By DOLORES E. HAYBARAN

HORNELL—For services of St. Ann's Church were represented at a meeting in St. Ann's School on March 25 to plan a farewell party for the Rev. John P. O'Malley and a welcome reception for the Rev. John Mesinger. The party reception will take place during the week before Holy Week, according to tentative plans made.

The Rev. John P. O'Malley is now assistant pastor of St. Francis of Assisi Church in Auburn. For eight years he was assistant pastor of St. Ann's Church. He has been replaced by the Rev. John Mesinger, former assistant pastor of St. Alphonse Church in Auburn.

The Rev. Walter Fischer, pastor of St. Ann's Church, was the speaker at the meeting. He was assisted by Charles O'Brien and Charles Smith. Representatives from the Holy Name Society, the Rosary and Altar Society, the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin, and the Mothers' Club of St. Ann's School.

Charles Smith will be general chairman of the reception. He will be assisted by the following ward chairman, who will meet their own committees:

Charles J. O'Brien, Mrs. Charles O'Brien, Mrs. Walter Froelicher, Mrs. Michael Harvat, Mrs. Leo Duda, Mrs. J. G. Barba, Mrs. William Lamm, Mrs. Marie Voss, Mrs. Grace Johnson, Mrs. Karl Antonson and Mrs. Roger Hart.

Speaks on Penance

The Rev. Walter Fischer, assistant pastor of St. Ann's Church, was the speaker at the meeting of the Rosary Society on Sunday evening, March 22, at St. Ann's Church. Father Fischer gave an explanation of the sacrament of Penance.

He explained the true penitence for a good confession. By imparting a clear understanding of these five requisites, Father Fischer hoped to make confession easier for those who, through fear, had avoided it.

Sunday evening services begin each week at 7:30 o'clock with the recitation of the Rosary for the boys in the country's service. The sermon is followed by Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Daily Devotion

True devotion to the Blessed Virgin, while it is grounded on our sense of her dignity as the Mother of the Incarnate Word, should also show itself by constant recourse to her in our daily needs.

Survivors are: two daughters, Mrs. Anthony Maio and Mrs. Clarence Muson, both of Corning; one son, Phillip Candelena of Buffalo; twenty-two grandchildren; 4 great grandchildren. Seven of Mrs. Candelena's grandsons are serving in the armed forces.
