Tell Your Neighborhood Merchant When You DO NOT SEE HIS AD in The Catholic Courier.

'Dear Folks'

(Suggested by a reader that letters from servicemen be carried under this heading, the first of such letters to be printed below. Excerpts of letters from boys and girls in the service describing spiritual activity or morale building in their posts, camps or stations are preferable for their religious newspaper. Send them to the News Editor, CATHOLIC COURIER, 10 Cheshire St., Rochester, N. Y.)

John Collins, apprentice seaman, Hempstead Naval Training Station (home parish, St. John the Evangelist, Rochester):

"I just came from Mass. It was beautiful. We had it in the drill hall, which is a massive structure with the floor about the size of a football field and 100 posts, all clear floor space.

"A big cupboard in the wall opens up into a sanctuary with a small altar and stage. The sermon is said over the air by big amplifiers. A small electric organ is played by one of the sailors. Two other sailors are altar boys.

"It keeps good to see all these young men in this going to Mass (about 700 men at one Mass). The Mass had an enormous feeling to it, too. I had to stand and I was right in front of a gun rack containing about 600 rifles. Somehow the Holy Mass doesn't seem to tie up to such things as guns and ships.

"I did a lot of thinking at that Mass and for the first time it really held a deep meaning for me. At the end when closing prayers were being said, St. Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, etc., suddenly struck home and I realized that he is indeed our patron saint."

Third Connelly Brother Signs Up In Armed Forces

ROBERT E. CONNELLY of 284 N. Goodman St. was inducted into the armed forces on Feb. 19 and sent to Camp Hood. After three months at this camp he was called home because of the death of his father, Peter J. Connelly. On his return to camp, he was given the commission of corporal and sent to Tank Destroyers School. He is a graduate of Aquinas Institute and at the time of his induction, was employed at the Delco Appliance Corp. One brother, Lieut. Frank X. Connelly, is in the Marine Corps and another, Lieut. Peter J. Connelly, is stationed in Newark, N.J., in the Authorization Division.

SERMON PUBLISHED

Washington.—President Manuel L. Quezon, of the Commonwealth of the Philippines, has had printed 10,000 copies of the program of the Mass commemorating the seventh anniversary of the Philippine Commonwealth, including the impressive sermon delivered by the Very Rev. Robert I. Gannon, S.J., President of Fordham University.

OPA Checks Restaurant Prices

Rochester OPA was notified today that the New York Regional office moved swiftly on Apr. 11 to prevent price increases in every eating and drinking establishment in the country, following a Washington price control order effective Sunday.

Copies of the order entitled "Filing of Prices by Restaurants and Similar Establishments; Delegation of Authority To Fix Maximum Prices," and an explanatory letter from Administrator Prentiss M. Brown, have been sent, Durham S. Belton, Jr., Rochester price official said, to all local rationing boards and district offices in Region Two which includes New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, Delaware and the District of Columbia.

Boards are instructed to see that proprietors of every establishment within their jurisdiction where food or beverages are sold receive a copy of the Brown letter. In accordance with the general order, the letter directs that each proprietor shall file with his local board before May 1st a list of prices charged for all items of food and drink sold by him during the seven-day period between Apr. 4 and 10.

"The purpose of this filing," Mr. Belton stated, "is to establish a price base period for the guidance of the Regional Administrator, Sylvan L. Joseph, New York, in ordering a freeze of restaurant prices in any area where such action may be deemed necessary."
