GOOD FRIDAY SERMONS

GENEVA—Dr. Maynard Connell, professor of English literature at St. Bernard's Seminary in Rochester is delivering a series of Lenten addresses at St. Stephen's Church. He will also be the speaker at the Good Friday services.

The program for rest of the series is as follows: March 30, "Three Foes of the Family"; April 6, "Temple of God"; April 13, "A Living Faith"; April 20, "Queen of Many Swords". On Good Friday, Dr. Connell will speak at the afternoon service.

Presentation

Two turtle doves, the gift of the poor. A lamb from the rich, they said. But Mary's gift was the best, I'm sure. Two Doves and a Lamb—three hearts that bleed. Meek dove of the heart of Joseph. Dove heart of the Mother blest. Who folded the little Lamb of God. Low bleating against her breast! —St. Agnes Vincent, S.S.J. 12 Seminary Ave., Auburn, N. Y.

He is "The German from the Cross" and Good Friday evening, his subject will be "What the Angels Saw".

Chance Meeting in Africa Brings Two Ukrainian Club Officers Together

AUBURN—Cpl. Mike Cymbak and Pvt. Pete Winarchik, two Auburn boys, now in the service, who have not seen each other for over a year, met while they were sightseeing in a small town in Africa.

The corporal and the private were both officers of the Ukrainian National Club in Auburn. Corporal Cymbak, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cymbak of 63 Grant Street, had been away from home for a year. Private Winarchik entered the service only last December and he apparently left for foreign parts after completing his training in America. In letter to their parents in Auburn the soldiers told of the chance meeting in Africa and also said they met Edward Bodnar, Mike Marmar, Joe Tyhanic and Pete LaFay, all members of the Ukrainian Club in Auburn.
