ST. MONICA'S PARISH

600 Women At Communion

The Rosary Society of St. Monica's Church held its annual Communion breakfast in St. Monica's Hall on Sunday, March 29 with 600 women in attendance. Miss Augusta Peters, a Red Cross Nurse, now connected with our local Red Cross, who has had 16 years of experience in Japan and was in Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941, was guest speaker for the occasion. Her theme particularly was the hospital care given the wounded during the bombing.

A gift of a 12-lb. ham donated by Elmer Huss was made and a collection taken up in recognition of the donation, amounting to $76.24, which was presented to the Red Cross.

FORTY HOURS
Forty hours devotion at St. Monica's starts Sunday, April 5 at 11:00 Mass. The sermon Sunday evening will be preached by Rev.

Raymond Heisel and Monday evening by Rev. Bernard Cleary. Closing procession of Forty Hours will be held Tuesday evening.

ROSARY MEETING

Rosary Society will hold its regular monthly meeting in the hall on Friday evening after the church services.

RED CROSS SEWING

Red Cross sewing groups meet on Tuesday afternoon and Friday evening of each week. Volunteers of this work will be welcome at either session.

LIBY MARINE VETERAN

The meeting of the Holy Name Society advances one week and will therefore be held on Tuesday, April 6 after Church services. Jack Shaughnessy, a member of the Parish will address the meeting. Mr. Shaughnessy saw service on Guadalcanal as a Marine and has been home on sick leave, convalescing from wounds received in the battle of Guadalcanal.

Army Emergency Relief Aids Dependents Of Soldiers

In keeping with the Army tradition that the soldier on the fighting front should not be handicapped by worries regarding the home front, Colonel John M. McDowell announced today that the Army Emergency Relief office at District No. 4, Second Service Command, 1038 Mercantile Building, 23 North St. is fully prepared to assist dependents of soldiers residing in Monroe, Livingston, Steuben, Allegany, Wyoming and Genesee counties.

Army Emergency Relief was organized to meet the emergency relief needs of the wives, parents, children, or close relatives of Army men who previously contributed to their support. After careful investigation shows the case to be worthy, the relief may take the form of cash grants, loans or other aids.

Typical needs for Army Emergency Relief assistance occur when induction into the service disrupts the family budget, when a soldier dies and insurance or death benefits have not arrived, or when serious medical problems arise in the home. In short, Army Emergency Relief steps in and affords temporary relief to the dependents of a soldier in any financial crisis resulting from his presence in the Army.

Army Emergency Relief does not, however, compete with, or replace, the American Red Cross or other worthy local welfare agencies with which it works in closest cooperation.

Colonel McDowell pointed out that the funds used by AER have been raised in large measure by patriotic civilians or by the military personnel through such shows as Irving Berlin's "This is the Army." "Assisting soldiers and their families in this way we do not consider as charity," said Colonel McDowell, "because the emergencies requiring our assistance have been created by the call into the service of the nation. We view our aid, therefore, as a friendly act of one neighbor to another, just as happens constantly in every community in the country."

Applicants who write or go to Army Emergency Relief offices are required to prove relationship to the soldier and to furnish his full name, grade, Army serial number, and last mailing address. Hours for interviews are from 9 A. M. to 4:30 P. M. daily, except Sunday. Military personnel who may be in need of emergency assistance should apply to their organization commander.

NINE BOYS SERVE

Toronto, Ont.—Nine sons of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Mikulik have marched off from their home in St. Stanislaus Parish here and answered Canada's call to the color. Five of the boys already are serving overseas.

ST. GEORGE'S PARISH

Fr. Richard Burns Speaker

Young Ladies' Sodality members will gather in St. George's hall on Tuesday evening, April 7, to hear the Rev. Richard K. Burns, professor of History and Italian at St. Andrew's Seminary, as guest speaker. The Sodality have invited other parish sodalities to send representatives for this talk. Delegates from St. Patrick's and St. John the Evangelist's sodalities have already accepted this invitation, and will be represented by their delegates. Two neighboring sodalities at St. Stanislaus, St. Theresa, and Holy Redeemer likewise have been asked to send representatives.

INFANT OF PRAGUE

Because of their great devotion to the Infant Jesus of Prague, the Sodality, after having given a statue of the Infant to the Church, will now attempt to increase greater and wider devotion to the Infant Jesus of Prague. At all of the Masses this Sunday, the young ladies will distribute leaflets with devotion prayers in honor of the Infant to all who are interested in and would like to know more about the Infant.

An outstanding devotion, with its novel way of recitation, is known as the "Flying Novena." This is included in the pamphlet along with many other prayers to the Infant Jesus.
