

21 To Armed Forces

Manchester, N. H. The Most Rev. John P. Fitzsimon, Bishop of Manchester, addressed the graduates of the armed forces and the United States Army and Navy...

Twenty-one of the graduates from St. Anselm's College here, it was announced that 21 of the graduates would go immediately into the armed forces...

Remarkable Cure of Nun Cited In Beatification Cause of Mother Seton

EMMITSBURG, Md.—The remarkable cure of a nun, whom members of the medical profession had agreed was dying of cancer of the pancreas, after members of her community had begun a novena in their prayers...

Everything Under the Sun FOR THE OFFICE EQUIPMENT, FURNITURE, STATIONERY AND A FINE LINE OF EXCELLENT TOILETARY GOODS. Heinrich - Seibold Stationery Co. 88 Exchange St. Main 2493

From Iceland

Rakon Lofsson, 21-year-old native of Reykjavik, capital of Iceland, who is studying for the priesthood at St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, Md., and so far as is known, is the only native of Iceland in the United States preparing for the priesthood...

IT'S THE FLAVOR THAT'S IN FAVOR! Old Copper Ale. ROCHESTER BREWING CO., INC. GLENWOOD 370

Conference On Oriental Rites And Liturgies To Be Held April 2-3

NEW YORK — The Fifth Annual Conference on Oriental Rites and Liturgies, sponsored by Fordham University, will be held at Fordham, April 2, in St. Patrick's Cathedral the following morning.

The Oriental Rites to be considered in the Melkite Rite, a subdivision of the great Byzantine Rite. The Old World dwelling places of the Melkites are Syria, Palestine, Egypt, Transjordan, and Tripoli in North Africa.

The Rev. Robert L. Ryan, S.J., professor of religion at Fordham University, is chairman of the Committee on Lectures, and the Rev. Thomas J. McMahon, professor of history and patrology at St. Joseph's Seminary, Yonkers, is chairman of the Committee on Liturgies.

Fordham Head To Give London Lenten Talks

LONDON. The Very Rev. Robert J. Gannon, S.J., president of Fordham University, New York, has accepted an invitation to deliver a series of Lenten sermons at Westminster Cathedral here, it has been announced.

The invitation to give the Cathedral sermon series was extended to Father Gannon by His Eminence Arthur Cardinal Hinsley, Archbishop of Westminster.

Cardinal O'Connell Gives Canteen To Red Cross

BOSTON.—His Eminence William Cardinal O'Connell, in a formal presentation ceremony, gave the Boston Metropolitan Chapter of the American Red Cross a modern mobile kitchen-canteen and imparted his blessing to the eight volunteers who will staff the vehicle.

Fr. Paul Blakely, 62, Noted Jesuit Writer, Dies In New York

NEW YORK.—The Rev. Paul Lendrum Blakely, S.J., associate editor of America since 1914 and recognized authority on the Constitution and the War Between the States, died Feb. 28, at St. Clare's Hospital here, at the age of 62 years.

Early in Father Blakely's journalistic career, he distinguished himself by the leading part he played in the charities investigations in New York around 1916. Thereafter he was looked upon as an authority of sociological questions and as a keen analyst of the economic situation.

In his 20 years as associate editor of America, the weekly review of opinion published by the American Association of the Society of Jesus, Father Blakely became notable for his signed articles, which numbered more than 1,100.

Open Fight On Barrier Against Colored

NEW YORK.—A resolution calling upon Catholic employers as well as leaders and members of labor unions "to make every effort to remove all existing barriers against the admission of colored workers in industry and in labor unions was adopted here at the eighth anniversary conference of the Catholic Interracial Council.

The noblest cheerfulness may be shown in silence, in the refusal to burden others with our cares.

Advertisement for McCurdy's shoes featuring illustrations of various styles: White Moccasin, Calf Moccasin, and Moccasin Gillie. Includes prices and age ranges for each style.

Let Them Walk the Road to Health in McCurdy's NATURA Shoes for Children

Today's children belong to the walking generation. They're saving tires and gas too, but it's up to grown-ups to save their feet! These are the years when it matters most.

Like many other famous shoes, Naturas are on sale exclusively at McCurdy's in Rochester.

SECOND FLOOR