The week. You are welcome to attend. There is no charge. Our National President's Message for March deserves wide publicity in these days when Planned Parenthood is sponsored by so many of our prominent citizens. She says: "Let us not be confused in our thinking. The laws of God are the same in times of war as they are in times of peace. ..."

"We are good citizens because we are good Catholics and as such we are deeply interested in the progress of our Nation. We resent any suggestion that our birthright be controlled or limited. ..."

"This is truly our war, Catholic mothers, we must align ourselves on the front line of defense; even though our hearts are bleeding for our own sons, we must courageously protect our Nation from the enemy within our gates—the enemy who would destroy the very civilization and democracy we all love. Let us instruct our daughters and daughters-in-law in the obligations that are demanded of them in their service to God and Country. ..."

"It would be wise to take our cause to St. Joseph, the Protector of the Holy Family. Without the family no nation can exist. Let us seek the aid of St. Joseph, guardian of every Catholic family." Margaret Maginnis, Angel (M.C.R.A.)
