

Third Order Of St. Francis

The reception of new members will take place at the next meeting of the Third Order of St. Francis on Monday afternoon, Mar. 19, at 1:30 P. M. The place of meeting is St. Patrick's Church on Plymouth Avenue North.

New members should bring with them the card bearing name and address, adding the name of their parish and the name by which they wish to be known in religion. They should put themselves in the front pews and remain there until taken from them by the Master or Mistress of Novices.

At the April meeting there will be a Profession of all those who have completed a year's novitiate. All who are interested in the Third Order are invited to be present at either ceremony. Members of the Nocturnal Adoration Society would find themselves at home within the Franciscan fold. It is a haven, for those who at one time heard the call of a vocation but were unable to follow it. In the Third Order they will find a religious habit, a Rule, an Office, and a name in religion just like those of the Second and First Orders which comprise the Nuns and Friars of St. Francis. Many seminarians and secular priests find the Third Order a source of many graces. Our Holy Father, Pius XII is a Tertiarist.

The Rule of the Third Order requires that Tertiarists make prudent arrangements concerning their worldly affairs, including the making of a will. Since they have the privilege of being buried in the full Franciscan habit, it is wise to have the habit made and relatives instructed with regard to it.

Relatives should also be instructed to include in newspaper notices the fact that the deceased is a Tertiarist and to notify the Spiritual Adviser of the Order at St. Patrick's Rectory in order that the rosary may be said according to custom at 6 o'clock on the day preceding the funeral.

During Lent, when spiritual reading is especially important, Tertiarists as well as other Catholics are urged to make use of the really good selection of Catholic books at the Rochester Public Library. Ask to be directed to the shelves where books on religion are kept. If there is a demand for Catholic books more will be added.

Historians Elect

New York—James O'Garrin was re-elected President General of the American Irish Historical Society at a meeting of the executive council of the organization at the society headquarters here.

St. John the Evangelist's

PIPLS AND RED CROSS

Participation in shifting into high gear at St. John the Evangelist School, Brookville St., as the pupils seek to complete a special Red Cross project, folders, requested by Mrs. Henry W. Hays, who directs Junior Red Cross activities. The folders will have raised designs for Red Cross clothing made in Seattle to be sent to the front.

From the first to the eighth grade, the children at St. John's participate in Red Cross work. Over 2,000 items have just been packed and sent to headquarters constituting a special order from Mrs. Hays. This order consisted in 225 decorated toy cloths, 225 decorated napkins, 225 place cards and 225 designed, soap pads.

First and second grades have made over 75 checkbook books for the soldiers and refugees. Doll sets, games and sewing books totaling 225 have been completed for shut-ins and injured soldiers. The knitting units comprised of both boys and girls have completed 475 Afghan squares besides making one small Afghan complete.

Class room rivalry opens the 11 Junior Red Cross Units organized in the school as to accelerated work. With 100% enrollment competition is keen as workers watch for the coveted banner to be hung on their door for leading the school in the week's race for complete articles.

Aircraft Movie Listed For Musa

"Cannons on Wings," a Bell Aircraft motion picture, will be shown to members of Musa Caravan, Order of the Alhambra at the March meeting, Tuesday evening, Mar. 22, at Hotel Sagamore.

The movie will be in charge of Master of the Duffin Film—J. Bloomer. A short business session will be conducted by Grand Commander Norman A. O'Brien who will make an announcement on membership plans.
