

Corning Youth Answer Call To Nation's Service

MORNING Miss Dorothy Barr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Barr, 221 Washington St., has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the Nurses' Corps of the U. S. Army and is awaiting call to active duty.

Miss Barr, who is a graduate of St. Mary's School, Corning Free Academy and St. Joseph's Hospital Training School for Nurses in Buffalo, has been engaged in her profession at Corning Hospital for the past year.

John J. Hickey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy D. Hickey, 28 W. Fifth St., will report at Buffalo for active duty with the U. S. Army Air Corps on Feb. 25. He enlisted in the service in August, 1942.

Mr. Hickey is a graduate of St. Mary's School and Corning Free Academy.

James Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy, 228 E. Second St., reports for duty in the U. S. Army Air Corps at Buffalo, Thursday, Feb. 25. He then expects to go to Atlantic City, N. J., for basic training.

Mr. Kennedy, who is a graduate of St. Patrick's School and Corning Free Academy, was a freshman at St. Bonaventure's College. He enlisted in the service Dec. 12, 1942.

John Louis, son of Mrs. Georgiana Louis, 126 W. Erie Ave., who enlisted in the Marine Corps in August, 1942, has been promoted from private to private first class, according to word received by his mother.

Pfc. Louis, a paratrooper, was transferred recently from New River, N. C., to Camp Elliott, San Diego, Cal.

Thomas Crowley, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Crowley of Dodge Ave., left Wednesday for Washington where he is reported for active duty with the U. S. Army Air Corps.

A graduate of St. Patrick's school and Corning Free Academy is the class of 1942. Mr. Crowley has been assigned to the payroll department of Corning Glass Works.

Aviation Cadet John W. Griffin, son of F. A. Griffin, 108 W. First St., and the late Mrs. Griffin, is stationed at Santa-Monica, Tennessee, where he is training for a pilot.

Cadet Griffin, a graduate of St. Mary's School and Corning Free Academy, enlisted July 2, 1942. He received his preliminary training at Santa Ana, Calif., and recently completed his pre-flight course at Myers Field, Tennessee.

Second Lieut. Joseph A. Bowen has arrived safely overseas according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bowen, 241 Walnut St.

Lt. Bowen, who is now with a glider unit, received his commission in December, 1942. He is a graduate of St. Mary's School and Corning Free Academy and had completed two years at St. Bonaventure College when he entered the service in August.

Edwin Bowen, First Class, younger brother of Lt. Bowen, is stationed with the U. S. Navy somewhere in the Pacific.

DAILY ROSARY DEVOTIONS

By DOLORES HANRAHAN
HORNELL.—Rev. Andrew T. Dissett urged, at all Masses last Sunday that the parishioners of St. Ann's Church respond to the invitation to recite the Rosary each evening at the church. The public recitation of the Rosary, which is held every night at 7:30 o'clock, is for the welfare of the boys of the parish who are serving in the country's armed forces, and for the intention of a just and lasting peace.

Father Dissett read a letter from a soldier who explained the faith and courage which was inspired by knowing that his family and friends were kneeling together to recite the Most Holy Rosary.

Pre-Lenten Party

The Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Ann's Church held a successful pre-Lenten party last Monday evening in the Green Room of the Federation Building. About 40 members were present. Games and dancing were enjoyed during the evening, and refreshments were served by the committee in charge. Rev. Joseph D. Donovan, spiritual advisor of the Sodality, spoke on the aims and purpose of the organization. Later in the evening, gifts were exchanged in friendship between Miss Kathleen McCarthy, general chairman of the party and was assisted by a large committee.

Funeral Rites

Funeral services were held last Tuesday for Miss Dolis T. Ring, who died at her home on February 21.

Miss Ring, who had resided in Hornell for 11 years, is survived by three nieces, Mrs. William Burns of New York City, Mrs. William Gray and Miss Katherine Linehan of Hornell.
