

Blessed Sacrament Parish

HOLY NAME SUNDAY

Next Sunday, Apr. 27, being the second of the month is the regular Communion Sunday for the men of the Holy Name Society. The society meets in a hall at the 7 o'clock Mass each month. This being Holy Name Sunday, all members of the society are invited to bring a large number of Holy Name men to Mass for.

A meeting of the Holy Name Society will be held on Monday evening, Apr. 22, in the Church hall.

At 8:15 The Nominating Council will pick the slate for election in May will be appointed at this meeting. The remaining articles of the newly revised constitution will be acted upon Monday evening. In order to help new members get better acquainted each one will be asked to bring a name card for identification.

FLAVY SACRED CONCERT

A sacred concert based on the Seven Last Words of our Lord from the Cross is being arranged for presentation on Palm Sunday.

April 22, 1942, will be given by the Sacred Association at 8:30 P. M. Tickets will be on sale this Sunday. John Deberry of the Philadelphia Grand Opera Company is one of the great artists who will take part. A large chorus of voices and a fine orchestra will provide the music for the concert. A preliminary showing will be given for the children and the men on this Sunday afternoon in the Auditorium.

Opera Star Coming To Sing 'Seven Last Words' Lead

With the noted John F. Deberry of the Philadelphia Grand Opera Company as guest artist, Blessed Sacrament Concert Choir will present "The Seven Last Words of Christ" by Dobbie in Sacred Dramatic Association, Palm Sunday, April 22, at 8:30 P. M.

This concert, which was also presented and well received two seasons ago, was given by the same group, will be presented this year with full orchestra. The concert consists of seven voices under the direction of Anthony Deberry of this city, brother of the opera star.

John F. Deberry

Charles John Sullivan, popular lyric tenor, will also appear in guest artist, singing the lower roles.

Mr. Deberry was born in Bradford, Pa., and came to Washington to study at the Eastman School of Music, at which time he was a member of the Blessed Sacrament Choir. After his graduation he went to Italy, where he spent ten years in study and concert work, appearing in various cities on the continent, where he established a reputation especially for his interpretation of the "Barber."

A special performance of the Cantata will be given on Sunday afternoon, Apr. 27, for the men of the city, at which time the handsome lead will be taken by Edward Rimo, well known Rochester singer.

ST. ANDREW'S PARISH

MEN'S COMMON SUNDAY

The Senior Holy Name Society and men of the Parish will receive Holy Communion in a body on Sunday, Apr. 13, at the 8:00 Mass. Being Passion Sunday, a good representation of our men is expected.

HOLY FAMILY HIGHLIGHTS

Senior Annual
It is expected that Holy Family High's Senior Annual, "The Achilleas," will go to press about April 15 so that it may be ready for distribution the last week in May.

This year's edition will excel that of previous issues. The theme is patriotic throughout with dedication to members of the alumni in the service whose pictures in uniform will appear on various pages of the book, also pictures of the several classes inaugurated this year to further the School's Victory Program, as well as other class pictures and numerous activities which will tell a complete story of life at Holy Family High. The book will also contain a personal message from Principal, the Rev. William R. Davis.

Members of the staff are grateful to those who have sent in their names as patrons. Without these good friends it would be impossible to finance a Year Book at this time.

Senior Play and Military Pageant

Holy Family High's Dramatic Club will present the Senior Play, "Almost Eighteen," a comedy drama in three acts by Dean Thomas with Robert Doyle playing the lead as Eddie who is almost eighteen and in a peak of trouble. His mother (Kathleen Warner), and his dad (Joseph O'Donnell), are quite fond of him but he feels like an orphan when they believe, along with Mr. Morritt, his professor (Eliot Magill), and Mrs. Grayville (Theresa Kelley), that he really copied an essay from a book and entered it in a contest on his own. His uncle, George (John Delaney), his music teacher (John Brennan), and his neighbor, Ann (Kathryn Cragg), are the only ones who seem to believe him when he denies that he sent the paper in.

Ann and he get along like usual Sally (Marjorie Delaney), and Tommy Grayville (Eliot Magill), come along and then Ann shows resentment at Eddie's seeming preference for Sally. Eddie's sister, Beatrice (Marylyn Barry), with her instincts and sensible remarks help ease whatever is bothering Eddie's mind and he is finally led to believe that he is worth his friends. Miss Delaney, George Warner, is then notified to believe the truth of it.

LENKEN SERVICES

A reminder that on Wednesday evening the services will consist of Novena devotions in Honor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, also prayers for our service men and women of the Parish, followed by the Way of the Cross.

On Friday afternoon at 3:00 will be the Way of the Cross for the children, and adults who find it impossible to come in the evening. Friday evening at 7:45 will be recitation of the Rosary, sermon by our Most Rev. Bishop Kearney. Our Pastor asks that a representative from each family be present. Our Church should be filled to capacity.

The Lenten season has reached its half-way mark and during the remaining weeks all are invited to make a special effort to attend these Lenten devotions. On Sunday at 8:00 P. M. there will be the Way of the Cross and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

BLANKET CLUB
Our ever popular Blanket Club is drawing to its close. It has proved very successful and the committee in charge wishes to thank all members for their cooperation. Mrs. Martha Neppner of Furlong St. was general chairman.

WILL BRIDY PLAQUE
The Carl and Joseph Lescanin Post Veterans of Foreign Wars will erect a plaque to honor the men and women of the 2nd Ward who are now serving in our world's forces. This plaque will be located on the church property, facing Duran St. and Portland Ave. It will be 24 feet high, 17 feet long in white colonial design with the names of all in the service listed thereon. Those who have made the supreme sacrifice in gold. The front cover is heavy glass to prevent corrosion by the weather. Over the top will be an eagle with wide spread wings.

Within the week of Apr. 2 to 10 includes the committee will call on the parishioners for names and addresses of the members of their families who are now in the service of our country.

and for yourself how Eddie is finally reinstated in the good graces of all.
