

Flays Nazi Claims Of Anti-Red Crusade

OTTAWA — Speaking over the French network of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, the Very Rev. Arthur Curon, O.M.I., Vice-Rector of the University of Ottawa, said there was no reason for Catholics to be troubled about the fact that they are fighting as allies of Soviet Russia and warned against the Nazi propaganda which sought to make believe that the Axis is engaged in an anti-Communist crusade.

"The war, which Hitler's Germany is waging against Russia is not a crusade," he said. "It is a non-disguised aggression against a country rich in its soil and its resources, which the powers of prey covet as a prize of great value."

"For us Catholics... we have an obligation to pray for our brothers in arms, who over there under the northern skies or on the snowy steppes of the Ukraine are fighting and dying for a just cause which is common to us. We must ask God that this great religious and racial people, with a millenium of Christian lies, at last purified in their sorrow, made wise through the lessons of experience and history, may find again the principles of human social equilibrium and the paths of Catholic unity for their salvation, for the

Costa Rica's Head Visits Shrine

MEXICO CITY — During his visit to this Capital, President Rafael Calderon Guardia of Costa Rica informed the Most Rev. Luis M. Martinez, Archbishop of Mexico, of his great pleasure in visiting the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe. He also told the Mexican Primate that the Virgin of Tepeyac is the object of special devotion in a Costa Rican town named Guadalupe.

Catholic Flier Wins Second Hero Award

ST. AUGUSTINE—First Lieut. Charles Gard Oliveros of the Army Air Corps, a University of Notre Dame alumnus, has won his second award for heroism in the North Africa war theater. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Gard Oliveros, of this city, were notified he was awarded the Oak Leaf Cluster for extraordinary achievement in aerial activity.

Co-pilot of a bombing plane, he held his wounded companion off the controls with one hand, while he took the plane on the bomb run and flew it back to base when the mission was completed. Previously he had been awarded the Air Medal.
