

Organized Athletics Value Stressed As Club Honors De Sales High Athletics

By Edward Jennings

GENEVA—Letter men of De Sales High School basketball and football teams were honored at a dinner given by the St. Stephen's Club on Thursday, Feb. 26, at the parish house on South Main Street.

Guests were laid for 40 at dinner which was served at 7 o'clock. Present at the dinner were the school principal, Rev. Raymond F. Nolan, Rev. William H. McFadden, pastor of St. Stephen's Church, Rev. Daniel Proffer and Henry McDonald and Eugene Mahoney, De Sales High School coaches.

Navy Officer Agency. Guest speaker was Lieutenant Charles Briley (ig.) of the United States Naval Training Station at Sampson, N. Y. Lieutenant Briley is a graduate of Boston College and was for fourteen years a high school coach in New Hampshire before joining the Navy.

Lieutenant Briley spoke on the relationship of organized athletics to the war effort and on the effect of Catholicism and its relation to the young men of the present day.

Bernard Gorman was the recipient of an award as the most valuable player on the basketball team and award in sports made in the basketball and football leaders. Members of the sports and the girls cheer leaders were among the guests at the dinner.

Patrick Nolan, principal, spoke during the program, calling attention to the progress of young men, graduates of De Sales High School, who are now with the United States Armed Forces on the various battle fronts.

The program was closed with a paper by First Class Branch Paul A. Jennings of the United States Navy, a graduate of De Sales High School and a member of St. Stephen's Club who was reported missing in action in the Solomon Islands several months ago.

WEDDINGS IN GENEVA

Regan - Fahy

A lovely wedding of the season took place Tuesday morning at St. Francis de Sales Church at 10:30 o'clock when Miss Adelaide Helen Fahy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas K. Fahy, of Maxwell Avenue, was united in marriage to Avillion Cadet William James Regan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Regan of Hoffman Avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Magr. Walter J. Lee, V.F., pastor of the church.

Miss Louise Fahy, sister of the bride, was her attendant.

Raymond Regan, the bridegroom's father, was his best man and the ushers were Robert Welsh and Michael McDonald.

A reception for the immediate families was held at the Fahy residence on Castle Street after the wedding, spring flowers being used in the table bouquets. Attractive floral decorations were used throughout the rooms for the occasion.

After a wedding trip to New York, the bride and bridegroom will reside in New Haven, Conn., until he completes a course of study at Yale University and receives his commission in aviation.

The bride is a graduate of De Sales High School and attended Nazareth College in Rochester. She was graduated from William Smith College in the class of 1941. Aviation Cadet Regan is a graduate of De Sales High School and attended Catholic University in Washington, D. C.

Several pre-wedding events were given in honor of the bride.

Greg - O'Brien

At St. Francis de Sales rectory on Thursday morning, Feb. 25, at 10:30 o'clock, Miss Vera Einar Corvick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Corvick of St. Madison Street, became the bride of J. Edward Greg, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Greg, of 16 La Fayette Avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Valentine Jankovick.

James Eugene Greg of Geneva was his brother's best man.

After the wedding a breakfast and reception was held at the Maxwell residence on Castle Street. Later the bride and bridegroom left on a short wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside at 217 Main Street, Penn Yan.

Melmann - O'Brien

Mrs. Joseph O'Brien of 13 East North Street announces the marriage of her daughter, Adelaide, to Lawrence Melmann, of Cortland, on February 18th. The marriage was performed by Father Burns in Utica.

Attendants at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Oliver of Ithaca. The bride and bridegroom are employed at the Seneca Ordnance Depot and will reside in Ithaca.
