ST. MARY'S, Auburn

SERVICE MASS SET

By MARYBESS RABBOY

AUBURN — The Holy Name Society of St. Mary's will have the 7:30 Grass Mass on next Sunday offered for its particulars in the service and will receive Communion at that Mass for the intention of the men and women who are serving Uncle Sam. The Holy Name meeting will take place on Tuesday evening in Lyceum Hall.

STUDY CLUB LEADERS

Leaders of the Study Club will meet on Sunday evening after the Novena in the school. Every leader is asked to attend this meeting.

LENTEN SERVICES

Lenten devotions are held every Wednesday and Friday evenings at 7:30. The Wednesday evening devotions are combined with the Novena of the Miraculous Medal. On Friday evenings the Stations are followed by Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Stations are also said on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. There are Masses every day during Lent at 7, 8 and 10:30 o'clock.

Rev. Lelio Hayn of the Passionist Congregation will assist at St. Mary's during Holy Week.

FIRST COMMUNION

The First Communion Classes will have their instruction on Tuesday and Friday afternoons at 3:45 in the school. The Public School children will have their instruction on Friday afternoon at 2:45 in the school, and the High School students will have their instruction at the usual hour on Wednesday afternoon.

PLAYS CHAIN PRAYER

The Chain Prayer is much in evidence again with many of the links being distributed throughout the city. The Chain Prayer is a curious product of ignorance, superstition and idle credulity. The Holy Prayer commends the practice of a respect and reverence to Christ, if you don't say it. This is pure superstition. We are glad to greet us forever if it be His holy will and if only today every attempt to a prayer in all benevolence and see a friend. Anyone receiving a copy of a chain prayer should destroy it.

SEVEN DOLORS FEAST

The Friday following Passion Sunday is the Feast of the Seven Dolors of Our Blessed Lady. The Feast this year falls on Friday, April 16. The Seven Dolors of Mary are: The Prophecy of Simeon that a sword would pierce her heart; the flight into Egypt; the search for Our Lord before he was found in the Temple; her meeting with Jesus as He carried His Cross to Calvary; His Crucifixion and Death; the taking down of His dead Body from the Cross, and the burial of Our Lord.

MSGR. QUEEN COMING

The Rt. Rev. Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen is coming to Auburn to speak again this year and the lecture will be under the sponsorship of the Lyceum Players of St. Mary's Church. No definite date has been set for the lecture but it will be sometime late in May.

ONE-ACT PLAY

The Lyceum Players held their April meeting on Thursday evening. Miss Helen Stapleton, president of the club, presided at the meeting and Miss Eileen Burns and Mrs. James Elsbree were in charge of refreshments. After the business meeting a new one-act play, "Divine Deliverance," was presented under the direction of James Elsbree. The cast was composed of Anne Stapleton, Mrs. John Orr, Bill McDonald, James Elsbree and Mrs. Fred Armstrong.

Armed Services Call Many Youths From Auburn

called, "Wimpy," and who was so pleased with the work of the young Auburnian that he gave him a day off. Before entering the service Private Campi, who is a graduate of East High School where he was a member of the football and baseball squads, was affiliated with the Campi Express Lines, Inc.

Pfc. John Curtin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Curtin of 14 Mattle Street, is now stationed at Indiantown Gap Military Reservation, Pa. Private Curtin, a graduate of Holy Family High School, is a well-known football, basketball and softball player. Last season while pitching for the Auburn Sparkplugs, 1942 city softball champions, he established a new strikeout record of 18 in one game. Last fall and winter he was a star performer with the Ed Peter and Paul's quint in the Catholic Church Basketball League. He is a member of the Ukrainian National Club and was formerly employed by the Auburn Spark Plug Co., Inc.

Pvt. John Barzaich, son of John Barzaich, Sr., of 72 Garrow Street, is somewhere with the U. S. armed forces in the southern Pacific. He has been in the service for over two years and is a graduate of West High School and a member of the Ukrainian National Club. His brother, George Barzaich, seaman first class, lost his life in a submarine accident in the South Atlantic over a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Hierst of 63 Bradford Street were made happy today by receipt of a long awaited letter from their son, Pvt. Martin Paul Hierst, who is in the thick of the fighting in the South Pacific. In the letter, via San Francisco, Private Hierst tells of feeling fine, says he is enjoying the hot and cold weather and would welcome some snow. Private Hierst, who has been with the Marines one year and three months before entering the service, was employed at the Spark Plug Company. Private Hierst's brother, Corp. William Hierst, has been in the regular U. S. Coast Guard for two years and is now stationed in Newfoundland. Both Corporal Hierst and Private Hierst are graduates of St. Alphonsus Parochial School and of Senior High School and of the Columbian Squires and were football and basketball players. The father, Charles M. Hierst, is a member of the Auburn Fire Department and in his day was a well-known athlete in the Fourth Ward.

Apprentice Seaman William F. Churchill, son of William H. Churchill of 9 Lansing Street, has been released from the hospital at the Sampson Naval Base after a confinement of 24 days. Seaman Churchill, who is 18 years of age, has been at the naval base for the past nine weeks. He is a graduate of St. Alphonsus Parochial School and of East High School where he played basketball, baseball and football. He is also a member of the Columbian Squires.

Second Lieut. Jack D. Brennan, 21-year-old son of Mrs. John Brennan of 33 Howard Street, was a member of the large class of bombardiers graduated today from the Midland Bombardier School in West Texas. Lieutenant Brennan attended the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa, Ala., from 1939 to 1942, and he is a member of the Phi Kappa Sigma Fraternity.

Pfc. Robert F. Schneider, after a five-day furlough, has returned to his post at Seymour Johnson Field, North Carolina, where he has been ordered to attend a four months' school in aviation mechanics. Private Schneider is connected with the aviation division of the army.

John F. Kulakowski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kulakowski, 148 Seymour Street, has been promoted from corporal to sergeant at the Armored Force Replacement Training Center at Fort Knox, Ky. Sergeant Kulakowski, a former machinist, was inducted in January, 1942. He is now helping to train recruits in the art of tank warfare.

A leave of absence has been granted to Patrolman Joseph T. Conboy, one of the younger members of the Auburn Police Dept. who leaves next week for Atlantic City to begin basic training for the Army Signal Corps. Conboy has been a member of the force since June 9, 1941. He has been ordered to report at the Atlantic City training base next Wednesday. Last fall he enlisted and was placed on the reserve list and since that time has been taking a course in Signal Corps operations at West High School during his time off. He resided at 18 Hamilton Avenue.

James Greene, AMM 3/c, U. S. Naval Reserve, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Keeler of 72 Prospect Street, satisfactorily completed the prescribed course of ground instruction for Naval Air Gunners at the Naval Air Gunners' School, Jacksonville, Fla. He is now awaiting further course in Air Operational Training Command, headquarters at U. S. Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, Fla. Prior to his gunners' course, he completed a course as aviation radioman. The present course will require about eight weeks to complete and then he may be transferred to active service.

Second Lieut. Paul E. Hickey, U. S. A., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George V. Hickey of 1 Lawton Avenue. He received his commission this week on completion of the officers' training course at Fort Belvoir, Va. He was inducted into the service in May, 1941, and received his basic training at Fort Lee, Va., and later at Fort Dix, N. J. For some time he served at a southwestern Pacific base, returning to this country last December. Lieutenant Hickey is a graduate of East High, class of 1936, and of Notre Dame University, class of 1940. Before entering the army he was employed at the International Harvester Co.

Corp. John F. Graney, USMC, has been promoted to the rank of sergeant. Sergeant Graney has been stationed in Washington, D. C. His brother, Pvt. Joseph F. Graney, USMC, has completed his basic training at Parris Island, S. C. and now is in the AAA artillery instrument school at Quantico, Va. Both boys are graduates of Holy Family High School and are sons of Sixth Ward Supervisor John S. Graney and Mrs. Graney of 86 Seymour Street.

Laymen, plan now to make your week-end parish retreat at the Diocesan Retreat House, Seneca Lake, Geneva.
