A Bedspread from Old Sheets

Any pretty flowered print may be combined with the side strips of sheets that are good after the center part has worn out. A good section may be cut from the center bottom too. The diagram at the left gives all the dimensions you need for making a spread for a double bed from the good parts.

material of about the same weight.

Here, the figured goods is in a pink and white pattern that is especially effective with the white muslin. It is also used to trim the curtains made from old sheets. Another interesting color note is the mats of the pink and white material used for the row of framed photographs over the bed. It also edges the full white lamp shades.

AIDS SYNTHETIC RUBBER RESEARCH

Sister Mary Thomas, of the Sisters of St. Joseph, pictured in the laboratory of the Catholic University of America where she is working under the direction of Dr. Francis Owen Rice, head of the chemistry department, in research to perfect the synthetic rubber process. Sister Thomas is professor of chemistry at the College of Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, and like many other chemists throughout the country, is doing her bit for Uncle Sam by helping to solve this research problem. (N.C.W.C.)

ROCHESTER DIOCESAN COUNCIL

National Council of Catholic Women

Offices—Catholic Evidence Library
Main Floor—Columbus Civic Centre

WHAT IT IS:

Section 1. Men and women shall have equal rights throughout the United States and every place subject to its jurisdiction.

Section 2. Congress shall have the power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

WHO SPONSOR IT:

The National Woman's Party and other feminist groups and individuals.

WHO OPPOSE IT:

The National Council of Catholic Women.

The great national organizations of Catholic Women.

National Women's Trade Union League of America.

National League of Women Voters.

American Association of University Women.

National Council of Jewish Women, and

National Consumers' League.

REASONS FOR OPPOSITION:

The sponsors of the amendment ask that men and women be treated equally, or identically in the eyes of the law; but men and women were not created identically.

The amendment is but one phase of a whole movement tending toward the breakdown of the family. Theoretically, the Amendment would establish equality in family headship, a condition which would tend to disintegrate the family.

The amendment would invade State's rights. See Sec. 2. Ordinarily, laws governing marriage, the family, education, etc., are left to the individual states.
These laws, as well as all laws affecting men and women would then become the concern of the Federal Government, thus increasing an ever growing federalization.

Where there are inequalities within the state, these may and should be remedied through state legislation, not through an unnecessary change in the Constitution.

The Amendment itself is confusing in its application. See Sec. 1.
This could mean the repeal of all state legislation relating to men or women. Must the standards of California apply in Florida or vice-versa? Which standards shall be accepted — those that are high or those that are low? Certainly the legislation of confusion, because no state would know whether its laws or those of another state would be accepted ones, depending upon test cases in the Federal Court.

POACHED FISH

1. Poached fish is often known as boiled fish. Actually, the water in which fish is cooked should never be allowed to boil, as the texture is destroyed and flavor is lost by boiling.

2. Season water in which fish is cooked with salt, pepper and 1 T vinegar for each 2 quarts of water.

3.—A thick steak large enough to serve number required is usually selected. Salmon, halibut and cod are suitable for poaching.

4.—Place fish in strainer, wire basket or wrap in cheesecloth.
Simmer 10-15 minutes per pound.
Serve with any one of the following sauces:

Sauces for Fish
1.—Speedy Hollandaise. Heat 1 c salad dressing (not mayonnaise) and 2 T lemon juice in double boiler for 10 minutes.

2.—Medium White Sauce. For 1 c sauce use: 2 T flour, ½ t salt, 2 T butter, or margarine, 1 c milk.
Melt butter add flour and salt, and stir until well blended, remove from heat; pour on cold milk gradually, stirring constantly; heat until mixture thickens and boils.
Vary this sauce as follows:

(1)—1 T minced parsley and 1 T lemon juice, or (2)—1 chopped hard cooked eggs and 1 T minced celery, or (3)—1 T chopped nuts and 1 T chopped olives.

Lift Other's Gloom

The best cure for worry and depression, melancholy, brooding, is to go forth deliberately and try to lift with one's sympathy, the gloom of somebody else. And let both those who can and those who can't do good works make a practice of benevolent thought. Let them think kindly of others; never criticize them; never condemn, never judge; on the contrary, let them seek to comprehend, seek to put themselves in the place of others. This mental attitude has to be perseveringly cultivated. It cannot be adopted by mere good
