ST. ANDREW'S PARISH

Lenten Devotions Continue

During the Lenten season, Tuesday night Novena services will be held on Wednesday night, which will be followed by the Stations of the Cross. On Friday afternoons at 3:30, there will be Stations of the Cross for the children and adults who find it impossible to attend in the evening. Friday evening at 7:45 will be the recitation of the Rosary, served by our Most Rev. Bishop Kearney and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Sunday afternoon at 3:00 will be Stations of the Cross. These devotions will give everyone a chance to attend some Lenten service. There was a remarkable increase in the services last Friday night and our Pastor urges every one to keep up the good attendance in as much as we are honored by having our Beloved Bishop as guest speaker. There will be no services Tuesday evenings.

ROSAERY MEETING

On Sunday, April 4, the Rosary Society will receive Holy Communion at the 8:00 Mass. Owing to the fact that our membership has increased, a large attendance is expected.

PAMPHLET BACK

We wish to call the attention of our people to the many new pamphlets, which have been placed in the rack in the back of the Church. We feel confident every one will find some particular book there to have in the home as good reading and instructive as well, especially the copy entitled "Our Parish," which is the topic of many of our discussion clubs.

RED CROSS WORK

Every Thursday from 1:00 to 4:00, the Red Cross group are busy making bandages and clothing. Any one interested and would like to help is invited to come. Meetings are in the Church basement.

LEISURE BOWLING PARTY

On Sunday evening, April 4, the young ladies will again hold a bowling party at St. Michael's. Admission 50c.

CONFESSIONS

Every Saturday morning from 11:00 to 12:30 a. m., confessions are heard for all defense workers, who find it inconvenient to come at another time. We request our workers to take advantage of this invitation.

Auburn Girls Advance in WAAC and WAVES

AUBURN: Auxiliary Virginia M. Kraus, WAAC, has completed her basic training in that branch of the service and now is in the officers training school at Daytona Beach, Fla. Auxiliary Kraus, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Kraus, was sworn into the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps early in February.

Miss Jane E. Casey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Casey, Second Avenue, is enrolled in the U. S.

Wins Third Award

WASHINGTON: Col. James H. Wallace of the Army Air Corps, who has twice received the Distinguished Flying Cross, has been awarded the Oak Leaf Cluster, according to advices received here from London. An alumnus of Catholic University of America, Colonel Wallace is a native of this city.

PRAYER LEAFLETS

New York—More than 2,000,000 copies of prayer leaflets have been prepared under the direction of the Rev. Edward F. Garesche, S.J., founder and director of the American Catholic Mission Board, and sent to chaplains for distribution to men in the armed forces in all theaters of the globe.

Naval Training School for WAVES radio operators on the Campus of the University of Wisconsin at Madison. She has completed a five-week indoctrination course at Iowa State Teachers' College, Cedar Falls, Ia., where through a series of aptitude tests she was selected to become a radio operator.

Miss Casey is twenty years old and was formerly a switchboard operator. She will receive 16 weeks of training at Madison in sending and receiving messages in International code.

Upon graduation, she may be promoted to a petty-officer rating and be assigned to duty at a Naval shore station in the U. S.

Wordsworth Manuscript Given To College

NEW YORK—A signed manuscript of William Wordsworth's poem to his daughter, "Stanzas sent to a Girl of Thirteen on the Morning After the Longest Day. Having been Composed On the Preceding Evening," has been presented to Brother A. Victor, President of Manhattan College, by Christian A. Zaborski of this city. It has been put into the rare book collection of Cardinal Hayes Library, the Manhattan College Library.
