Strict Law Passed To Ban Evil Books, Films

COLUMBUS, O.—Legislation designed to strengthen present laws prohibiting the publishing, display and distribution of obscene literature and indecent motion pictures, unanimously passed the Ohio State Senate and has been sent to the House for action. The bill was sponsored by Senator Junius P. Griffith, of Muskingum County.

Under terms of the bill, the maximum penalty upon conviction, which had been a $50 fine, was raised to seven years' imprisonment and the minimum penalty was fixed at a $500 fine.

The bill also makes it obligatory upon magistrates to issue search warrants upon a request supported by an affidavit and places remote outlying districts, which have no local law enforcement agency, under jurisdiction of county courts. The measure also strikes at the bootlegging and racket pictures.

Senator Griffith, urging passage of the bill, said it was designed to combat juvenile delinquency and to correct abuses around Army camps.

FILM OF PARIS CATHEDRAL PRAISED BY SECULAR PRESS

NEW YORK—The secular press here has been unanimous in its praise of the documentary film, "Our Lady of Paris," a pictorial record of Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris which has been held over for a second week at the Little Carnegie Playhouse.

The Rev. Robert W. Gardner, of the Catholic Foreign Mission Society, Maryknoll, wrote the narrative and his voice is heard as the narrator. No living person appears in the film which runs for fifty minutes.

Maryknoll

About to leave for Maryknoll missions in the other Americas, Father Donald Cleary, M. M., of Newark, N. J., gives his farewell blessing to his brother, Pvt. Raymond Cleary, now in the Army Air Corps. Twenty newly-ordained priests left Maryknoll, N. Y., in the third Latin American Departure ceremonies there this year. Father Cleary is an alumnus of St. Peter, Penn. (N.C.W.C.).

Language is only the instrument of science, and words are but the signs of ideas.

Catholic Hour Message

Human Wisdom Alone Cannot Solve Peace Problems To Come, Avers Msgr. Sheen

NEW YORK—"The problems the world will face in shaping the peace that is to follow the war are difficult and chaotic," human wisdom and strength will not be enough to solve them keenly and justly," the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen, of the Catholic University of America, declared in a radio address on the Catholic Hour broadcast by a nation-wide network over the National Broadcasting Co. on the general theme "The Crisis in Christendom."

Discusses Jesus' History

Declaring that history affords many examples of the judgment of God, Monsignor Sheen pointed out how Augustus, the ruler of Jerusalem and Rome, and Pilate "lost their vision of judgment in our own national life."

Speaking of Thomas Jefferson, who wrote, "All men are created equal," yet himself kept slaves, Monsignor Sheen said:

"Recognizing, however, the inconsistency and knowing that the ideal of some man was in his own time being nullified by other men, hearing they were divided equally, he expressed his fear in these words: 'I trembled at my country, when I reflect that God is just and that His justice does not sleep forever.' It was a surprising identical to that which Peter used against Rome. And well might Jefferson be concerned, for any nation which spills blood, either its own or another's, will have the sum poured forth in reparation. We know well when the injustice was righted and the judgment came.

"One man was great enough to see in the Civil War, a manifestation of the Justice of God: Abraham Lincoln. 'If it be the duty of nations as well as of men,' he said, 'to own their dependence upon the overruling power of God; to confess their sins and transgressions in humble manner, yet with an
