Novena Inaugurated In Army Camps

CHICAGO.—The Novena to Our Sorrowful Mother was introduced into nine more Catholic churches and army camps in this country on Friday, Mar. 12, according to an announcement from the Rev. Terence A. Beery, C.S.M., Novena national director.

These openings of the impressive Novena services constitute the largest number of new installations on one Friday in more than a year, Father Beery announced. The war has given fresh impetus to the famous world-wide Novena, the Novena director pointed out.

The Novena, sponsored by the Servite Fathers, originated the Hemispheric Crusade of prayer dedicated to the winning of the war in 1942. Before the Crusade was started Friday, Mar. 12, statistics showed the Novena is attended by 1,000,000 each week in 1,132 churches in this country. The Novena is also in 165 churches in 28 foreign countries.

The churches in which the Novena will be introduced Friday are: St. Francis de Paula, San Diego, Texas; St. Joseph's, Alice, Texas; St. Rose of Lima, Rockridge, Texas, and the Mother of Sorrows Church, Rochester, N. Y.

The new camp openings are: Fort Douglas; Army Air Force Flying School, Phoenix, Ariz.; Army Air Force School, Sweetwater, Texas; Williams Field, Chandler, Ariz., and Higgs Field, Fla.

The Novena is now conducted in 21 army camps and Navy stations, according to the National director.

During the six years of the Novena's existence, it has been attended by 140,726,897 persons.

Poet Thrills In Culture Lecture On Jesuit Martyrs

DETROIT—Dr. E. J. Pratt, Canadian called "North America's greatest narrative poet, whose three books of his "Dreamers of Dreams" and "The Fable of the Goats" have won Governor General's Medal for Poetry," whose Dec. 6th, 1940 narrative poem of 50 pages "Brebeuf and His Brethren" has already received eight Canadian editions and is heralded as unique in the Anglo-American edition of a dramatic epic poem of the most thrilling heroism in the whole story of the Christian Culture Builder in Canada, at Cadieux Cafe Auditorium, Monday night, March 15, speaking on "The North American Martyrs."

"St. John Brebeuf is my favorite saint, and I want the whole world to honor him and his companions," said Dr. Pratt, who is professor at Victoria College, Toronto, and a non-Catholic.

"Nothing in North American early history parallels the sublime courage and bravery of these spiritual and holy martyrs." "Brebeuf's letter to Tyrany asking for more missionaries and prophetically delineating the conditions in America known at once as the greatest letters in all history."

"The martyrs surpassed the Indians at their own game, refusing to whimper . . . Brebeuf astounded them . . . they could not discover the supernatural source of his courage . . ." "Cruelty hardly exists amongst the animals; it is an almost purely human degradation and enjoyment."

Eulogistically eccentric, perfect in accuracy, "Brebeuf and His Brethren" has been called by famous and Catholic poets of America and Europe.

Dr. Pratt received an honorary Doctor of Letters degree from Queen's University in Kingston, Ont., in 1937.

Notre Dame Student Work Plan Aids War Industries and Farms

SOUTH BEND, Ind.—With all of the University of Notre Dame students pledged to the Victory Corps and with many of the undergraduates already engaged in farm and war industry work, Notre Dame officials announced that they are prepared to do their bit as vital wheat shortages in South Bend war industries.

Promoted by The Scholastic, student weekly, the plan already has gained some prominence in pre-season hockey polls and promises to have every student, with few minor exceptions, available for war work. A program is being worked out to have undergraduates work on week-by-week farms this spring.
