Washington Ave. Her bridesmaid, Miss Patricia Waters, was given in marriage by Mr. Charles A. Waters, in the presence of Mrs. Helen Sevelin, 224 W. Washington Ave.

The maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Helen Sevelin, and her cousin, Miss Patricia Waters was bridesmaid. James E. Charles was best man. Ushers were Francis E. Kelly, Charles, and Carl Sevelin, 224 W. Washington Ave.

Fifty guests attended the wedding breakfast at the Mark Twain Hotel. The couple left for a trip to Corning, after which they will reside at 25 Gordon St., Corning.

Mr. Waters attended St. Joseph's School, and the Academy and Mount Union University. Her husband went to St. Charles' School and Niagara University.

Edwin Waters received his education at St. Charles' School, having completed a two-week training period at the New York State Agricultural Experiment Station in 1937.

BERGER MENS WEAR
OPEN FRIDAY and SATURDAY 10 P. M. - 2 A. M.

GEORGE BARR
AND HIS TRIO IN THE LOUNGE BAR of THE
Mark Twain Hotel
They're A Musical Treat!
AFTERNOONS and EVENINGS

Edgcomb's
MAIN ST.—ELMIRA
Half Price Days
CLIMAX TO THE FEBRUARY SALE
Now Comes the Famous Half-Price Days and Special Days of All—Many 1 and 2 of a kind Suits and Over Pieces to be Discontinued Reduced to Half Price for Quick Disposal.

What Is Your Home Asking For?
—an occasional table carefully placed for convenience and beauty... the graceful lines of an extra chair... a fine rug to improve your color scheme? A single item may convey this gracious effect you desire.
We offer you the security of quality, and of value, in a large stock that makes selection easy.
J. P. & M. Sullivan's
112-114 E. WATER ST.