Alaska Priest Joins
Juneau, Alaska.—Commissioned a first lieutenant in the Army chaplain corps, the Rev. P. Merrill Coleman, widely known and popular throughout Alaska, has left Ketchikan on a military mission and now is with troops "somewhere in Alaska." With his parents, Father Coleman visited Alaska first in 1926. Following his graduation from Manhattan College in New York, he studied for the priesthood at St. Augustine's Seminary, Toronto, and a month after his ordination in 1931, was assigned to Healy as an assistant pastor. He has been stationed in Alaska since.
