A sacred concert based on the Seven Last Words of our Lord from the Cross is being arranged for presentation on Palm Sunday, April 18. It will be given in the School Auditorium at 8:30 P. M. Tickets will be on sale this Sunday. John Dellaera of the Philadelphia Grand Opera Company is one of the guest artists who will take part. A large chorus of voices and a 35c orchestra will provide the music for the concert. A preliminary showing will be given for the children and the rest on this Sunday afternoon in the Auditorium.

Opera Star Coming To Sing 'Seven Last Words' Lead

With the noted John F. Dellaera of the Philadelphia Grand Opera Company as guest artist, Blessed Sacrament Concert Choir will present "The Seven Last Words of Christ" by Dubois in Blessed Sacrament Auditorium, Palm Sunday, April 18, at 8:30 P. M.

The Cantata, which was also presented and well received two seasons ago, when given by the same group, will be presented this year with full orchestra. The mixed chorus consists of forty voices under the direction of Anthony Dellaera of this city, brother of the opera star.

Charles John Sullivan, popular lyric tenor, will also appear as guest artist, singing the tenor solos.

Miss Sullivan will succeed Jean Dickerson for the exquisite portrayal of Rosina in Rossini's "Barber of Seville" presented at the Eastman Theater in October, 1942.

Mr. Dellaera was born in Bradford, Pa., and came to Rochester to study at the Eastman School of Music, at which time he was a member of the Blessed Sacrament Choir. After his graduation, he went to Italy, where he spent ten years in study and concert work, appearing in various cities on the continent, where he established a reputation, especially for his interpretation of the "Barber."

A special performance of the Cantata will be given on Sunday afternoon, Apr. 11, for the men of the city, at which time the baritone lead will be taken by Edward Rimo, well known Rochester singer.

MEN'S COMMUNION SUNDAY

The Senior Holy Name Society and men of the Parish will receive Holy Communion in a body on Sunday, Apr. 11, at the 8:00 Mass. Being Passion Sunday, a good representation of our men is expected.

LENTEN SERVICES

A reminder that on Wednesday evening the services will consist of Novena devotions in Honor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, also prayers for our service men and women of the Parish, followed by the Way of the Cross.

On Friday afternoon at 2:30 will be the Way of the Cross for the children, and adults who find it impossible to come in the evening.

Friday evening at 7:45 will be recitation of the Rosary, sermon by our Most Rev. Bishop Kearney. Our Pastor asks that a representative from each family be present. Our Church should be filled to capacity.

The Lenten season has reached its half-way mark and during the remaining weeks, all are invited to make a special effort to attend these Lenten devotions. On Sunday at 5:00 P.M. there will be the Way of the Cross and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

BLANKET CLUB

Our ever popular Blanket Club is drawing to its close. It has proved very successful and the committee in charge wishes to thank all members for their cooperation. Mrs. Martin Rogner of Parsing St. was general chairman.

WILL HERCT PLAQUE

The Carl and Joseph Lutzkein Post Veterans of Foreign Wars will erect a plaque to honor the men and women of the 22nd Ward who are now serving in our armed forces. This plaque will be located on the church property, facing Dorsan St. and Portland Ave. It will be 10 feet high, 17 feet long in white colonial design with the names of all in the service listed thereon. Those who have made the supreme sacrifice, in gold. The front cover is heavy glass to prevent corrosion by the weather. Over the top will be an eagle with wide spread wings.

Within the week of Apr. 4 to 10 inclusive the committee will call on the parishioners for names and addresses of the members of their families who are now in the service of our country.

HOLY FAMILY HIGH-LIGHTS

Senior Annual

It is expected that Holy Family High's Senior Annual, "The Achilleon," will go to press about April 15 so that it may be ready for distribution the last week in May.

This year's edition will excel that of previous issues. The theme is patriotic throughout with dedication to members of the alumni in the service whose pictures in uniform will appear on various pages of the book, also pictures of the several classes inaugurated this year to further the School's Victory Program, as well as other class pictures and numerous activities which will tell a complete story of life at Holy Family High. The book will also contain a personal message from Principal, the Rev. William E. Davis.

Members of the staff are grateful to those who have sent in their names as patrons. Without these good friends it would be impossible to finance a Year Book at this time.

Senior Play and Military Pageant

Holy Family High's Dramatic Club will present the Senior Play, "Almost Eighteen," a comedy drama in three acts by Dana Thomas with Robert Doyle playing the lead as Eddie who is almost eighteen and is a peck of trouble. His mother (Esther Wiarker), and his dad (Joseph O'Donnell), are quite fond of him, but he feels like an orphan when they believe, along with Mr. Merritt, his professor (Paul Magri) and Mrs. Granville (Theresa Kelley), that he really copied an essay from a book and entered it as a contest entry his own. His uncle, George (John Delaney), his music teacher (Jean Brennan), and his sweetheart Ann (Kathryn Cregg) are the only ones who seem to believe him when he denies that he sent the paper in.

Ann and he get along fine until Sally (Marjorie Delaney), and Tommy Granville (Daniel Horan), come along and then Ann shows resentment at Eddie's seeming preference for Sally. Eddie's aunt Beatrice (Marylyn Berry), with her tennis and mercantile ambition, help most wholesome situations. Watch in the end Sally and to believe that he is guilty for tragedy. Miss Delaney's direction promises to be outstanding in the annals of the
