AVON RECEPTION

The Rochester Sodality Union extends congratulations to Sodalities of St. Agnes' Church, Avon. On Sunday, Mar. 21, Rev. Ray Morphy, Diocesan Director of Sodalities, received eleven new members into Our Lady's Sodality. Rev. Edward Shamon of St. Michael's Church, delivered the sermon. To further the spirit of these new members a delegation from St. Michael's Sodality was present at the reception. This Sodality, with Rev. Vincent Collins as director, is assured very active service from these eleven new members.

PROBATION PERIOD

While on the subject of reception, let us suggest that Sodalities planning receptions for May, start probation classes. It is a proven fact that the success or failure of a Sodality depends largely upon the amount of preparation before candidates are received. Sodality Rule Books can be obtained at the Sodality Headquarters in Columbus Civic Centre.

LENTEN STUDY CLUBS

St. Monica's Sodality has taken to heart the suggestion to Lenten study clubs. So interested were these Sodalists that the entire Senior group formed a club. Their meetings are held in the Church Hall every Friday night after services.

LEADING SODALITIES

Is your Sodality among the leading in the city? One of the requisites is to be in good standing with the Union. Miss Beverly McLaughlin, Treasurer, will receive dues at any time. Following the April meeting a list of all Sodalities paid to date will be published. Please see your Treasurer before Apr. 25.

HOLY GHOST REPORTS

Our Lady's Committee put much preparation on their March meeting. As a gift to Our Lady on the feast of the Annunciation, each Sodalist attended Mass and received Holy Communion in her honor. Since reception is not too far distant, Father Wurzer, Director, invited the prospective members and their mothers to attend this meeting. Arrangements were made for each committee chairman to give a report of the year's work. This furnished the candidates with information on the work they must be prepared to do and aided them in choosing the committee they wished to join.

REQUEST PAMPHLETS

Recently the Sodality Union purchased a pamphlet rack for the USO. Sodalists are requested to keep this rack stocked with good reading material. Arrangements have been made to collect any suitable pamphlets which Sodalists may find among their various Sodality supplies. The date of the next Union meeting will be Apr. 28. Please bring your contribution with you. This is another opportunity to help keep up the morale.

AT AQUINAS INSTITUTE

By ROGER TRABOLD

On Thursday evening, Apr. 8, the Aquinas Junior and Senior Bands will present their Victory Concert at the school auditorium. In addition to the bands, the Glee Club will perform under the able direction of Mr. Hazemann.

The program will consist chiefly of light music, such as the colorful "My Hero," from the "Chocolate Soldier." Selections from Jerome Kern's "Showboat," as well as De Forest Cline's "Cowboy Lament," will also be rendered by the band.

The Glee Club, for its part, is scheduled to sing the beautiful Latin hymn, "Adoramus Te," and the stirring patriotic melody, "Your Land and My Land." This affair presents the first opportunity for the Aquinas musicians to display their combined talents.

PURPLE HEART AWARD

The Purple Heart medal which is only given to those in the service who have sacrificed safety and life for their country, has been awarded to Lt. Arthur Ocort, a former Aquinas student killed in action in North Africa. Lieutenant Ocort joined the armed forces in 1939 after graduation from Aquinas. His gallantry will always remain a model for other students fighting for their country.
