Every and Mrs. Quady and Quady, March 7 of 7 o'clock in the church. They will be the celebration of the Mass, a talk by the Rev. Joseph L. Hogan of St. Mary's Church, and presentation of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Public Masses were formerly celebrated at St. Michael's Church, Park St.

After the services, Mrs. Edward Clapp, Mr. Paul Tate, Mrs. Helen Lawrence, and Mrs. Raymond Hunter will welcome those attending to a social hour in the church hall.

Like Army Life

Word has been reported from Father William O'Connell, C.S.B. He had joined the military in 1918 in June. Last summer he became Francis Hogan, captain of the Army Air Corps and is stationed at George Field, Md. Hogan, a member of the family of St. Patrick's, Elmira, was born in Elmira, N. Y., and was a member of the Navy at Norfolk.

Commission Won

Albert M. Hogan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo E. Hogan, 688 Walnut St., has received his commission as second lieutenant, having been graduated from the Artillery School at Camp Davis, N. C.

Lt. Hogan, who was born on a 14-day furlough until last Sunday, was a member of the Holy Name Society of St. Patrick's. He attended St. Patrick's grammar school and Catholic High. He will go to Fort Meade, Va. Lt. Hogan

ARCHBISHOP DEDICATES PARISH FOR NEGRO PEOPLE

WHELAN, Tenn.—(INC)—The Most Rev. Robert E. Lacey, Archbishop of San Antonio, solemnly blessed the second church in the Archdiocese of San Antonio, outside of the city of San Antonio, under the title of St. Mary's and dedicated it to the spiritual welfare of members of the colored race, here.

Archbishop Lacey congratulated the clergy and laity of St. Michael's parish for making possible the church for the colored population. Then, calling attention to the conflict, Archbishop Lacey asserted if the United States is to "carry the banner of democracy we must be democratic." He declared recognition of the equality of man is an essential basis of democracy and lasting peace and urged prayers "for peace in the hearts of men and among nations."
