ST. ALPHONSUS, Auburn

SCHOOL PATRIOTIC PROGRAM

AUBURN—St. Alphonsus dedicated Tuesday to Uncle Sam, for on that day a patriotic program was held in the School Building and the teachers, pupils and priests of the parish participated in this War Activity Program. The feature of the program was the solemn blessing and presentation of a large war flag and banner to the school by the pastor, Rev. Frederick G. Straub who had words befitting the occasion and praise for the efforts of the pupils. Also assisting Father Straub in the program were his three assistants, Rev. Gerrard Amann, Rev. Gerhard Gefell and Rev. John Merklinger. Sister Francis Joseph is principal of the school.

The pupils of St. Alphonsus School have participated 100 per cent in the War Bond and War Stamps campaign, and other activities of the War Program, such as Red Cross, first aid and salvage. Since Jan. 1, 1943, the pupils of St. Alphonsus School have purchased $880 worth of War Bonds and $475 worth of War Stamps for a grand total of $1,325. Jean Sailer an Eighth Grade student, was the leader in the War Bond Campaign. Other pupils taking leading parts in the campaign were Christine Casper and George Murphy of the Eighth Grade and Betty Scolaro and William Madeon of the Seventh Grade. These five students represented St. Alphonsus School at the big War Bond rally held Mar. 6 in the Eastman Theatre, Rochester, and which was sponsored by the high and parochial schools in the Catholic Diocese of Rochester.

Following the blessing of the war flag and banner the children sang "The Star Spangled Banner," "America," "God Bless America" and "Jolly Molly Pitcher," a new patriotic and war song and various other songs.

LENTEN DEVOTIONS

Lenten Devotions are held on Wednesday and Fridays at 7:30 o'clock; the Sunday Prayer Hour is at 3:00 o'clock, and the Novena of the Miraculous Medal is held on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Masses are celebrated each morning during Lent at 7:00, 7:30 and 8:30 o'clock.

Lent is intended to be the renewal of Christian life, and is the Church's forty-day retreat. For this reason, animated by the spirit of God, we go with Christ into a mystical solitude to fast with Him, and this without leaving our everyday occupations. By fasting, the Church understands not only the abstaining from food and drink to a certain extent; she includes in it all actions that might serve us in the renewal of the Christ-life within our souls. St. Benedict says: "During these Lenten days we should very carefully keep our lives pure, and at the same time atone for the shortcomings of other times . . . should busy ourselves with fervent prayer, spiritual reading, contrition of heart and self-denial; bring sacrifices freely and beyond our usual obligation to our loving God in the joy of the Holy Spirit; and thus, while we abstain from food and drink, from sleep, talking and gossip, we await the holy Feast of Easter with a joy and desire that the Spirit of God awakens in us."

SPEAKS ON 'FAMINE'

Rev. Benedict Monnes is the guest speaker on the Rochester Catholic Hour during the Lenten Season. He is speaking on the Study Club pamphlet, "Our Father, the Home of God and Gate of Heaven."
