Catholic Nurses Report Published

WASHINGTON — The biennial report, together with proceedings of the first biennial convention of the National Council of Catholic Nurses held last May 23-27, has been published. It was announced by the N.C.C.N. national headquarters here, and copies may be obtained from Mrs. B. C. Hewitt, the secretary, of 200 West Third St., Gordon, Neb. The convention was held in Detroit with the Most Rev. Edward Mooney, Archbishop of Detroit, as episcopal host.

Conditions First

The Catholic family, says my friend, Father Francovich, were looking for a good cook who could also keep an eye on two small children. Of course, it has been easier to find diamonds imbedded in the city's sidewalks but still, hope springs eternal and all that sort of things. Then finally after much search, they got a nibble. The applicant wrote out all her qualifications for the job, and then came to her climax.

"I shall expect," she wrote, "eighty dollars a month." They gulped but mentally agreed. "Each day I shall expect you to provide me with two Scotch and spades. I shall have one day off a week, and that day you will give me a pint of good Scotch."

While they realized the Scotch might make her a better cook, they were not sure how reliable a guardian she'd be of two small children.

Not just one single attempt makes us good men, but a lifetime.
