

Catholic Hour Message

Evil Philosophies Must Be Destroyed To Insure World Peace, Asserts Msgr. Sheen

NEW YORK—Evil philosophies which have sprung from Nazism, Fascism and Communism must be wiped out if World War II is to be brought to a successful conclusion...

Woven against a general background of Our Lord's journey with Peter, James and John to the Garden of Gethsemane and His betrayal by Judas, the address, titled "Evil Has Its Hour"...

"Man is at war with his brother on the battlefields of the world because man has first warred with God on the battlefield of the soul," said Monsignor Sheen...

Is Sword Enough?

"Then let us ask ourselves: Will the sword be enough? If we think of war only as a physical combat as Peter did, we need to be aroused as he was by the Saviour...

Monsignor Sheen reminded that the Saviour in the Garden taunted "Peter's false confidence in the sword alone" when He asked: "Could you not watch one hour with Me?"...

"We ask all Americans," he said, "whether they be Jews, Protestants or Catholics, to set aside a Holy Hour a day that victory may be ours, and that through our victory we may have peace."

For Which We Stand

Monsignor Sheen continued: "How blind are those that say: What good will prayer do? That is what Peter thought as he slept alongside his armaments. One might just as well ask: What good will courage do? What good will faith in righteousness do? What good will belief in the Four Freedoms do?"...

"The soldiers who came into the Garden that night did not want Peter, James or John! They were let go. Caesar wanted only Christ. Our enemies, who are more numerous than we believe, seek to destroy the last vestiges of Christian civilization, so that they might, in the language of Nietzsche, so transvaluate values that evil from now on might be regarded as good and good be regarded as evil."

Recalling President Roosevelt's recent address in which he quoted the Sermon on the Mount and General MacArthur's communique in the full flush of battle in which he stated "A merciful Providence"

Ten Commandments Held Complete Guide For Adolescent Behaviour

NEW YORK—The Ten Commandments as a complete guide to behaviour for adolescents was emphasized at the National Conference of Social Work by Miss Dorothea F. Sullivan, director of group work at the National Catholic School of Social Service, Washington, D. C.

Addressing one of the group meetings at the Hotel Pennsylvania on the needs of adolescent girls under wartime strains, Miss Sullivan said admonitions to youth should be reduced to a few important precepts.

has granted as a great victory," Monsignor Sheen said indignantly are that "America is recognizing that 12 hours is not evil that only by living according to God's law and love can we overcome it."

He stressed that we must realize "the fact that we live in an evil hour and that hour must be spent watching and praying to defeat evil and insure victory and peace."

200 Bootblacks, Newsboys At Altar Rail In Mexico

MEXICO CITY, (UPI)—The Rev. Episcopo Gillet, O.M.I., was his missionary activities among newsboys, bootblacks and shoeshine who collect and sell newspapers, crowded with success when 200 of them received Holy Communion and the altar in the group was lighted. The Church of San Hipolito is the center for this special mission.

After Mass the youths branched together. They were well scrubbed for the occasion and wore clean shirts and new overalls.

Lithuanian Prelate Hits Nazi Cooperation

LONDON—The London "Times" carries the information that the Metropolitan of Kaunas, Lithuania, His Excellency, Archbishop Skvireckas, preached a stinging sermon in the church at Ignace.

In this talk, he threatened excommunication to all those Catholics who would stain their hands with the blood of innocent Jews and Polish descendants. This century of excommunication embraces also those lower officials under the Nazi regime who would aid in deporting Lithuanians to Germany to serve as forced labor in the workshops of Nazi-Soviet.

Those individuals, who would plunder and piller the homes, farms, and possessions of the persons so forced into labor, are liable to excommunication. Therefore, the Metropolitan stated, any Catholic guilty of one of the foregoing crimes would be excommunicated by the Church.

Award Maritain Mark Twain Medal

WEBSTER GROVER, Mo.—Jacques Maritain, internationally famous Catholic author and philosopher, has been awarded the Mark Twain Gold Medal for 1943 in recognition of his outstanding contribution to modern thought. It has been announced by Cyril Clements, president of the International Mark Twain Society, here.

Previous recipients of the award have been President Franklin D. Roosevelt, Rudyard Kipling, Hilary Bellet, John Massfield, James M. Barrie and Alfred Noyes.

Australia is slightly smaller than continental United States. Catholics number approximately 1,500,000—or roughly one-fifth of the total population, 7,616,448.

NAZI CIVIL REGULATION UNDER EXEMPTS CLERGY

VATICAN CITY—A novel German communication regarding more drastic civil regulations, which commenced in the German Reich, contains an exemption of clergy and certain other categories.

The regulations are not retroactive. By the way—NUT WAR HOURS

Urges Compulsory Education

QUEBEC—Taking the 100th anniversary of the birth of the late Cardinal of the Holy See, the Catholic Commission of the Council of Public Instruction of Quebec has urged compulsory education in the Province and Father Minister Adolphe Gauthier has announced plans for the necessary legislation will be introduced at the present legislative session.

of the history of the Holy See and a number of other things that should be known by every citizen of the Province. It is the hope of the Commission that these things will be read and understood by every citizen of the Province. It is the hope of the Commission that these things will be read and understood by every citizen of the Province.

Advertisement for Old Ranger Premium Beer. Features a silhouette of a man holding a glass of beer. Text includes: 'OLD RANGER PREMIUM BEER', 'A Master Product by the Brewers of HORNELL, N.Y. and K.K.K. CREAM ALE'.

Advertisement for East Side Savings Bank. Features a large illustration of a man in a suit. Text includes: 'MODERNIZE your Mortgage Loan ...and save money', 'This Bank is Open Monday Nights from 6:00 to 8 p.m.', 'Is your mortgage loan the old-fashioned kind that never gets smaller? Then modernize it now!', 'EAST SIDE Savings BANK CORNER MAH & CLINTON In the Heart of the Shopping District'.