

Prelate Cites Guide To Industrial Justice

WILMINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—An industrial and labor justice guide was issued by the Catholic Bishops of the Diocese of Wheeling, W. Va., today. The guide, which is the first of its kind in the West, is a result of the study of the National Industrial Conference Board's report on industrial justice, issued in 1939.

Remember 1933 when beer was made legal ... the year when Genesee started out as the most popular beer in this locality.

... Skirts went to within 9 inches of the ground ... "42nd Street" was packin' them in ... and you just weren't dressed if you didn't wear a Princess Eugenie hat!

Ever since repeal, folks 'round here have bought and will buy more Genesee Beer than any other beer. Yes sir, quality will tell!

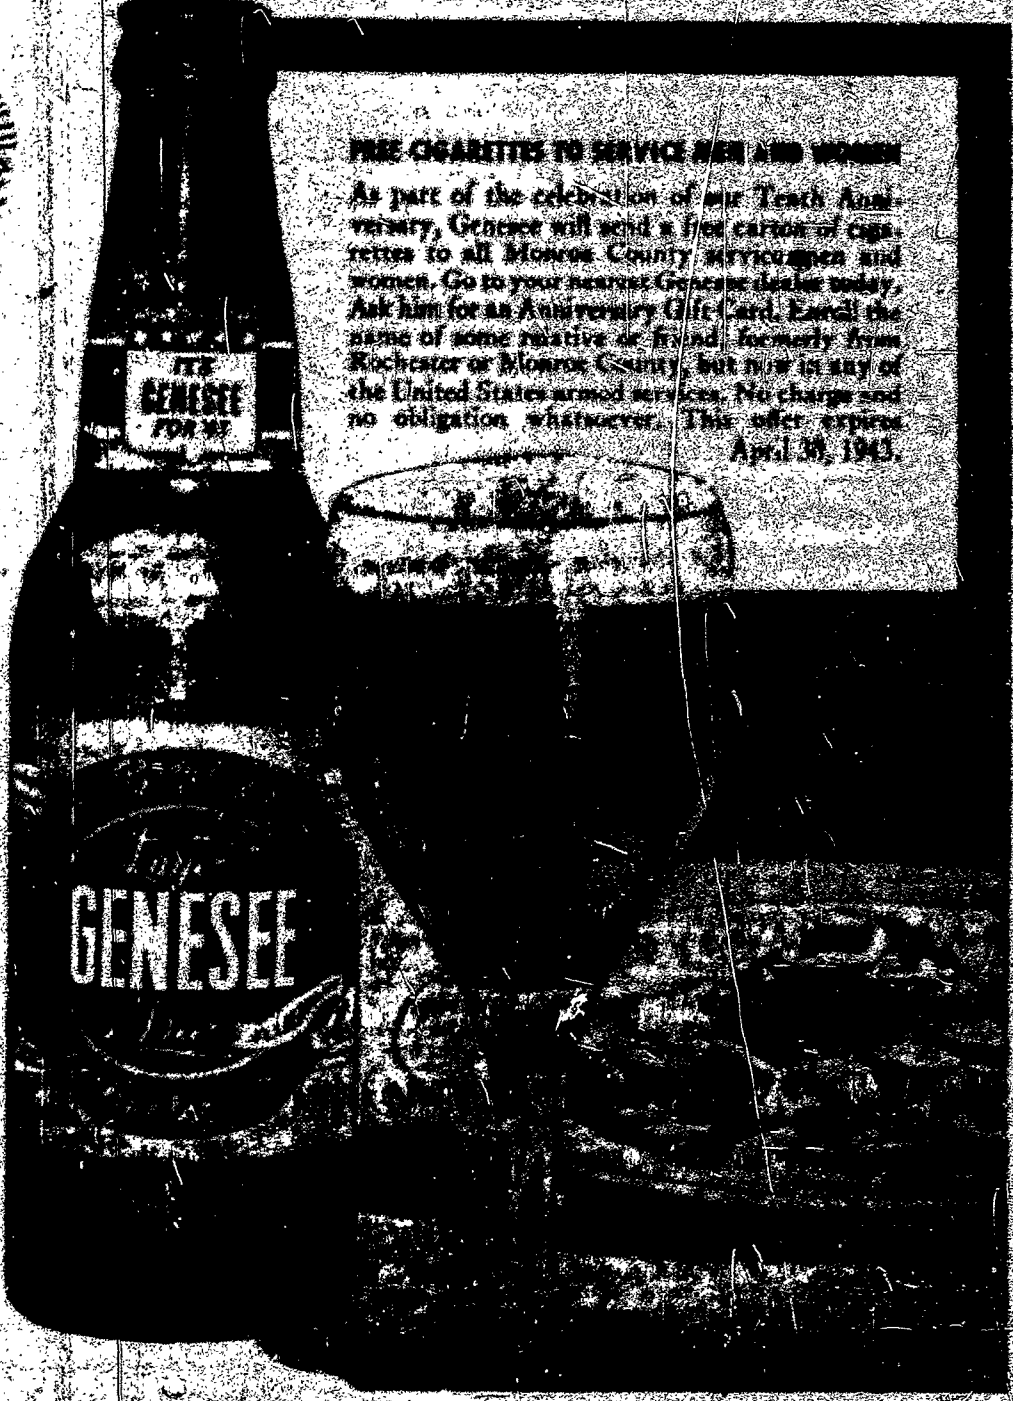

YOU SANG:
1. A SONG ABOUT A WALKING DREAM!
2. A SONG ABOUT AN EASTER PASTIME!
3. A SONG ABOUT ROUGH WEATHER!

Every year since '33 ... we at Genesee have conscientiously tried to improve each succeeding brew. And today we present what we believe to be the finest of them all ... Genesee Anniversary Lager.
