State-Wide Campaign For Chaplains To Be Testimonial To Bishop

Following a special Chaplains Aid call for additional funds from New York State Council, Knights of Columbus, Rochester Council, opened its campaign Thursday evening at Columbus Civic Centre in support of a message from His Excellency Bishop Kearney, State Chaplain.

From Hugh A. Doyle, state deputy, was made an appeal to each Council in the state to provide additional funds for Mass Kits for our army and navy chaplains during April. The Rochester Council campaign has been put in the hands of Frank M. Descaire, chairman, by Grand Knight Thomas H. O'Connor.

Funds raised in this campaign will be in addition to the $5,000 donation, this year of the State Council provided through the per capita fund assessment.

The need for funds for Mass Kits and other religious necessities of the chaplains was stressed by Bishop Kearney who spoke of the excellent record being made by St. Bernard's Seminary students.

His father, General William F. Arnold, chief of chaplains, told the Bishop that the chaplain graduates of St. Bernard's record in service "make me feel prouder every day to have seen an alumnus of St. Bernard's." The Bishop said that Rochester diocese stands prominently ahead of any diocese in the number of priests in the service. The number has already reached 26 and the Bishop said many more were waiting to go when the present class at St. Bernard's is graduated.

Chairman Descaire outlined the purpose of the Chaplains Aid campaign and announced that the State Council would turn the money over to Bishop Kearney as a testimonial for his extensive service as State Chaplain. Bishop Kearney will present the total amount realized to Bishop John F. O'Hara, C.S.C., Military Delegate on the first Sunday in May.

In connection with the launching of the Chaplains Aid campaign, came the announcement that Rochester Council will also participate in the Supreme Council's $25,000,000 War Bond Campaign during Founders' Month, Mar. 29 - Apr. 28. Treasurer Leo P. Romhaut is chairman of the Rochester campaign.

Extending the late Rev. Michael J. McAvoy and the other founders of the Knights of Columbus, Bishop Kearney called upon Rochester Knights to emulate their example and to work for overexceeding the quota set for Rochester. The Bishop paid tribute to Rochester Fourth Degree Assembly for pinning in war bond sales in this area with Master Cyril J. Stat of the Fifth District directing the sale.

War Activities of the State Council in this diocese are under the direction of Past Grand Knight Joseph P. Flynn who is vice-chairman of the State organization. He urged his own council to lead in the activities.

The dinner last Thursday was in the nature of a St. Patrick's Day celebration and Irish music was provided by John T. Moore and Arthur Melville with Paul A. Friedman leading group singing. Brief messages were heard from the Rev. Raymond G. Hebel, council chaplain, and the Rev. Joseph E. Vogt, Director, Social Action Division, Rochester Catholic Charities. Grand Knight O'Connor was toastmaster. John A. Gorman was chairman of the dinner.

Special guests of honor were Chiefs John Mullane and Bart McFarland who came from Sampson Naval Training Station. Chief Mullane is past deputy grand of Chelsea, Mass., council, K. of C.

Aquinas To Have Baseball Nine

A baseball team will again represent Aquinas Institute after many years lapsed. It is announced in Maroon and White, student publication, out this week. Competition, the paper announces, will be with the city's public high schools.

SODAL TALK

The long talk about poster contest was brought to a close on Monday evening, Mar. 22. Miss Rita Rich of Holy Ghost Sodality was first prize for her poster on vocations. The entries were judged for originality and neatness. Many Sodality members submitted posters and the contest was considered a great success.

Who says the Sodality can't turn out a good crowd? Last Thursday, Eddie's Kaiter Palace was the scene of the biggest gathering since the opening Sodality will not soon forget the skating party on Mar. 18. Proceeds will be used for the benefit of the Union.

St. Patrick's Sodality really celebrated the feast of their patron saint. On Sunday afternoon, Mar. 21, these Sodality members held a tea to which all members of the Union were invited. Miss Frances Grande, Chairman, was responsible for the very enjoyable time which Sodality will long remember.

Following the suggestion of the Queen's Work, St. Francis (sister) will sponsor a drive during the month of April for members over 15 years of age. This is a plan to teach girls beyond the high school age who used the Sodality very much.

Those who attended Union meeting on Monday evening heard a very inspiring talk by Lieut. Brian Kraft of the W.A.A.C. Lieutenant Kraft explained the regulations and routine of the corps. While most of the Sodality are not within the age limit, Lieutenant Kraft hoped to reach the older members of the families who might be interested.

A second guest speaker left very vivid memories with the Sodality Union. Most Rev. Emmett Walsh, D.D., Bishop of Charleston, S. C., impressed on the minds of all the importance of the youth of today. He reminded them that the Sodality of today will decide the future of the Catholic Church.

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Sodality is really going strong. The members of this group comprise a Living Mass throughout Lent, i. e., at least one member attends Mass and receives Holy Communion each morning. Can you think of a better means to keep up the morale of the world?

Holy Family has recently given two more Sodality to Uncle Sam. Ray Nou and William Sauer left last Friday for the Navy and Army, respectively.

At Holy Family's last meeting, Rev. Lawrence B. Casey spoke on vocations. This is one of many groups in the city which celebrated vocation week. Francis St. John, Seaman 2nd Class, a former Sodality, also spoke at the meeting and recounted his experiences in the Navy.

Sacred Heart Sodality celebrated three happy occasions at their monthly meeting held recently. They were Father Sullivan's birthday, feast day and his 3rd anniversary with the Sodality. The singing of "Happy Birthday," a large cake decorated with green and the presentation of a gift highlighted the surprise party.

CONNELLY COMMISSIONED AS ADJT. GENERAL'S SCHOOL

FORT WASHINGTON, Md. - Peter J. Connelly, Jr., of 994 No. Goodman St., Rochester, N. Y., has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the Army of the United States after successfully completing a course of training at the Adjutant General's School here.

His letter of appointment was handed to him by Brigadier General H. C. Holdridge, commandant of the school and Director of Schools Training of the Army Administration Schools, at the graduation exercises of Class 13.

Lieutenant Connelly was one of a selected group of enlisted men drawn from virtually all arms and branches of the service and designated to attend the Officer Candidate School. During the twelve weeks' intensive course he received training in the executive and administrative functions of the nation's largest business, the Army of the United States.

When trouble or sorrow comes to the humble man he bears it patiently, remembering that "whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth."

Miss Peggy Walsh was elected chairman of the Communion Breakfast to be held sometime in April. Miss Mary Catherine May will act as co-chairman.

Father Roy Morphy, diocesan director of the Sodality Union, was guest speaker and he held the Sodality's undivided attention not only with his famous jokes but also with his very excellent ideas and helpful suggestions on "Vocations."

Nazareth Leads In Catholic Inter-High Basketball

March 18 closed an exciting and thrilling season of victories and defeats in basketball games among Rochester's three outstanding Catholic High Schools. In the final game between Nazareth and Sacred Heart, Nazareth scored 40 Sacred Heart's 31 points. This game made the Nazareth the champions, put Mercy in the second place and Sacred Heart in third place.

Two home games were played by each team. Besides this, each team met its opponent in the opponents' court. The final checkup of these games shows:

Team	W	L
Nazareth	4	2
Mercy	3	3
Sacred Heart	1	4

In this series Nazareth suffered just one loss and that to Mercy on March 4. Besides this, Nazareth has been victorious in her two games with Mercy and in her one with H. I. The Nazareth team has moved into first place through the splendid coaching of Miss Josephine Ehme, physical education teacher at Nazareth Academy.

The basketball fans of the three schools mourn the close of the season, thrills, nervous tension, good sportsmanship have made the '42-
